ONLY TWO weeks remain to nominate candidates to receive the Medal of Merit for Outstanding Youth sponsored by U.S. Rep. William D. Ford, D-Taylor, whose district includes Westland.

The award is open to young people ages 14-22 for recognition of their heroic, leadership or other voluntary public service activities performed without payment. Nominations should not be based on scholarship, athletic ability or membership in organizations.

Nomination forms are available from committee member Anita Cobb (721-3126) or from Ford's district office in the Wayne Federal Building (722-1411).

THE CONGRESSMAN, who has been called "one of the best friends education has in the U.S. Congress," has been awarded the 1983 National Policymaker Commendation by the American Vocational Association (AVA).

Ford was cited by the AVA for his leadership in establishing a major role for vocational education in the new job-training partnership act. He also was responsible for increased funding for vocational education, for requiring that public vocational education be given first consideration to offer training programs under the act and to assure that vocational educators be represented on state coordinating councils and private industry councils.

Representing the 15th Congressional District, Ford is the ranking majority member of the post-secondary education subcommittee and the elementary, secondary and vocational education subcommittee. Ford also is the second ranking majority member of the education and labor committee.

CUB SCOUTS in Pack 774 at Wildwood Elementary School served up more than dinner at their annual blue and gold banquet last month. Cubmaster Glenn Kingery distributed numerous badges, gold and silver arrows to the group.

Future activities of the group include a fund-raiser, trip to the circus, camp outings and baseball team sign up.

PROGRAM pamphlets outlining leisure time and academic classes offered by the Livonia Public Schools' Community Education Department this spring are being mailed to district residents this week.

Registration begins immediately. Non-residents may enroll at an extra fee. Classes begin the week of April 18 and continue for seven weeks.

Extra booklets are available at Livonia public libraries, Livonia branches of Michigan National Bank and schools in the district. For registration details, call 422-1200 Ext. 334, 338 or 329.

CHAIRING THE 1983 Junior Achievement Fund Drive for the Wayne-Westland area is Frank Gabbert, a material handling manager with Ford Motor Co.'s Michigan Truck Plant. The drive will continue through April 26.

Funds raised will be used to support area JA programs. This year, 80 young people have formed four JA companies, and a project business class is being conducted at Franklin Junior High School.

Other classes in business basics, applied management and applied economics programs are being operated throughout southeastern Michigan.

Mayor Charles Pickering (holding microphone) discussed city finances and cable television during the first town hall meeting for Westland residents. The meeting was moderated by Westland Jaycee Al Allen (at podium). Also on hand for the evening were several members of Pickering's administration, including Bob Fritz of the building department, police Chief William Rechlin and purchasing director Bud Gibson. For more pictures see page 8A.

Residents applaud town meeting

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

Westland had its first town hall meeting Thursday, and it was such a success, residents were asking for more.

Mayor Charles Pickering greeted some 100 persons in the Bailey Recreation Center, who sat through 2½ hours of discussion concerning the city's finances and an explanation of the process being used to select a cable-television company.

Pickering had hoped the meeting would not dissolve into political rhetoric between himself and residents. His hopes were realized.

Residents were quiet and orderly, submitted written questions and later some asked oral questions.

Al Allen, president of the Westland Jaycees, acted as moderator.

The meeting was an administrative endeavor, not one initiated by the council, although council members were welcome. Councilman Robert Wagner was the only one to attend.

PICKERING told the residents his administration was seeking new business for Westland.

He explained, by a chart, where the taxpayers' dollars were going.

"Out of each dollar of taxes, 64 cents goes to the school, 10 cents to the city, one cent to Wayne County Community College, 12 cents to Wayne County, and 13 cents to police and fire retirement fund, the Peoples Community Hospital Association, sanitation and other expenses."

He said that for a home with a market value of $50,000, the State Equalized Valuation (SEV) was $25,000 with taxes at $1,838.50 last year.

This year the SEV has dropped to $23,015 and taxes were lowered to $1,710.01.

"Even though the millage has gone from 73.46 to 74.3, there is a tax savings of $126.49 due to the lower SEV," Pickering said.

He added that even though there has been a reduction in various staffs, the city so far has been able to provide service to residents.

"However, we can't provide the same level of service if we are forced to have more cuts," he said.

PICKERING TOLD the crowd that there were 32 employees at city hall in 1975, the total rose to 40 in 1979 and that now there are 30.

"In 1975 there were 107 employees in public services. This has been reduced to 72," he said.

Regarding the upcoming road repairs, the mayor said work is scheduled to start April 7 on Wayne Road between Glenwood and Warren with a Sept. 15 completion date. Cost to Westland for this project is $120,000.

Widening of Warren Road between Inkster Road and Middlebelt will start in September, he said.

"Ford Road will be a five-lane road between Venoy to I-275, including a bridge over the railroad track. This is

Board considers new round of budget cuts

By Sandra Armbruster
editor

Board members are considering a second round of budget cuts in the Wayne-Westland school district as administrators warily await state aid payments.

The proposed $382,000 in cuts for such things as office supplies, books, workshops, conferences and PTA matching funds is needed in order to balance this year's budget, according to John Baracy, assistant superintendent for business.

Until the cuts are formally approved by the board in about four weeks, the finance office is "in the process here of internally controlling the budget" according to what's been proposed, Baracy said.

WHEN THE first round of budget cuts was approved last November, included in the list was a reminder that another $250,000 in spending would have to be cut.

Board members had hoped that concessions from employee groups would cover the cuts. In the meantime, however, the secretaries' union had taken to arbitration a five-day layoff already instituted. The district won the case, but the arbitrator made his decision on the condition that the district not impose further layoffs.

Baracy said that's why the board is looking at other areas for budget cuts. He said the proposal contains a "cushion" of about $100,000 in cuts in case the district runs over budget in some area. He said that to get approval for spending above budgeted limits, a school principal would have to go before the superintendent's cabinet.

Other elements affecting this year's budget include the mild winter, which has reduced utility costs, and the rising unemployment compensation the district pays. Baracy said people are remaining on layoff longer without finding jobs than the district had anticipated.

THE DISTRICT'S careful budgeting could be thrown off, however, if the state decides to cancel payment of the $4.7 million state aid payment due last month.

"If we get the state aid for February, it will be close, but it will balance," said Baracy.

"If we don't get the $4.7 million, we're too far down the road. That pulls the rug out. The only thing we could do is close schools because we're too far along in the year (to make more cuts)."

Baracy said that board President James LeDuc has written to the state attorney general, asking which state law supersedes the other: the requirement that schools provide 180 days of instruction or the requirement that the

Ficano assumes duties as county sheriff

By Richard Lech
staff writer

Robert Ficano wasted little time in assuming some of the duties of Wayne County sheriff.

Circuit Judge Paul Teranes ruled last Thursday that the sheriff's position belongs to Ficano, a Livonia resident and deputy county clerk.

Teranes' decision takes it away from Loren Pittman, who has been acting as sheriff since his appointment Jan. 5 by County Executive William Lucas.

The 30-year-old Ficano said he considered himself sheriff "when I walked out of the courtroom."

"Actually, I started by meeting with the unions last night (Thursday)," Ficano said Friday. "And I met with the union executive board to discuss ways of being fiscally responsible for the county." Ficano said he continued meeting with union officials on Friday.

BUT WHILE Ficano already was performing some of the sheriff's functions, Pittman said he would continue in the position while he appeals Judge Teranes' decision.

Teranes gave Pittman 20 days to take his case to the state Court of Appeals before his order declaring Ficano sheriff takes effect.

Whether that appeal will be filed — and when — were expected to be decided today, according to Bill Johnson, press secretary for County Executive

the winner

Lucas. Lucas had been sheriff 13 years before taking the new county executive post and appointing Pittman, his under-sheriff for a decade, to be his successor.

"On Monday he'll sit down with attorneys and review the decision and at that time decide what direction to take," Johnson said of Lucas. "Likely he will pursue a stay of the court order and an appeal."

Mr. Pittman has a separate attorney, but I'm sure he's going to be part of the discussion on what would be the most appropriate, whether to file a joint appeal or act independently."

Loren Pittman
he'll appeal

Johnson said an appeals panel would first decide whether to hear the appeal, then determine whether to grant the stay order.

Ficano said there was an "informal understanding" between the two sides that Pittman would either file his appeal by Wednesday or resign. Otherwise Ficano said he could seek an injunction forcing Pittman out of the office.

THE COURT RULING is seen as a test of the new Wayne County charter, specifically a provision giving the county executive the power to make appointments to fill vacancies in elective posts. Lucas used that provision when he appointed Pittman.

But Ficano was selected for the same position by a three-member panel on Dec. 22. That panel consisted of County Clerk James Killen, Prosecutor William Cahalan and Presiding Probate Judge Joseph Pernick. Under state law, such a panel is to be called to fill vacancies in elected county positions.

So the question was: Which takes precedence — the county charter or state law?

FICANO WENT to court, asking for a summary judgment declaring him sheriff. Lucas filed his own motion, asking the court to deny Ficano's motion and support Lucas' authority to fill the vacancy. Pittman filed a separate motion also asking that Ficano's motion be denied.

Ruling in Ficano's favor, Teranes wrote that state law superseded the county charter. Teranes said the state enabling legislation which allows for a county charter expressly forbids a

Gunman gives up to police

By Maurie Walker
staff writer

A 40-year-old man who barricaded himself in his house, shot at two officers and held Westland police at bay with a shotgun for two hours Tuesday night is being held in lieu of $25,000 cash bond.

William Stabenow is charged with two counts of attempted murder and two counts of felony with a fire arm. If convicted he could face life in prison.

He was arraigned Thursday before magistrate Les Hall where a plea of innocent was entered for him. Stabenow faces pretrial March 21 in 18th District Court.

Detective Sgt. Robert Barthold said that at about 9 p.m. Tuesday, police received a call that shots had been fired in the vicinity of Somerset and Schuman.

"Our officers responded, but didn't hear any shots or see anyone with a weapon. They returned to their regular patrols. Shortly after there was a call that there was a barricaded gunman at 33679 Somerset," Barthold said.

With Sgt. John Price in charge, officers went to the house and knocked on the door.

"A man inside yelled at the officers that he was going to kill them if they didn't leave," Barthold said.

HEADQUARTERS called him on the telephone and asked him to come out and surrender. He refused.

As 10 officers surrounded the house, the suspect fired four times at Officer Robert Getschman and once at Patrolman Leonard West who were on opposite sides of the house. Police did not return the fire.

Two hours later, Stabenow surrendered to police.

Barthold said 13 spent shotgun shells were found, some on the front lawn and some in the house.

"He had shot through his back door and window, hit a neighbor's house and shed," Barthold said.

county executive officer from making appointments of county elected officials.

"A county charter cannot contain provisions beyond the authority given to it by the enabling legislation," Teranes wrote.

He disagreed with an assertion by Pittman and Lucas that the section of the legislation forbidding the county executive to make appointments applies only to "the original appointment of those officials who are to be elected" and not to the filling of vacancies.

"I believe this is stretching the language (of the enabling legislation)," Teranes wrote, "and in the light of the comments at the Constitutional Convention which considered the offices of the prosecutor and sheriff to be state offices... it was the intent of the convention and the state legislature to keep the office of the sheriff subject to the general statutes and local acts of this state."

TERANES ALSO ruled that Ficano's appointment was legal — even though Pittman, as Lucas' undersheriff, would legally be considered his successor under one state statute.

Teranes pointed to a Michigan Supreme Court case, Attorney General ex rel. Finley v. Fawcett (1933). Ex rel. indicates a proceeding on behalf of the state but on the information of a person having a private interest in the outcome. That case ruled that the statute permitting the appointment of the sheriff by the prosecuting attorney, county clerk and presiding judge of the probate court takes precedence over the statute allowing the undersheriff to become sheriff when a vacancy occurs.

The judge also noted that Ficano's appointment was legal even though the three-member panel made its selection while Lucas was still sheriff. An appointment by a committee to fill a future vacancy is good if the committee has the same makeup between the time the appointment is made and the vacancy occurs, Teranes wrote.

THE JUDGE refused to get into the question of Ficano's qualifications.

Pittman, 54, has been in law enforcement for 34 years, 10 of them as under-sheriff, Teranes noted. Ficano is an attorney and is County Clerk Killeen's chief deputy clerk.

"Although Mr. Pittman is recognized as an outstanding law enforcement officer in this community, the question of qualifications and suitability of the appointee is not a matter to be decided by this court," Teranes wrote.

"The court can only decide the issue of who has the power of appointment to fill the vacancy in the office of sheriff which occurred on January 1, 1983."

LUCAS SAID he was disappointed by the judge's decision overturning his appointment of Pittman through the charter.

"He (Lucas) has some concern that the will of the people is being interfered with by the decision," Johnson said. "But he does not see the situation as hopeless as far as full implementation of the new charter."

Ficano said he wished to give Pittman time to make a decent transition, and that he didn't want the turnover to become a "circus."

"I would like to stress that I want to cooperate, and I don't wish to seek a confrontation. I would hope that now we would start working toward a mandate for the county," Ficano said.

"It's nice to be sustained by the courts," Ficano added. "I didn't seek this confrontation. I hope everybody puts their egos behind them and works for the good of the county."

Ficano, who supported Lucas in his race for county executive, said he expects he would have no trouble working with Lucas despite the dispute.

"I hope Bill Lucas and I should have the same goals now, and that's to bring services to Wayne County for the taxpayers and not spend the money in courts," Ficano said. "I think we'll both work toward the fiscal integrity of the county. We both have that goal."

Town meeting airs residents' concerns

expected to be completed by October," the mayor added.

DALE FARLAND, Westland's cable-television coordinator, explained the franchising process for getting cable in the city.

"We have hired a cable-television consultant, the same as used by Livonia," she said.

"A cable commission has yet to be selected. The commission will be named by the mayor and must be confirmed by the council," she added.

In April the city will review reports from the consultant and the following month recommend the minimum requirements.

In June the city will begin accepting bids from cable firms with Sept. 15 the deadline for franchise applications. Selection of a franchise will be made in November, and final negotiations on the franchise will be completed by Dec. 31.

First phase of construction is expected to take place next year between April and September.

"We don't know what area of the city will be served first," Farland said.

Questions from the audience ranged from when is the golf course going to be open, to what were the mayor's priorities.

In reply to the golf-course question, the resident was told it is open now.

Answering the priority question, Pickering said his top priorities are public safety and keeping the roads repaired.

"Fire and police protection have a higher priority than the parks and recreation department," the mayor said.

"WILL LESS FIREMEN increase our insurance?" a resident asked.

"It's possible. Insurance firms might put us at a higher rate," the mayor said.

A woman asked if she should appeal her taxes in person or by mail. The mayor suggested she appeal in person, if possible.

"How do our taxes compare with surrounding communities?" was another question.

Pickering replied that "we are in the middle, some are lower, others higher. Property taxes are higher in the suburbs because people want to live here rather than in Detroit."

Another question was what do the lighting assessments pay for?

The answer was poles, types of lights, maintenance and energy used.

A resident wanted to know what the status was in leasing the arena.

"It's a costly operation, about $100,000," Pickering said.

"I had suggested leasing it but had a meeting with the parks and recreation staff and now feel we still should operate it and reduce expenditures."

He said he has a proposal to reduce expenditures and to increase revenues that he is studying.

In reply to a question of whether youth programs are to be cut back, the mayor said, "They have been reduced from previous years. We had previously budgeted $50,000 for them. This year, because of the rising utility costs, we are having to charge groups for the lights."

A resident wanted to know about the parks-and-recreation-director vacancy.

"It's a circuit court decision. We do need a director, however, and there will be one within several months. I'm not at liberty yet to say who it will be," Pickering answered.

Something unusual, as far as public meetings are concerned, occurred. When the meeting was at an end, there was applause from the audience.

Schools' cash crisis won't end this year

district operate with a balanced budget.

"They're holding our payment hostage," said Baracy. "It's our understanding that they have the money, but they are holding it until they see if the (income) tax hike goes through."

Baracy predicted that the attorney general would wait to issue an opinion to see what the state does, but Baracy said he expects the attorney general to rule that 180 days of instruction takes priority.

IN THE MEANTIME, the board has voted to borrow money against next year's tax notes. Bids will be opened March 21. Having that money on hand if the state does release payments due the district will help its cash flow, but won't aid the revenue side of the ledger for next year.

Baracy said the cost of borrowing the money will be the difference in the interest charged for the loan and the interest the district will receive from investing the money until it is used.

What happens this year will affect next year's budget measures.

If the district doesn't receive another $4.7 million state aid payment due in April, the district will "run a deficit on the books," Baracy said.

"So we'll be looking at a $5 million deficit. When we get to that stage, the best scenario for next year will be no pay increments for any employees," he continued.

He said the district would have to look at all personnel and all programs.

Revenue from property taxes is expected to dip since residential values dropped in both Wayne and Westland.

BARACY SAID, however, that the real key to the revenue side of the budget for next year is the state aid formula that allots money for each student registered in the district.

As district taxes decline, the proportion of aid paid by the state increases, Baracy explained. He said that the state Legislature may take that into consideration when setting the formula so that district's like Wayne-Westland don't receive more aid than they did this year.

At any rate, administrators are "counting on less money to work with next year," Baracy said. "We'll know more in late April."

The board must approve a new budget by June 30.

BODY LANGUAGE & DENTURES

Wouldn't it be wonderful if we could be sweet sixteen for life. Unfortunately as age rolls on, our bodies (including our gums) do change. What this means to the denture-wearer is that - no matter how perfect your dentures fit when you walk out of the office - eventually, they will have to be adjusted to harmonize with the changes in the gums and bony ridges which provide its support.

It's not hard to determine that a denture no longer fits properly. It feels loose, moves when it shouldn't, is uncomfortable and may interfere with speaking and eating ability. This is the time for action. Poorly-fitting dentures can harm your mouth. Constant irritation over a long period of time can contribute to the development of sores or tumors. This is also not the time to adjust or repair them yourself. Improper home repairs can cause serious harm.

See your dentist for any problems with your denture. Normally an adjustment for irritation or a relining for looseness may be the answer to your discomfort. Let's face it. We all change and our gums are no exception. If you're looking for someone to blame, try Mother Nature.

Go-Fer Gym Club members work out in their new facility in Westland. Mirroring the popularity of the sport, the group's membership has quadrupled four times in the last year.

Kids jump to join gymnastic club

By Maurie Walker

Gymnastics may not get the headlines that basketball, football or baseball do, but its popularity is growing rapidly among all ages.

An example of the growing interest in the sport is the Go-Fer Gymnastics Club, which recently opened in a new building on Webb Drive, just off Hix north of Ford.

Run by Cindy and Ronald Westerman of Westland, the club was formed two years ago in Canton on Joy near Lilley.

In that time, the membership outgrew the space, and the Westerman's were forced to look around for larger quarters.

"IT'S AMAZING, but our membership has quadrupled in the past year," Westerman said.

"At the present time, we have 190 members — all children — ranging in age from 2½-14."

While most of the members are from Westland, Plymouth and Canton, some come from Livonia, Inkster and Redford, she said.

"Our program is run under one set up by the United States Gymnastic Federation."

"We have teams that have participated in gymnastic events all over the country."

"In May, our girl's team will compete in the state competition, while our boys will be entering state competition in June."

Gymnastic classes are held six days a week, with team members meeting 9½ hours a week.

"Some of the boys and girls work out up to 14 hours a week just because they enjoy it," Westerman said.

THE WESTERMAN'S goal is to some day have an Olympic star come out of their club.

"A private gymnastic club is really the only way to head for the Olympics."

It's team work with the couple, too. He coaches the vaulting and uneven parallel bars while she handles the balance beam, floor exercise and ballet as it applies to gymnastics. Ronald's brother, Bill Westerman, is a coach with the club. Although there are more private clubs for girls than for boys, their club encourages boys to join.

"We have a number of our girls as well as boys who have won in competition over the past two years."

"Team awards for 1982-83 include first place at the Hartland Invitational, second place at the Stevensville Southwest Michigan Invitational, the Great Lakes Invitational, Acronauts Inva-tional, and Midland Invitational, and third place at the Durbin Invitational," she said.

THE COUPLE ARE well qualified to teach gymnastics.

Ronald was on the gymnastic team at Schoolcraft College and worked for the Westland Parks and Recreation Department where he was a co-coach.

His wife also worked for the parks and recreation and had her own gymnastic class. It was while they worked at the department that they met and later married.

Mrs. Westerman, who has lived in Westland since she was 2, is a graduate of Wayne Memorial High School and was Westland's Junior Miss in 1975.

She is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University, where she majored in speech and drama. She has a secondary teacher's certificate.

Acting was a big part of her life before she got into gymnastics. She did a number of shows while in school and spent a year with Jimmy Lance Productions.

He went to school in Detroit and later attended Schoolcraft College.

"The parents of our members are really supportive. We have a booster club with Beverly Prough of Westland as president," Mrs. Westerman said.

Persons interested in having their children join the Go-Fer Gymnastic Club may call 722-6470 for an audition.

Cindy and Ron Westerman, owners of Go-Fer Gym Club, met while working at the Westland Department of Parks and Recreation.

Friends stage children's show March 19

Blend Gemini's musical folk tales, a stageful of instruments and humor with audience involvement, and the final product is "Good Mischief," a children's performance being brought to Livonia March 19 by the Friends of the Livonia Public Library.

Gemini is folk musicians Sandor and Laszlo Slomovits, twin brothers, who play musical instruments and sing with uncannily matched voices. Sandor plays more than a dozen percussion instruments including the bones, limberjack, bodhran and fiddlesticks. He composes music that the two performers use with lyrics taken from the works of various American writers. Laszlo usually plays the melodic instruments including the guitar, violin, bowed psaltery and a variety of folk flutes. A published poet and songwriter, Laszlo writes songs about people he has met in his travels throughout Michigan.

The brothers do not limit their performance material to songs relating to North American people and events. They present a mix of folk music, sometimes in different languages, from the British Isles, Hungary, Israel, and North and South America.

The folk musicians often introduce audiences to a small wooden puppet named Limberjack, who tap dances to tunes on the guitar. They encourage audience members to "make" rain or create a "delicious" man in the moon or become an animal choir of the farm and forest.

"Good Mischief" will be performed at 2 and 3:30 p.m. Saturday, March 19, in the Livonia City Hall Auditorium. Tickets at $1.50 per person are available in the Noble Library, 32901 Plymouth Road and in the Sandburg Library, 30100 W. Seven Mile. Any remaining tickets will be sold at the door the day of the performances.

This is the second year that the Friends of the Livonia Public Library are providing a young people's program.

The Slomovits musicians were born in Budapest, and after the 1956 Hungarian Revolution immigrated to Israel. They moved to the United States three years later. Currently, they make their home in Ann Arbor, where they perform in area coffee houses.

They have performed for both children and adults in numerous concerts in Michigan and on the East Coast and also have participated in workshops on poetry/songwriting and simple instrument construction.

2 kidnapping suspects face exam

Westland police have arrested two men who reportedly broke into a home last week and kidnapped two girls.

The Romulus men, Ernest Thomas Boillard, 26, and Bruce Allen McGhee, 20, are being held in the Westland jail in lieu of $5,000 cash bond each, awaiting pretrial examination in 18th District Court March 21.

The pair are charged with kidnapping, armed robbery, criminal sexual conduct, assault with attempt to commit rape and felony with firearms.

McGhee was arrested at Venoy and Palmer Wednesday night following a tip received by police.

Boillard turned himself in to Westland police Thursday afternoon.

THE TWO girls, ages 13 and 15, were rescued about an hour after they were kidnapped following investigation by Westland police officers Dan Harvey and Clarence Hall. They were found in an apartment at 6679 Merriman in Romulus.

Police said the men, armed with a gun and a knife, broke into the Westland home about 1 a.m. March 7. They forced two girls into a car and took them to the Merriman address.

Two other girls, ages 17 and 18, were left in the house. One girl was tied up; the other was asleep.

The girl who was tied, freed herself and called police. The names of all the girls are being withheld by police.

There was no parent at home at the time of the incident.

YOUR WEIGHT AND ARTHRITIS
Overweight people with arthritis no doubt have experienced the embarrassment of being told the following: "Lose weight! That will take care of your aching joints."
Relieving your joints of extra weight may seem sensible. However, it has never been proven that being overweight will cause your joints to wear at a greater rate than will occur for your thinner colleagues. Of course, being fat does put you at risk if you need a joint operation, and hampers recovery if you have injury or inflammation to your hips, knees or ankles.
Back pain is the one rheumatologic problem which being heavy worsens. In such instances healing requires that you maintain proper posture. In turn the ability to stand suitably depends upon breathing with the stomach even with the chest wall, an action quite difficult for the obese to sustain.
At times I am tempted to blame a person's extra weight when my treatment is unsuccessful, to do so would be unfair to the patient. There are many good reasons to lose excess weight, preventing arthritis or ending joint aches are not among them.
Dr. Weiss welcomes questions from readers, please send your inquiries to his office.

*SYNOPSIS OF MINUTES Board of Education, Livonia Public Schools Public Hearing February 28, 1983

*The following is a summary, in synopsis form, of the Board of Education's public hearing of February 28, 1983; the full text of the minutes is on file in the office of the Superintendent, 15125 Farmington Road, and in the principal's office of each school, and is available on request.

President Roach convened a public hearing at 8:00 p.m., in the Bentley High School auditorium, 15100 Hubbard Road, Livonia. The purpose of the meeting was to obtain public input relative to the Superintendent's recommendation to close Bentley High School at the conclusion of the 1984-85 school year. Present: Charles Akey, Richard Belaire, David Cameron, James Merner, Marjorie Roach, Carol Strom, and Ronald Withers. Absent: None. President Roach introduced members of the Board of Education and the Superintendent and read a statement relative to the procedures for the meeting.

Public Hearing: The following persons addressed the Board relative to the recommended closing of Bentley High School: Dorothy Bruce, James Lynch, Robert Bennett, Michael Vorgitch, D'Maris Thrasher, Janet Underhill, Carl Bengtsson, Lisa Brown, Mr. Burch, Bev James, Rose Farhat, Paul Hunt, Tom Thompson, Mary Grace, Elaine Blair, George Schleifer, Fred Hyatt, Julie Chandes, Lynn Vanderhurst, Pamela Halman, Clifford Claus, Pat Sari, and Richard Genik, II.

Adjournment: Because there were additional people in the audience who wished to address the Board and because of the lateness of the hour, it was decided to adjourn the public hearing until the next evening, March 1, 1983, 8 p.m., in the Bentley High School auditorium. President Roach adjourned the meeting at 11:15 p.m.

*SYNOPSIS OF MINUTES Board of Education, Livonia Public Schools Regular Meeting February 21, 1983

*The following is a summary, in synopsis form, of the board of Education's regular meeting of February 21, 1983; the full text of the minutes is on file in the office of the Superintendent, 15125 Farmington Road, and in the principal's office of each school, and is available on request.

President Roach convened the meeting at 8:00 p.m., in the Board Room, 15125 Farmington Road, Livonia. Present: Charles Akey, David Cameron, James Merner, Marjorie Roach, Carol Strom, Ronald Withers. Absent: Richard Belaire. A communication from the Michigan Association of School Boards was acknowledged.

Audience Communications: Judy Hollar addressed the Board regarding the public hearing to be held in regard to the recommended closing of Bentley High School. Minutes: The minutes and synopsis of the regular meeting of February 7, 1983, were approved as written.

Gift: Motion by Akey and Withers that the Board accept the gracious gift of the Adams PTA, in the amount of $1,436.40, to be used to purchase an Apple IIe micro-computer for use by students at Adams Elementary School. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Roach, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.

1982 MEAP Tests: The results of the 1982 Michigan Educational Assessment Program tests were presented to the Board. In summary, improvement has occurred in all of the test categories at all levels. In particular, seventh and tenth grade students showed significant improvement in the mathematics tests.

Community Relations Statement: Motion by Akey and Withers to adopt an introductory statement to preface the existing community relations policies, Series 1000. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Roach, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.

Bills: Motion by Merner and Strom to approve for payment General Fund checks, Nos. 55089 through 55908, in the amount of $2,459,281.59. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Roach, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.

Bills: Motion by Merner and Withers to approve for payment Building and Site checks, Nos. 10999 through 11000, in the amount of $7,536.90. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Roach, Strom, Withers. Nays: None.

Resignation: The Assistant Superintendent for Personnel has accepted the resignation of James Porter.

Retirements: The Board unanimously adopted resolutions of appreciation for the services rendered by Irene Wright and Joseph Cyburt.

Reports: 1) The Superintendent presented a report on the numbers of live births in the nation and in Michigan since 1970. The data supports the premise that secondary school enrollments will continue to decline for at least 11 more years before reaching a plateau. 2) The Superintendent also noted that a community flyer had been distributed by Mr. Lynch's committee in which it was inaccurately stated that the Livonia School District has the highest transportation costs in the state. He said that in Wayne County alone, out of the 29 districts that provide transportation, eighteen spend more than Livonia. 3) The Board heard reports from the following committees: Finance, Curriculum, Personnel, Legislation, and Building and Site. 4) Mr. Merner reported on the February 17 public hearing relative to summer tax collection in the Westland portion of the school district. 5) Mrs. Strom reported on matters related to the Michigan Association of School Boards. 6) Mr. Cameron made a correction to the minutes of January 17.

Board Hearing: 1) Mr. Cameron commended Churchill for extending the use of its library to parents. 2) In response to Mr. Akey, Dr. Garrow said that new legislation may be necessary to resolve a problem involving the way some mortgage companies handle escrow accounts. 3) Mrs. Strom reminded the board of the PTA Founders Day Dinner and two WCASB activities. 4) Mr. Merner will attend the Westland City Council meeting of February 22 regarding summer tax collection.

Closed Session: Motion by Withers and Strom to recess the meeting to closed session to discuss negotiations and property matters. Ayes: Akey, Cameron, Merner, Roach, Strom, Withers. Nays: None. President Roach recessed the meeting at 9:40 p.m., and reconvened it at 11:12 p.m.

Adjournment: President Roach adjourned the meeting at 11:13 p.m.

Board fights Lucas on appointments, lobbyist pay

By Tim Richard
staff writer

Wayne County commissioners are moving on several fronts to curb County Executive William Lucas's efforts to enhance his powers.

"We bent over backward to work with that office toward common goals," complained an exasperated Commissioner John Hertel, D-Harper Woods, at one point in Thursday's session.

Hertel and two other commissioners Thursday publicly bawled out Lucas's office for using a lobbyist in Lansing without a signed contract.

In a middle of the three-hour gathering, word spread that Robert Ficano, deputy county clerk, had been successful in his court effort to oust Lucas's appointee as sheriff, Loren Pittman. But commissioners made no public comment on the case as they hammered away at a string of issues relating to the powers of the first home-rule county executive in Michigan history.

IN A STRING of related moves, the commission, meeting as a committee-of-the-whole:

- Agreed to ask a circuit court judgment on whether the executive or the 15-member commission has power to make three sets of appointments — to the Drainage Board, the seven-county Area-wide Water Quality Board and the Solid Waste Planning Committee.

To make the matter friendly, Commission Chairman William Szore of Lincoln Park made almost exactly the same appointments that Lucas made so that county business can proceed no matter who is determined to have the appointing authority. The vote was 13-0.

- Declared its opposition to Senate Bill 34, which would give the executive power to fill a vacancy in any county elective post — even including the commission. SB 34, sponsored by Sen. James DeSana, D-Wyandotte, would take away from the commission the power to fill a vacancy in the executive post and give that authority to the Board of Election Commissioners. The vote was unanimous.

David Plawewski, Lucas's liaison to the commission, said Lucas had not supported SB 34 and disagreed with it.

- Directed the treasurer not to pay any bills of Public Affairs Associates, a lobbying firm Lucas wants to hire, until a written contract is approved which addresses the question of what the lobbyist does if the executive and the commission disagree over pending legislative bills. Again, the voice vote was unanimous.

- Declared its opposition to DeSana's SB 66, drafted by Plawewski and supported by Lucas, to dissolve the county's Public Works Board, which sets suburban sewage treatment rates, and give its powers to the executive. The motion passed 7-2 as attendance dwindled late in the afternoon.

COMMISSIONERS bore down hard on Lucas and Plawewski over the lobbyist question.

"We stipulated the contract (with Public Affairs Associates) would not be approved without the conflict of interest language," said Hertel, pointedly asking whether the firm was being employed anyway.

Plawewski replied that Dennis Nystrom, Lucas's chief of staff, "did not agree with all the language" which commissioners wanted in the contract. "We have no signed contract with a lobbyist. They are (performing) on a verbal basis."

Manning jumped in. "You say 'we do not have a signed contract.' But what I hear is, 'We do not have a signed contract, but we will pay without the necessity of a signed contract. We have an oral contract, and we will pay in violation of the appropriations ordinance.'"

The discussion prompted Commissioner Edward Plawewski Jr., brother of David, to wonder aloud, "I wonder how many other contracts are going on that we know nothing about."

On a motion by Commissioner Kay Beard, D-Inkster, the commission asked Lucas to provide it information on any contracts his office has made since Jan. 1 for personal services or goods. Although no names were mentioned, it was clear commissioners were trying to find out how much Lucas is paying Nystrom, the Bloomfield Hills lawyer and a Republican, who is Lucas's chief of staff at no-stated salary.

SEVERAL SUBURBAN commissioners were also angry that Lucas was seeking to abolish the county Board of Public Works through a change in state law.

"This bill would take away a representative body which acts in public to set rates and construction projects," said Manning. "This body sets rates after a public hearing, it has powers of condemnation of land and over construction of sewers and sewage treatment plants."

"We've never had a single complaint about the way we have set rates and conducted meetings," said Manning, who served on the BPW.

Commissioner Joseph Jurkiewicz, D-Taylor, said Lucas had tripped up himself by dissolving the BPW, then finding there was no one in the county with authority to sign public works bonds. "This is a case where the executive put the cart before the horse. So he goes to Lansing and says, 'C'mon, guys, this is an emergency, give me the powers so we can get this show on the road (super sewer) by May 1.'"

Two Detroit commissioners, however, defended the measure. "The charter is a whole new ball game," said Arthur Carter. "And the executive is an elected official."

"This (SB 66) is just a technical amendment that strengthens the charter," added Bernard Kilpatrick.

roll call report

Area reps back youth corps

Here's how area members of Congress from the Observer & Eccentric area were recorded on major roll call votes between Feb. 24 and March 3.

HOUSE

WORK: By a vote of 301 for and 87 against, the House passed and sent to the Senate a bill (HR 999) establishing an American Conservation Corps to put young people to work preserving the environment.

At a cost to taxpayers of nearly $1.5 billion through fiscal 1989, persons 15-25 would get part- or full-time jobs sponsored by states and localities, Indian reservations, and the Interior and Agriculture departments. Up to 100,000 jobs would be created annually.

Supporter John Seiberling, D-Ohio, said, "Youth unemployment remains at all-time highs, and the backlog of conservation work is growing daily."

Opponent Bill Frenzel, R-Minn., said, "These are very expensive jobs. Our responsibility is to lower the deficit by defeating bills like this. That would create real jobs."

Members voting yes wanted to use taxpayers' dollars to create government-paid jobs for young people.

Voting yes: Carl Pursell, R-Plymouth, Dennis Hertel, D-Detroit, William Ford, D-Taylor, Sander Levin, D-Southfield, and William Broomfield, R-Birmingham.

MATH & SCIENCE: The House passed, 348 for and 54 against, and sent to the Senate, a bill (HR 1310) to spend at least $1 billion over five years to reverse the nation's growing illiteracy in mathematics and science.

To make the United States more competitive economically and militarily, the legislation provides scholarships, grants to state and local school boards, and other forms of money to improve teaching and learning.

For example, $50 million would be spent over two years in scholarships to students who pledge to teach mathematics or science for at least two years. The bill has a tie-in with industry, and it covers elementary through post-secondary education.

Supporter Larry Winn, R-Kansas, said, "One only has to look at the fascination of a 10-year-old with a new computer to realize we are allowing a great natural resource to go untapped, when we do not promote mathematics and science literacy in our students."

Opponent John Erlenborn, R-Ill., called it "the height of irresponsibility" to spend so much in the face of high federal deficits, and he warned that Congress "will be raising expectations and making promises that are not likely to be fulfilled."

Members voting yes favored massive spending to raise American youth's mathematics and science aptitude.

Voting yes: Pursell, Hertel, Levin and Broomfield.

Voting no: Ford.

HAMBURGER-FLIPPERS: The House rejected, 138 for and 276 against, an amendment to HR 1310 (see above) to change the conditions for awarding scholarships to train mathematics and science teachers.

The amendment sought to limit scholarships to the retraining of teachers who already are certified for other disciplines.

Supporters said this would get newly trained mathematics and science teachers into the classroom within one year — rather than the two-year delay envisioned in HR 1310, which would have concentrated scholarships on college juniors.

Supporters Thomas Coleman, R-Mo., said, "We want to turn those teachers who cannot find a job and are now hamburger-flippers into math and science teachers, so we can gain that competitive edge."

Opponent Dave McCurdy, D-Okl., said, "We do not need those hamburger-flippers; we need people who are concerned about math and science to go into this, highly professional sector."

Members voting yes wanted scholarship recipients to be trained teachers who would use the aid to retrain for science and mathematics certification.

Voting yes: Republicans Pursell and Broomfield.

Voting no: Democrats Hertel, Ford and Levin.

To succeed, you need luck

One evening in the long ago, The Stroller was privileged to sit as a guest on the speakers' platform at Michigan State University to hear Jimmy Gheen, then one of the country's outstanding after-dinner speakers, talk to members of the graduating class.

The wiry little Irishman held his listeners spell-bound with his humorous tales of what happened to some of his friends when they entered the outside world. And many were listed among the nation's top officials.

In closing he became very serious. He told the class that while education was important to get along in the battle of life, it wasn't everything.

"You must have enthusiasm," he said, "and you must have a desire to excel, and you must be dedicated." Then he would add with a smile, "You must have all these things and a helluva lot of luck."

THE MEMORY of these remarks came bounding back for The Stroller the other evening when he saw former President Gerald Ford sitting with former President Jimmy Carter discussing foreign relations and later as co-author of a lead article in Reader's Digest.

Never was there a better example of Jimmy Gheen's warning to the MSU students.

And seldom has there been a more fortunate fellow than Jerry Ford since his college days at the University of Michigan. Jerry played football on the 1932-34 teams and had the dubious honor of being voted most valuable player on the '34 team — which won only one game and lost seven.

After graduation, he tried coaching — without, great success. Then he entered politics. Even then his name wasn't anything close to being a household word. He repeatedly was elected to Congress from the Grand Rapids district. But for years he was just another member.

Then in a leadership change, he was named House Republican leader. That's when Lady Luck started to smile.

VICE PRESIDENT Spiro Agnew was forced to resign. To fill the vacancy, President Richard Nixon named Ford vice president. That was a turning point in Ford's life.

Soon Nixon was under fire as the Watergate scandal was uncovered. It was said that Nixon appointed Ford in self-defense. He was quoted as saying, "Can you imagine Ford sitting in the president's chair?" Nixon was accused of using Ford as a buffer to save himself.

It didn't work. Nixon, too, was forced to resign, and Ford moved into the Oval Office — the first man to sit in the president's chair who hadn't been in a national election. It was the highest honor he could get.

Ford had the added distinction of being president during the Bicentennial Celebration of 1976. He became one of the world leaders and will have a place in history.

HE DID WHAT was generally considered a good job as president, though he provided laughs by stumbling while getting out of an airplane.

On the golf course he hit spectators with his tee shots. Tommy Watson, the outstanding pro who tried to teach Ford, said he had two problems: "How to hit the ball and then how to find it."

But as folks smiled, Ford started collecting pensions that have amounted to more than $100,000 a year since he left office. And he is paid in the thousands these days to address groups around the country.

He proved Jimmy Gheen right when he said, "Education is fine . . . but to succeed you must have a helluva lot of luck."

- The first fish hatchery in Michigan goes back to 1867. N. W. Clark started this trout hatchery in Clarkston and sportsmen today owe a great deal to his early experiments and writings. In 1874 he established a Northville hatchery where he found a flow of 700 gallons of water a minute from nearby large and small springs.

Legislators missed the boat

I HAVE TROUBLE with news about state government and its budget problems. With the national and international news, there is Ted Koppel and his nightly battery of experts on hand to analyze, reduce, deduce, extrapolate, theorize, postulate and prognosticate.

What we need now is a stately newslane panel of experts who, in similar fashion, can take a look at our Rube Goldberg state government and make sense out of what has happened in Lansing, what is happening in Lansing, and who is able to pull us out this mess with some kind of sensible program that will not unduly sacrifice state government or our wallets.

For years, many of us have suffered under the delusion that we had an admirable state government that provided residents with quality education, helped our truly needy, preserved our parks and natural wonders, maintained a system of justice and aided local governments.

ALONG COMES 1983, and we are told by incoming Gov. James Blanchard and his appointees that we are $900 million away from solvency and that we need a permanent 1.5 percent income tax increase to maintain present services plus a "temporary" 0.25 percent increase to do away with a deficit accumulated from past years.

The deficit, we are told, was caused by the deceptive accounting practices used by the minions of the administration of previous Gov. William Milliken. Various Democrats conclude that this is correct.

With the scapegoat staked out, it becomes an easier matter for 59 Democrats in the state House of Representative to agree with Blanchard about the necessity of an income tax increase.

FORGIVE THE average citizen for wondering about the alacrity with which the representatives voted for the tax increase, even though the House added a proviso that decreases the tax rate as unemployment drops.

Did the House, the majority of whose members served during the years the $900 million deficit was building, consider at any length other possibilities besides more revenue? There is scant evidence of it.

Forgive the average citizen also for wondering about the wisdom of footing the bill for 148 legislators (at $31,000 per year plus their fringes, plus their travel and convention expenses, plus their retirement costs, plus their personal staff costs, plus their committee staff costs) when they fail to notice that state government is going $900 million into the red until a new governor tells them so less than a month after he takes office.

What were the legislators during the time that Milliken was supposedly steering the ship of state onto rocky shoals?

MORE IMPORTANT, what are they doing now to work out a plan that somehow preserves reasonable state government? Where is the discussion of various possibilities, whether social services (which accounts for one-third of the budget) can be trimmed, whether further cuts to education can be tolerated? So far, we have heard mostly partisan mutterings.

Blanchard's tax package, modified somewhat by the House, is now in the Senate, where more partisan politicking is expected.

It would be refreshing if the Senate, unlike the House, were to use the opportunity to have an airing of the state's responsibilities in an honest non-partisan effort to determine whether the state really needs to continue all of its present programs.

It would also make us think we might be getting our money's worth.

overheard over coffee

If you're keeping score, it is now Wayne County good old boys 6, Wayne County Executive William Lucas 0. Lucas took office January 1 promising a clean sweep. He tried to broom three county road commissioners and the county's personnel director and public works director. They all went to court. The cases are still waiting to be heard.

Lucas named his own replacement as sheriff, but a Circuit Judge last week ruled Lucas didn't have the authority. This left Robert Ficano, the appointee of the good old boy panel of County Clerk James Kileen. Probate Judge Joseph Pernick and County Prosecutor William Cahalan, in the driver's seat.

Simonds' attorney plans to appeal murder verdict

By Bill Casper
staff writer

The defense attorney for convicted murderer Kenneth W. Simonds believes his client was denied a fair trial in Wayne County Circuit Court and is planning an appeal to the Michigan Court of Appeals.

Neil Fink, a prominent Detroit criminal defense attorney, spoke to the Observer Newspaper for the first time since he was retained as Simonds' attorney during early court proceedings last year to replace Redford Township attorney Patrick McDonald.

Fink declined comment on the murder case during the trial, but Thursday he said he is definitely going to appeal and would, if necessary, forego his fee for the appeal process because "the kid got screwed" during his trial.

Simonds, who lived in Detroit with his wife at the time he was arrested by Redford police on charges of first-degree murder and assault with intent to commit murder, was found guilty of both charges last week by a 12-member circuit court jury.

THE CHARGES stemmed from a brutal knife attack on two women employees of Revco Discount Drugs Center, in the shopping mall on Telegraph at West Chicago in Redford.

One woman pharmacist, Elise Rouhier, 25, of Ypsilanti, was killed in the attack, while the other woman, store clerk Anne Ceane, then 19 of Wayne, was seriously injured, but survived by fighting back then faking death.

There are several reasons why Simonds, a Westland native and 1978 graduate of Franklin High School in Livonia, did not receive a fair trial, Fink said.

Two of the primary reasons Simonds was denied a fair trial relate to testimony given by Dr. Steven Bank, a psychologist at the Center for Forensic Psychiatry in Ypsilanti, said Fink.

Bank submitted an 11½-page report on Simonds' psychiatric evaluation at the forensic center.

According to Fink, "The state's psychologist blurted out in front of the jury that we had advised our client not to go under hypnosis and that statement made it appear as though we were trying to hide something."

"HIS STATEMENT influenced the jury. The state Supreme Court recently ruled that evidence obtained by a person under hypnosis is inadmissible.

At the time of Bank's testimony, the hypnosis question was pending before the state high court, Fink said.

"Furthermore, Bank's testimony did not reflect what he wrote in his report of the psychiatric evaluation of Simonds," Fink said. "The purpose of the report is to provide the defense with a basic understanding of the prosecution's position so that the defense can prepare its case."

"He (Bank) testified that his theory on the reason for Simonds' attack stemmed from sexual motivation in reference to Ceane's statement that Simonds had reached for her breast and that she pushed his hand away just before he initiated his attack.

"Bank testified that his sexual motivation theory was included in his report by implication," Fink said. "But given a fair reading of Bank's report, there is no way we could have known what we were to face during trial."

Because of the defense's contention that Simonds was insane at the time of his attack, the testimony of Bank was a crucial element of the trial.

Fink called upon the testimony of psychiatrists Joel Dreyer and Emanuel Tanay and psychologist Douglas Schooler, all of whom supported the defense contention of Simonds' insanity during the attack.

Herbert Roberts, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, relied solely on the testimony of Bank to determine Simonds' sanity. Bank testified Simonds was not mentally ill or insane at the time of the incident, Roberts said last week.

IN REACHING a guilty verdict, the jury rejected two possible verdicts of not guilty by reason of insanity and guilty but mentally ill.

Under state law, Fink has 60 days from the sentencing date to file an appeal with the state Court of Appeals. Simonds is scheduled to be sentenced today by Circuit Judge Michael Stacey, who presided over the nine-day trial.

It probably will be a year before the appeal is heard and decided, Fink said.

Roberts said Friday that he doubted Fink had good grounds to win an appeal.

City council approves dual tax collection for schools

Westland City Council recently agreed to collect school taxes twice a year for residents living in the Livonia district.

Voting 4-1 with two absent, the council agreed to collect half the school taxes in summer, along with its regular city tax collection, and to collect the remaining half of school taxes in December.

The only dissenting vote was cast by new council member Kent Herbert, who formerly was the city finance director. Herbert said he objected to the dual collection because of the way some companies holding mortgages in Westland calculate escrow accounts.

He added that since the Wayne-Westland district isn't also asking for a dual tax collection, the need to split tax roles would create more work for the city.

THE LIVONIA school board had requested the dual tax collection to avoid interest charges on money borrowed until taxes were collected in December.

Under a new state law, the city council couldn't prohibit the collection of taxes once a school district requested it. But the council could have refused to have the city collect the taxes. If that had happened, the school board could have asked the county to do so or could have collected the taxes itself.

Dual collection of taxes in the Wayne-Westland district was abandoned after a pilot program two years ago. Angry residents stormed city hall at that time, complaining that mortgage companies levied huge increases in their monthly escrow accounts because of dual tax collection.

Compounding the problem were errors in calculating the accounts, increases in property values and a state law which required property to be equalized by class.

DUE TO THAT experience, the council was leery of getting involved in another dual tax collection. So the council required the board to hold a second special hearing on the proposal, which about 15 people attended.

"You have fulfilled the criteria set down in the council meeting," said President Thomas Artley in agreeing to the twice-yearly tax collection.

That criteria included the board taking responsibility for notifying taxpayers of the change, telling taxpayers that the tax was a school — not a city — tax, and agreeing to handle all calls from taxpayers.

ENTERTAIN WITH EASE AND FLAIR

Start with basic ingredients—salad greens, nuts and cheese—combine them with imagination, and entertaining suddenly becomes simple. Specifically, California iceberg lettuce, richly flavored pecans and assorted natural cheeses from Denmark lend themselves to a variety of creative combinations the year around. They become the basis for exciting appetizer and entree salads, hearty muffins, a creamy spread and a delicate dessert.

This trio works well together because each ingredient brings something special to different kinds of recipes. Take salads, for example. The crisp, refreshing texture of California iceberg lettuce makes it the nation's favorite salad green. And, because of California's unique climate and growing conditions, it is readily available throughout the entire year. Pecans add nutrition as well as crunch in a variety of salads. With a rich flavor in their natural state, pecans do not require any further preparation. They store well—shelled and kept in airtight containers, they last up to two years in the freezer, and about nine months when refrigerated. Natural cheeses from Denmark supply high protein, calcium and a variety of vitamins and minerals. Danish cheeses also keep well when covered with foil or plastic and refrigerated.

"Elegant Iceberg Bowl" gets any dinner off to a sensational start. Begin with a chilled bowl of iceberg lettuce chunks, then simply add a generous amount of robust Danish blue cheese and pecan halves or pieces. "Creamy Blender Vinaigrette" harmonizes beautifully with this simple yet distinctive salad, and any entree—meat, fish or fowl—will be complemented by this imaginative beginning. For a heartier offering, try "Fruit and Cheese Salad Platter," an arrangement of assorted fruits, cubes of Danish Fontina cheese and pecan halves on a bed of shredded iceberg lettuce. Accompany with "Ginger-Blue Cheese Dressing," ribboned over the top or served on the side.

"Deluxe Chicken Salad" is further proof that a few basic foods can be creatively combined with enticing results. Toss with tangy "Pecan Vinaigrette" and serve as a first course salad, or increase the amount of chicken and cheese and present as a main course. To multiply the salad combinations, consider that the dressings are interchangeable. Suggested dressing is listed within each recipe, but try mixing and matching to vary the possibilities. "Whole Wheat Pecan Muffins" make a nice accompaniment to any of these salads. Serve them alone or with mellow "Danish Cream Cheese Spread," made from either natural fruit-flavored orange, peach or pineapple cream cheese. Deceptively easy "Copenhagen Mousse" concludes any luncheon or dinner on a high note. Subtly accented with orange liqueur, the texture is smooth, soothing, rich and light all at the same time—a perfect ending to a company meal. Let this compatible trio of California iceberg lettuce, golden pecans and natural cheeses from Denmark add a distinctive touch to meals—start to finale.

ELEGANT ICEBERG BOWL

- |                                         |                                              |
|-----------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1 head iceberg lettuce                  | 1 1/2 to 2 cups Danish blue cheese, crumbled |
| Creamy Blender Vinaigrette (see recipe) | 1 1/2 cups pecan halves or pieces            |

Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; chill in plastic bag or plastic crisper. Prepare dressing. Cut lettuce crosswise into 1-inch thick slices, then cut lengthwise and crosswise into chunks. Toss in large salad bowl with blue cheese and pecans. Pass dressing separately. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

CREAMY BLENDER VINAIGRETTE

- |                                 |                       |
|---------------------------------|-----------------------|
| 1/3 cup vinegar                 | Dash of salt          |
| 1 egg yolk                      | Freshly ground pepper |
| 2 teaspoons Dijon-style mustard | 3/4 cup vegetable oil |

In blender container mix vinegar, egg yolk, mustard, salt and pepper. Gradually add oil and blend until thickened and smooth. Cover and chill several hours to allow flavors to blend. Makes about 1-1/4 cups.

FRUIT AND CHEESE SALAD PLATTER

- |                                          |                                        |
|------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------|
| 1 head iceberg lettuce                   | 1 kiwi fruit, peeled and thinly sliced |
| Ginger-Blue Cheese Dressing (see recipe) | 1 cup pecan halves                     |
| 1 apple                                  | 4 ounces Danish Fontina cheese, cubed  |
| 1 pear                                   |                                        |
| Juice of 1 lemon                         |                                        |

Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; chill in plastic bag or plastic crisper. Prepare dressing. Cut lettuce lengthwise into halves; place cut-side down on board and shred with sharp knife. Cut apple and pear into thin slices; sprinkle with lemon juice. Place shredded lettuce on large platter. Arrange apple, pear, kiwi, pecans and cheese over lettuce. Serve with dressing. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

GINGER-BLUE CHEESE DRESSING

- |                          |                                      |
|--------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 2/3 cup sour cream       | 1/2 cup Danish blue cheese, crumbled |
| 1/3 cup mayonnaise       |                                      |
| 1 teaspoon ground ginger |                                      |

Combine sour cream, mayonnaise and ginger and mix until smooth. Stir in blue cheese. Cover and chill several hours to allow flavors to blend. Makes 1-1/2 cups.

- |                                                                   |                                     |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| 1 head iceberg lettuce                                            | 1/4 pound fresh mushrooms, sliced   |
| Pecan Vinaigrette (see recipe)                                    | 1 cup diced Creamy Havarti cheese   |
| 1 apple                                                           | 1 cup thawed frozen peas (optional) |
| Lemon juice                                                       | 1/2 cup pecan pieces                |
| 1 to 1-1/2 cups cooked chicken, cut or torn into bite-size pieces |                                     |

Core, rinse and thoroughly drain lettuce; chill in plastic bag or plastic crisper. Prepare dressing. Tear lettuce into bite-size pieces and place in large salad bowl. Dice apple; sprinkle with lemon juice. Add apple, chicken, mushrooms, cheese, peas and pecans to lettuce and toss gently. Add dressing to taste and toss again, or pass dressing separately. Makes 6 servings.

- |                                   |                                              |
|-----------------------------------|----------------------------------------------|
| 1/4 cup red or white wine vinegar | 1/4 teaspoon salt                            |
| 1/4 cup finely chopped pecans     | 1/4 teaspoon pepper                          |
| 1/2 teaspoon dry mustard          | 1 cup olive or vegetable oil, or combination |

Combine vinegar, pecans, mustard, salt and pepper and mix well. Gradually stir in oil. Cover and chill at least 2 hours, or overnight. Stir again before serving. Makes about 1-1/2 cups.

WHOLE WHEAT PECAN MUFFINS

- |                                   |                                         |
|-----------------------------------|-----------------------------------------|
| 1 cup all purpose flour           | 1 cup coarsely chopped pecans           |
| 1 cup whole wheat flour           | 3/4 cup milk                            |
| 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar | 1/2 cup vegetable oil                   |
| 2-1/2 teaspoons baking powder     | 1 egg                                   |
| 1/2 teaspoon salt                 | Danish Cream Cheese Spread (see recipe) |

Preheat oven to 350°F. Grease 12-cup muffin tin. Combine flours, brown sugar, baking powder and salt and mix well. Stir in pecans. In small bowl combine milk, oil and egg. Add to dry ingredients and stir just until moistened. Divide among muffin cups. Bake until lightly browned, about 25 minutes. Serve with Danish Cream Cheese Spread. Makes 12 muffins.

DANISH CREAM CHEESE SPREAD

- |                                                                                                  |                         |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------|
| 4 ounces Danish natural fruit-flavored peach, orange or pineapple cream cheese, room temperature | 1/4 cup powdered sugar  |
|                                                                                                  | 2 to 3 tablespoons milk |

Beat cream cheese with powdered sugar until light and fluffy. Beat in just enough milk for spreading consistency. Makes about 1-1/4 cups.

COPENHAGEN MOUSSE

- |                                                                                                  |                                 |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------|
| 8 ounces Danish natural fruit-flavored peach, orange or pineapple cream cheese, room temperature | 1 teaspoon unflavored gelatin   |
| 1/2 cup whipping cream                                                                           | 2 tablespoons cold water        |
| 2 tablespoons orange-flavored liqueur                                                            | 3 egg whites, room temperature  |
|                                                                                                  | 2 tablespoons sugar             |
|                                                                                                  | Pecan pieces (optional garnish) |

In large bowl, blend cream cheese and whipping cream until smooth. Stir in liqueur. Sprinkle gelatin over cold water to soften, then warm over low heat or in microwave until dissolved. Let cool 2 minutes. Blend into cream mixture. In another bowl, beat egg whites until soft peaks form. Gradually add sugar and beat until stiff. Gently fold into cheese mixture. Pour into 4 dessert dishes and chill until firm. Garnish with pecans, if desired. Makes 4 servings.

Weight, wait for perfect eggplant

Whenever I prepare an eggplant dish that requires slicing the midnight purple vegetable, I must address the provocative question: to salt and weight or wait and salt?

Some cooks say just pick out the perfectly ripe eggplant and you needn't salt the slices and weight them down to draw out the bitterness and excess liquid. Other cooks say if you skip it, you'll cry sour grapes. My wife belongs to the latter crowd. She turns up her nose if the eggplant hasn't been treated accordingly.

If I could select the just-ripe eggplant from the grocery bin, I wouldn't worry about bitterness. But I fear I couldn't do it if my cooking reputation depended on it.

You're supposed to firmly press the skin to find eggplants that give slightly and bounce back. If the skin is hard and your finger leaves an indentation, the eggplant is overripe and will be bitter. It seems every time I attempt to apply the finger test, the produce manager is looking my way or the eggplant is securely protected by plastic wrap.

There are other clues to the just-ripe eggplant: It feels heavy for its size, looks shiny and smooth, has no soft spots, isn't shriveled and the green cap looks fresh.

If you toss the eggplant in the refrigerator instead of using it right away, you should join the salt-and-weight crowd, too.

MEXICAN EGGPLANT

1 medium eggplant, about 1 1/4 lbs.

Salt

1 1/4 lbs. lean ground beef

1/2 cup chopped onion

1 tsp. cooking oil

1 tbsp. all-purpose flour

1 can (8 oz.) tomato sauce

1/2 cup chopped green pepper

1 tsp. dried oregano leaves

1 tsp. chili powder

Black pepper

1 cup shredded sharp Cheddar cheese

Grated Parmesan cheese

Pare eggplant, cut in 1/2-inch slices, lightly salt on both sides and weight down 30 minutes. In electric frypan, lightly brown meat and onion in hot oil at about 320 degrees. Sprinkle on flour and stir. Add tomato sauce, green pepper, oregano, chili powder and 1/2 tsp. salt, mix well and reduce heat to about 220 degrees. Lightly season eggplant on one side with pepper, arrange slices over meat, cover and cook 20 minutes. Top with Cheddar. Just before serving, sprinkle on Parmesan. Serves 6.

Look to the south for good, spicy food

If your economy meals need some spicing up, look south to Mexico for inspiration. For Mexican cooks have a flair for combining a variety of inexpensive ingredients in the most flavorful and appetizing ways.

Most popular in this country are Mexican "antojitos" — snacks such as tacos, tostados and burritos, all made with tortillas and spicy fillings. It is believed that these handy foods were created long ago in Mexico as a light meal at home or in the fields or as snacks in the marketplace or at fiestas. Today they are enjoyed on both sides of the border for lunch or supper and as between-meal snacks and party snacks.

FOR AN "antojito" sure to please family and friends alike, try your hand at making Pork Burritos, Mexican-style sandwiches. You'll find them as fun to make as they are delicious to eat. And because they are so economical, you can make them again and again without upsetting the budget. These burritos feature a filling of ground pork with refried beans encased in crispy fried tortillas. The mixture is conveniently seasoned with taco seasoning mix.

Burritos are just one example of the versatility of ground pork which, like all pork cuts, is in good supply and attractively priced. It is also popular because of the many ways it can be used such as in patties, meat loaves, casseroles, pizza toppings and spaghetti sauces.

PORK BURRITOS

1 lb. ground pork (75 percent lean)

1 small onion, chopped

1 can (8 oz.) tomatoes
1 can (8 1/4 oz.) refried beans
1 pkg. (1 1/4 oz.) taco seasoning mix
1 can (4 oz.) chopped green chilies
1/2 tsp. salt
1/4 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
10 eight-inch flour tortillas
Cooking oil

Brown ground pork and onion in large frying pan. Pour off drippings. Drain tomatoes, reserving liquid, and coarsely chop. Add tomatoes, refried beans, taco seasoning mix, green chilies, salt and tomato liquid to pork, stirring to combine. Cook slowly 15 minutes. Remove from heat and stir in cheese. Lightly brush both sides of each tortilla with cooking oil; place in two stacks on a damp towel. Wrap in towel; place on baking sheet in moderate oven (375°) 8 to 10 minutes. Remove tortilla from towel; place 1/4 cup meat mixture in center of tortilla, fold opposite sides over filling, then fold remaining sides over top to enclose filling. (Secure with round wooden pick, if necessary.) Repeat to make 10 burritos. Fry burritos in deep hot oil (385°) 4 to 5 minutes or until hot and golden brown. * 5 servings of 2 burritos each.

*Or if a soft crush is desired, place on baking sheet and bake in moderate oven (350°) 10 to 12 minutes.

To show off the burritos in style, serve them on lettuce leaves with tomato wedges and avocado slices. If they are to be the main attraction at lunch or supper, you might also like to serve a fresh fruit salad or shimmering gelatin mold.

For St. Patrick's Day, try a traditional dinner

As the family showers you with compliments, you'll know the luck of the Irish was with you when you discovered this recipe for St. Paddy's Corned Beef. It's a feast that St. Patrick himself would have relished with enthusiasm for the corned beef is sweetly glazed and served with a full complement of colorful vegetables.

The secret to tender and juicy corned beef is to cover it with liquid, then simmer it slow and easy. While the beef brisket is not a naturally tender cut, the hours of gentle cooking by moist heat produces delicious, fork-tender results. The glaze is easily achieved by briefly baking the cooked corned beef with a nutmeg-spiced corn syrup topping.

SURE TO BE enjoyed with the corned beef is a vegetable combination of turnips, carrots, onion and green pepper. The vegetables pick up the flavor of the spicy beef for they are cooked to tenderness in a portion of the beef's cooking liquid.

You'll find corned beef in the meat case in many shapes and sizes. It's made by curing the beef brisket cut from the underside of the beef carcass in a spicy brine. Although the brisket is available whole, it is often sold in portions in the retail market. It may be cut in half crosswise or cut into thirds.

When deciding what size corned beef to buy, you'll want to plan ahead for leftovers. The family will surely be looking forward to corned beef on rye and Reuben sandwiches. Leftover corned beef is also tasty in casseroles or creamed on biscuits, English muffins or toast. To really stretch the budget, combine the last of the beef with potatoes for a penny-pinching hash.

ST. PADDY'S CORNED BEEF
3 to 5-lb. corned beef brisket
Water
3 carrots, cut into 1/2-inch pieces
2 turnips, pared, cut into 1/2-inch wedges
1 small onion, cut in half lengthwise and sliced
1 small green pepper, chopped
1/4 cup light corn syrup
Dash nutmeg

Place corned beef brisket in Dutch oven; add water to cover. Cover tightly and simmer 3 to 4 hours or until meat is tender. Remove 1 1/2 cups cooking liquid 30 minutes before brisket is done. Place cooking liquid, carrots, turnips and onion in saucepan, cover tightly and cook 25 minutes. Add green pepper and continue cooking, covered, 5 to 6 minutes or until pepper is done. Combine syrup and nutmeg and cook slowly 2 to 3 minutes, stirring occasionally. Remove meat from cooking liquid and place, fat side up, on rack in open roasting pan; spread glaze over top of meat. Bake in moderate oven (350°) 20 minutes. Carve brisket diagonally across the grain into thin slices and serve with vegetables.

With the corned beef and vegetables capturing the St. Pat's Day spotlight, you can round out the menu easily with chunky applesauce and Irish soda bread. Then what better way to end this special tribute to the Emerald Isle than with lime sherbet and shamrock-shaped sugar cookies.

A typical St. Patrick's Day meal of corned beef and vegetables is a tradition that isn't difficult to adhere to as it is easy and economical to prepare.

Nutrition conference at MSU March 22

The relationship between diet and cancer will be discussed at a daylong nutrition conference March 22 at Michigan State University. The program, which is part of Farmer's Week, begins at 9 a.m. in B108 Wells Hall.

The opening speaker is Steven Stellman, an epidemiologist with the American Cancer Society in New York. Stellman will present data linking dietary practices to greater or lesser incidence of cancer.

Jay Goodman, MSU professor of pharmacology and toxicology, will discuss what takes place at the cellular level in the development of cancer cells. He will explain how carcinogens interact with normal body processes to produce mutant cancer cells.

At 1:30 p.m., Ian Gray, MSU associate professor of food science and human nutrition will talk about toxic compounds in food, including those that occur naturally and those that are created or added during food processing.

Maurice Bennick, MSU associate professor of food science and human nutrition, will talk about specific dietary components and their protective or harmful effects in the development of cancer.

A little bit of salt goes a long way

Sodium is essential for life. But, many Americans have diets that include far more sodium than they need. High sodium intake is believed to be one of several factors contributing to high blood pressure, which in turn can lead to heart disease and stroke. But, luckily, there are many ways to lower your sodium intake.

To help you find the easiest ways to moderate sodium in your diet, the Department of Health and Human Services has a new, free pamphlet that includes information on how much sodium you need, categories of food and their sodium levels and different ideas for cutting sodium intake. To get your free copy of "Sodium," write to the Consumer Information Center, Dept. 529L, Pueblo, Colo. 81009.

Salt is the most common form of sodium in your diet. But you can learn to recognize other ingredients that contain sodium. These include soy sauce, salt brine and any ingredient with sodium or soda in its name, such as monosodium glutamate or baking soda.

A GOOD STEP toward increasing your awareness of how much salt you are eating is to read the labels when you shop. Even when the amount of sodium isn't on the label, remember that the ingredients are listed in order of amount, from most to least. By reading the label, you will at least be able to compare sodium with the other ingredients.

Canned foods and other processed foods, generally contain large amounts of sodium. Frozen foods are lower in sodium and fresh foods usually have the lowest sodium content of all.

When you're cooking at home, try gradually cutting the amount of salt you use in your favorite recipes until you've gotten it down to half or less. You weren't born with a preference for salt, and it can be unlearned.

Life Lines

IT MAY BE too late to take a widow to lunch because the statewide "Acknowledge the Widow Week" observance was last week, but it's never too late to hire them. Many of them need jobs to exist and — as an official proclamation from Gov. James Blanchard notes — "they are valuable people with valuable life skills." And to celebrate the top-level attention, the area Widow's Organization is having a pre-Easter Brunch at noon Sunday, March 27, at the Fairlane Club on Hubbard, one block east of Evergreen. The price is $12 (tax and tip included). Deadline for making reservations is Friday, March 25, and can be made by calling the organization's office at 582-3792.

A.I.M., THE acronym for the Adoption Identity Movement, will host the American Adoption Congress Conference Friday and Saturday at the Book Cadillac Hotel in Detroit. Open to the public, the conference is geared for adoptees, natural parents, adoptive parents, professional workers and others who might be interested. Keynote speaker will be Ann Hartman of the University of Michigan who will discuss "Emotions in the Adoption Triad." For more information, call 546-9175.

SCHOOLCRAFT College is offering two day-long workshops to combat winter's side effects. From 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, learn about risk, procrastination and self-motivation at "If You Don't Know Where You're Going, It's Harder to Get There." Registration fee is $25. On Saturday, April 16, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., understand the dynamics of depression and experiencing changes in your responses to life at "Women and Depression." Registration fee is $25. To register, call 591-6400.

SIX HUMMEL dolls will be on sale at the Livonia Mall's spring doll, toy and miniature show Saturday and Sunday. Show hours are 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturday and noon to 5 p.m. Sunday. Admission is free. Everything needed for the collector or hobbyist will be available along with the regular displays. The six original Hummels will be offered at the booth of Cynthia Oakes of Livonia.

TWO LIVONIA 4-H club members were award recipients for project accomplishments in the dog category. They are Michelle Vucosovic and Karen Wiskowski.

EVERYONE likes to eat fresh, tasty, home-cooked meals while losing weight or maintaining weight loss — and no one is much better at showing you how than Weight Watcher's exec chef Larry Janes. He will be conducting demonstrations at Wonderland Center at 10 a.m. Thursday and again at 10 a.m. Saturday, March 26. Free recipes will be given to all who attend.

SPEAKING of Weight Watchers, Lois Brown, who has lost more than 200 pounds on the WW program, will be guest speaker at an open house at 10 a.m. Tuesday, March 21, at Westland Center. She'll talk about the 25 months it took her to lose the weight. The meeting is open to the public.

WITH ST. PATRICK'S Day just around the corner, it is perhaps newsworthy to mention that women of Ireland have traditionally been accorded much respect as indicated in the old Book of Ballymote in such references as druidesses, poetesses, physicians and lawmakers. One of those was Bridget Brethra, who lived about the time of Christ and practiced law at Conor MacNessa's court. She's credited with making the legal decision which made it possible for the daughter of the family to inherit the land in the event there was no son in the family.

Miss Michigan U.S.A.

Beauty queen orbits to title

To background music from the space movie "Stars Wars," Kimberly Mexicotte's career plans soared to new heights last week when the Livonia beauty queen was selected Miss Michigan U.S.A. from a field of 142 contestants.

Touchdown from of Cloud Nine for the statuesque beauty is expected momentarily, however.

"My family helps me keep my feet on the ground," said Mexicotte, 21, of Livonia after being chosen Miss Michigan U.S.A. in a pageant at Center Stage in Canton.

"I was raised to be beautiful inside in a family of three boys. I don't think this will change my character," she said.

For her appearance Mexicotte, who is 5-feet, 8-inches in height and weighs 122 pounds, wore a metallic silver gown in keeping with the space theme of the event.

THE 1979 STEVENSON High School graduate will represent the state in the Miss U.S.A. pageant in May in Knoxville, Tenn.

She regarded the recent state pageant as a "fantastic experience," even though there was considerable competitive pressure.

"It is great for confidence, and it makes you more poised," she said.

Among the other area women competing in the event were Sandra Jeanne Trent of Westland, Frances Mulka of Redford Township and Lori Ann Stratton and Kelly Wells of Garden City.

Livonia contenders were Leslie French, Susan M Gemuend, Gail Ann Melnik, Vicki Marie Sanders and Karen Turner.

FIRST RUNNER-UP was Brenda Byers of Grand Rapids; second runner-up was Susan Johnson of Detroit.

Mexicotte took up the modeling business about a 1½ years ago after leaving the Northwood Institute where she was studying accounting. She has modeled for catalogs and did a Kraft cheese commercial for TV. She has worked in such cities as Chicago and Paris. In the French capital, she modeled clothes for Cosmopolitan magazine.

She plans to continue her modeling career, a career she said takes patience due to long waits between filming. But she will also take advantage of the $900 acting scholarship she received as first-prize winner to test her skills and see if she can become an actress.

If not, she may try to own a modeling agency or a health spa.

In addition to the scholarship, she also won a number of other prizes including a one-year personal management contract, a fur coat, a trip to New York and Knoxville, clothing, makeup, and a guest TV appearance.

Textbooks still sexist, instructor says

By Sharon Dargay
staff writer

More teachers today are aware of women's history — but sex-role stereotyping still pervades many social studies textbooks.

That's the observation of Grace Kachaturoff of West Bloomfield, a social studies professor at the University of Michigan-Dearborn campus. Kachaturoff was honored last week for her leadership in promoting equal rights for women, specifically in the area of textbook evaluation.

She's a member of the state Board of Education's textbook evaluation committee and a recipient of the university's Susan B. Anthony Award. The honor is given annually to a member of the campus who contributes to the advancement of women.

"THERE'S BEEN very little change in textbooks, but I think there's a greater awareness of teaching about women," Kachaturoff said.

"There are more books than there used to be that depict women in a variety of occupations rather than just as housewife. But women aren't made an integral part of the text. Generally, women are dealt with in a special section inserted in the book. That's also true of other minority groups."

KACHATUROFF EDITED the 1978-79 report on Michigan social studies texts, which found numerous examples of sex bias in learning materials. She updated the report in 1980-81 and is involved in on-going study.

"One thing that was interesting about the last study is that we used teachers for the first time to (evaluate) the books," she said. "Some of them had never looked at their textbooks carefully. They weren't aware of how and what (women's history) they were teaching."

"But even a book that's biased can be excellent to use in the class. You can start off by talking about why it doesn't include anything about women or how it treats the subject."

KACHATUROFF BECAME interested because interested in women's issues and textbook evaluation while teaching social studies in the Dearborn school system from 1947-70. One of five women who have attained full professorship at the Dearborn campus, Kachaturoff joined U-M in 1970.

"I helped initiate a chapter of the Commission for Women on this campus. And I'm very concerned about the number of women represented on the faculty."

COLLEAGUES ALSO contend that Kachaturoff provides a role model for other women on campus.

"She's a hard-working, dedicated woman with high standards ideals," said Mimi Singer, coordinator of the campus Women's Center. "She's a scholar, an activist and an author. The fact that she has worked to see that women are included in textbooks is admirable."

Kachaturoff also received U-M's Internal Women's Year Award in 1976 and its Distinguished Citizen Award in 1975.

UM-D computer career workshop is offered

A workshop to introduce women to careers in computers will be held from 6-9 p.m. Thursday, March 24, at the University of Michigan-Dearborn.

"Introduction to Careers in Computers" is designed for women who have little knowledge of computers. The workshop will include sessions on computer hardware and software, career opportunities, and training provided by local colleges.

The workshop will be held in room 1091 of the University Mall. Dr. Roger Verhey, director of the Computer and Information Science Degree Program, will lead the first session on the purposes of computers: how and where they are used and how they work.

Representatives from industry will discuss what career opportunities there are and where, and what skills are necessary. Dr. William Agresti, associate dean of the UM-D School of Engineering, will lead the third session on what training local colleges provide, with representatives from Henry Ford Community College, Wayne State University and Eastern Michigan University.

A $15 workshop fee includes materials. Pre-registration is necessary. Checks should be made payable to the university and mailed to the UM-D Women's Center, 4901 Evergreen Road, Dearborn 48128. More information is available by calling the center at 593-5147.

The campus is on Evergreen Road between Ford Road and Michigan Avenue.

medical briefs

Pediatric allergist Dr. James Bommarito will address the parent/adult group of the American Lung Association of Southeastern Michigan's Family Asthma program 7 p.m. Thursday, March 17, at Oakwood Hospital.

While adults and parents hear Dr. Bommarito, asthmatic children will be given special instruction in basic breathing exercises in order to further their ability to work with their asthma through controlled and practiced breathing.

A free community service of the lung association, the family asthma program meetings are held monthly in doctors' dining rooms C and D of Oakwood Hospital. All families who share the common problem of living with asthma are encouraged to attend the meetings held the third Thursdays of each month. The hospital is located at 18010 Oakwood Boulevard, Dearborn. For more information, call ALASEM at 961-1697 from 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. weekdays.

OPENINGS ARE STILL available for women to take part in a federally funded study at Henry Ford Hospital, Detroit, on the effectiveness and safety of the drug sodium fluoride in treating the bone-thinning disease osteoporosis.

Symptoms of the disease, which affects about one-third of all white women over age 60, include back pain, progressive stooping and a gradual decrease in height, or "shrinking." The disease actually begins in the post-menopausal period after age 45 and can result in crumbling of the vertebrae in the spine. Fractures of the wrist and hip, either spontaneously or as a result of injury, are also common.

The HFH study, funded by a grant from the National Institute of Health, is to help determine use of sodium fluoride in preventing further crumbling or fractures. It is believed to be the only available agent to stimulate bone formation.

Candidates for the study must be white, post-menopausal women age 45-75 who have been diagnosed as having osteoporosis, who have had at least one fracture, and who are referred to the program by a physician.

Further information about the study may be obtained by calling the hospital's division of bone and mineral metabolism at 876-2376.

Of the total 200 women to be involved in the study over the five-year period, half will receive sodium fluoride along with calcium supplements, and half will get only the calcium treatment. Patients will be tracked for several years and the results compared.

The wedding will be in Aldersgate United Methodist Church.

Lower loops suggest high activity

Dear Mrs. Green:

I have always enjoyed your column and your interpretations. Ever since I can remember I have wanted my handwriting analyzed by a graphologist.

I am 40 years old and right-handed, although I do write as though I was a lefty. For years my family and friends have teased me that they are unable to read my writing. In fact, as I sit here writing this, I am wondering if you are having the same problem. I would most appreciate your interpretation. Thank you.

N.J., Livonia

Dear N.J.:

Your insatiable need to be busy and active is revealed by overly developed lower loops. There is no doubting the fact that variety is the spice of your life. It seems that nervous energy may be the catalyst behind all this activity.

A moderating force may be your deliberate nature. You dislike being rushed: Pressure deadlines would be more than you care to handle. Often you need time to pause and survey a situation before becoming involved.

Your formative years were spent in a home with strong female influence. Early in life you learned to control your emotional responses. Your tendency is to be introspective. At times you probably do a little fantasizing.

In your interpersonal relationships you can be direct and say it like it is. But there is also a generous sprinkling of tact which lends charisma when you need it. You may often appear more outgoing than you inwardly feel. Most people probably do not know you on an intimate basis as you tend to keep some distance in your relationships.

Personal criticism can be devastating. Perhaps you may anticipate it when none is really intended.

Enjoyment of music is suggested in the symbolism of those small bs that resemble musical notes.

Note: Some of my readers would like to hear from people who have had their handwriting analyzed through this column. If you are willing to supply me with feedback from your analysis for use in the column, please enclose a self-addressed envelope with your letter and I will contact you. Send your letter to Lorene C. Green, a certified graphologist, in care of this newspaper—Use a full sheet of white, unlined paper. Write in the first person singular giving your age and handedness.

Consumer group offers discount card

A consumer group which offers its members savings through a discount card is having a membership drive.

Southeastern Michigan Consumer Alliance (SEMCA) sells membership for $35 for one year and $45 for two. It then gives each member of a family over age 10 a discount card, which assures them of at least a 10-percent discount in about 4,000 stores from Detroit to Lansing.

The card can be used repeatedly. Members also get a book listing the stores where the card can be used.

"Our main goal is to create an equitable relationship between consumer and business people," said Rene Lemar of Ann Arbor, one of the founders of the four-year-old alliance. "The business person gets more business and the consumer gets savings."

He estimated that the Ypsilanti-based organization has about 200,000 members. For information call SEMCA at 326-4710 or 541-3111.

Q. How do we know if our smoke detector is working? I lost the directions that came with it and it's never gone off so I don't know if it still works.

A. Smoke detectors should be tested regularly to be certain that batteries, bulbs or other replaceable components are in good working order.

Once a month test your detector by holding a candle six inches under it. If you're testing an ionization detector, let the flame burn. To test a photoelectric unit, extinguish the candle and let visible smoke drift into the detector. The alarm should sound within 20 seconds. When it sounds, fan the smoke away or remove the flame, and the signal will soon become silent.

Using real smoke is more dependable than pressing the "test" button found on many older units because the button only activates the sound and doesn't tell you if the unit itself is working.

NEWER UNITS HAVE been refined to eliminate the need to be tested with real smoke. Instructions for testing should be on the detector.

Home fires are a serious threat to your family's safety. More than 6,000 people die and more than 300,000 are injured each year by home fires. So don't play false alarm with your family's safety. Remind everyone that the smoke detector is not a toy. It should not be operated or even touched except for testing, maintenance and cleaning.

Some authorities suggest using the detector test feature to operate the alarm as part of a family fire drill on occasion, but operating the alarm excessively weakens the battery power and may leave you flat when it's needed most.

THE CITY OF GARDEN CITY ORDAINS

That in order to comply with Sections 615 to 625 of Act 300 of Public Acts of 1949, as amended, Subsections 5.15, 5.15a, 5.15b, 5.15c, 5.15d, 5.15e, 5.15f, 5.15g and 5.62a of the Uniform Traffic Code for Cities, Townships and Villages promulgated by the Director of the State Police in accordance with Public Act 62, of 1956 and adopted by reference as Chapter 70, Title VII of the City Code are hereby amended to read as follows:

R 28.1415 Sec. 5.15

Driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance; Per se violation for operating with 0.10 percent blood alcohol weight.

(1) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section for a person, whether licensed or not, who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination thereof, to operate a vehicle upon a highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles, within this state. A peace officer may, without a warrant, arrest a person when the peace officer has reasonable cause to believe that the person was, at the time of an accident, the driver of a motor vehicle involved in the accident and was operating the vehicle on a public highway of this state while under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of an intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance.

(2) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section for a person whether licensed or not, whose blood contains 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol to operate a vehicle upon a highway or other place open to the general public including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles within this state.

(3) It shall be unlawful and punishable as provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section for the owner of a motor vehicle or a person in charge of or in control of a motor vehicle to authorize or knowingly permit the vehicle to be operated on a highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles, within this state by a person who is under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination thereof.

(4) A person who is convicted of a violation of subsection (1), (2) or (3) of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and may be punished by imprisonment for not more than 90 days or by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or both, together with the costs of the prosecution.

(5) A person who violates subsection (1) or (2) or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2) within 7 years of a prior conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or both. As part of the sentence, the court shall order the secretary of state to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person. For purposes of this section, "prior conviction" means a conviction under subsection (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsections (1) or (2), or a law of another state substantially corresponding to subsections (1) or (2).

(6) A person who violates subsection (1) or (2) or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2) within 10 years of 2 or more prior convictions, as defined in subsection (3), is guilty of a felony. As part of the sentence, the court shall order the secretary of state to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person.

(7) As part of the sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), the court shall order the secretary of state to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than 6 months nor more than 2 years. The court may order the secretary of state to issue to the person a restricted license permitting the person during all or a specified portion of the period of suspension to drive only to and from the person's residence and work location, in the course of the person's employment or occupation, to and from an alcohol or drug education program or treatment program as ordered by the court; to and from the person's residence and an educational institution at which the person is enrolled as a student, or pursuant to a combination of these restrictions. The court shall not order the secretary of state to issue a restricted chauffeur's license which would permit a person to operate a truck or tractor, including a trailer, which hauls hazardous material. The court shall not order the secretary of state to issue a restricted license unless the person states under oath and the court finds that the person is unable to take public transportation to and from his or her work location, place of alcohol or drug education or treatment, or educational institution, and does not have any family members or others able to provide transportation. The court order and license shall indicate the person's work location and the approved route or routes and permitted times of travel. For purposes of this subsection, "work location" includes, as applicable, either or both of the following:

(i) The specific place or places of employment.

(ii) The territory or territories regularly visited by the person in pursuance of the person's occupation.

(8) As part of the sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2), the court may order the person to perform service to the community, as designated by the court, without compensation for a period not to exceed 12 days. The person shall reimburse the state or appropriate local unit of government for the cost of insurance incurred by the state or local unit of government as a result of the person's activities under this subsection.

(9) Before imposing sentence for a violation of subsection (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2), the court shall order the person to undergo screening and assessment by a person or agency designated by the office of substance abuse services, to determine whether the person is likely to benefit from rehabilitative services, including alcohol or drug education and alcohol or drug treatment programs. As part of the sentence, the court may order the person to participate in and successfully complete 1 or more appropriate rehabilitative programs. The person shall pay for the costs of the screening, assessment, and rehabilitative services.

(10) Before accepting a plea of guilty under this section, the court shall advise the accused of the statutory consequences possible as the result of a plea of guilty in respect to suspension or revocation of an operator's or chauffeur's license, the penalty imposed for violation of this section, and the limitation on the right of appeal.

(11) The operator's or chauffeur's license of a person found guilty of violating subsection (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection (1) or (2), shall be surrendered to the court in which the person was convicted, and the court shall immediately forward the surrendered license and an abstract of conviction to the secretary of state. The abstract of conviction shall indicate the sentence imposed. Upon receipt of, and pursuant to the abstract of conviction, the secretary of state shall suspend or revoke the person's license and, if ordered by the court and the person is otherwise eligible for a license, issue to the person a restricted license stating the limited driving privileges indicated on the abstract. If the license is not forwarded to the secretary of state, an explanation of the reason why the license is absent shall be attached. If the conviction is appealed to circuit court, that court may, ex parte, order the secretary of state to rescind the suspension, revocation, or restricted license issued pursuant to this section.

R 28.1415a Sec. 5.15a

Criminal prosecutions for driving under influence of intoxicating liquor; tests; admissibility; presumption; liability for withdrawal blood; refusal to take test; other evidence.

(1) The amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the driver's blood at the time alleged as shown by the chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, or breath shall be admissible in evidence in a criminal prosecution for any of the following:

(a) A violation of section 5.15 (1), (2) or (3), or 5.15b, or of a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection 5.15 (1), (2) or (3), or 5.15b.

(b) Felonious driving, negligent homicide, or manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle while the driver is alleged to have been impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or to have had a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

(c) If a test is given, the results of the test shall be made available to the person charged or the person's attorney upon written request to the prosecution with a copy of the request filed with the court. The prosecution shall furnish the report at least 2 days before the day of the trial and the results shall be offered as evidence by the prosecution in a criminal proceeding. Failure to fully comply with the request shall bar the admission of the results into evidence by the prosecution.

(d) Except in a prosecution relating solely to a violation of sections 5.15 (3), the amount of alcohol in the driver's blood at the time alleged as shown by chemical analysis of the person's blood, urine, or breath shall give rise to the following presumptions:

(a) If there was at the time 0.07% or less by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was not under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(b) If there was at the time in excess of 0.07% but less than 0.10% by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant's ability to operate a vehicle was impaired within the provisions of section 5.15b due to the consumption of intoxicating liquor.

(c) If there was at the time 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol in the defendant's blood, it shall be presumed that the defendant was under the influence of intoxicating liquor.

(d) A sample or specimen of urine or breath shall be taken and collected in a reasonable manner. Only a licensed physician or a licensed nurse or medical technician under the direction of a licensed physician and qualified to withdraw blood acting in a medical environment, at the request of a peace officer, may withdraw blood for the purpose of determining the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood, as provided in this act. Liability for a crime or civil damages predicated on the act of withdrawing blood and related procedures shall not attach to a qualified person who withdraws blood or assists in the withdrawal in accordance with this act unless the withdrawal is performed in a negligent manner.

(2) The tests shall be administered at the nearest available place having reasonable grounds to believe the person has committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1). A person who takes a chemical test administered at the request of a peace officer, as provided in this section, shall be given a reasonable opportunity to have a person of his or her own choosing administer the chemical tests described in this section within a reasonable time after his or her detention, and the results of the test shall be admissible and shall be considered with other competent evidence in determining the innocence or guilt of the defendant. If the person charged is administered a chemical test by a person of his or her own choosing, the person charged shall be responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of the test sample. The person charged shall be informed that he or she has the right to demand that a person of his or her choosing administer the tests provided for in subsection (1), that the results of the test shall be admissible and shall be considered with other competent evidence in determining the innocence or guilt of the defendant, and that the person charged shall be responsible for obtaining a chemical analysis of the test sample.

(3) The person charged shall be advised that if the person refused the request of a peace officer to take a test described in this section, a test shall not be given without a court order. The person charged shall also be advised that the person's refusal of the request of a peace officer to take a test described in this section shall result in the suspension of his or her operator's or chauffeur's license or operating privilege, and in the addition of 6 points to his or her driver's license.

(4) This section shall not be construed as limiting the introduction of any other competent evidence bearing upon the question of whether or not the person was impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or whether the person had a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

(5) If a jury instruction regarding a defendant's refusal to submit to a chemical test under this section is requested by the prosecution or the defendant, the jury instruction shall be given as follows:

"Evidence was admitted in this case which, if believed by the jury, could prove that the defendant had exercised his or her right to refuse a chemical test. You are instructed that such a refusal within the statutory rights of the defendant and is not evidence of his guilt. You are not to consider such a refusal in determining the guilt or innocence of the defendant."

(6) If after an accident the driver of a vehicle involved in the accident is transported to a medical facility and a sample of the driver's blood is withdrawn at that time for the purpose of medical treatment, the results of a chemical analysis of that sample shall be admissible in a criminal prosecution for a crime described in section 5.15a (1) to show the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in the person's blood at the time alleged, regardless of whether the person had been offered or had refused a chemical test. The medical facility or person performing the chemical analysis shall disclose the results of the analysis to a prosecuting attorney, who may request the results for use in a criminal prosecution or drug education or treatment, or educational institution, and does not have any family members or others able to provide transportation. The court order and license shall indicate the person's work location and the approved route or routes and permitted times of travel. For purposes of this subsection, "work location" includes, as applicable either or both of the following:

(i) The specific place or places of employment.

(ii) The territory or territories regularly visited by the person in pursuance of the person's occupation.

R 28.1415b Sec. 5.15b

Impaired driving; violation as misdemeanor

(1) A person shall not operate a vehicle on a highway or any other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of motor vehicles, within this state, due to consumption of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance, or a combination thereof, the person is incapable of exercising his or her ability to operate the vehicle. If a person is charged with violating section 5.15 (1) or (2) of this code, a finding of guilt is permissible under this section.

(2) A person who is convicted of a violation of this section may be imprisoned for not more than 90 days or fined not more than $300.00, or both, in addition to being charged with the costs of the prosecution.

(3) As part of the sentence, the court shall order the secretary of state to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than 90 days nor more than 1 year. The court may order the secretary of state to issue to the person a restricted license permitting the person during all or a specified portion of the period of suspension to drive only to and from the person's residence and work location, in the course of the person's employment or occupation, to and from an alcohol or drug education program or treatment program as ordered by the court; to and from the person's residence and an educational institution at which the person is enrolled as a student, or pursuant to a combination of these restrictions. The court shall not order the secretary of state to issue a restricted chauffeur's license which would permit a person to operate a truck or tractor, including a trailer, which hauls hazardous material. The court shall not order the secretary of state to issue a restricted license unless the person states under oath and the court finds that the person is unable to take public transportation to and from his or her work location, place of alcohol or drug education or treatment, or educational institution, and does not have any family members or others able to provide transportation. The court order and license shall indicate the person's work location and the approved route or routes and permitted times of travel. For purposes of this subsection, "work location" includes, as applicable either or both of the following:

(i) The specific place or places of employment.

(ii) The territory or territories regularly visited by the person in pursuance of the person's occupation.

(4) A person who violates this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section within 7 years of a prior conviction may be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than 1 year, or a fine of not more than $1,000.00, or both. As part of the sentence, the court shall order the secretary of state to suspend the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person for a period of not less than 6 months, nor more than 18 months. The court may order the secretary of state to issue to the person a restricted license as provided in subsection (3), except that a restricted license shall not be issued during the first 60 days of the suspension period. For purposes of this section, "prior conviction" means a conviction under this section, section 5.15 (1) or (2), or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection 5.15 (1) or (2), or a law of another state substantially corresponding to this section or section 5.15 (1) or (2).

(5) A person who violates this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section, within 10 years of 2 or more prior convictions, as defined in subsection (4), may be sentenced as provided in subsection (4), except that as part of the sentence the court shall order the secretary of state to revoke the operator's or chauffeur's license of the person.

(6) As part of the sentence for a violation of this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section, the court may order the person to perform service to the community, as designated by the court, without compensation, for a period not to exceed 12 days. The person shall reimburse the state or appropriate local unit of government for the cost of insurance incurred by the state or local unit of government as a result of the person's activities under this subsection.

(7) Before imposing sentence for a violation of this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section, the court shall order the person to undergo screening and assessment by a person or agency designated by the office of substance abuse services, to determine whether the person is likely to benefit from rehabilitative services, including alcohol or drug education and alcohol or drug treatment programs. As part of the sentence, the court may order the person to participate in and successfully complete 1 or more appropriate rehabilitative programs. The person shall pay for the costs of the screening, assessment, and rehabilitative services.

(8) Before accepting a plea of guilty under this section, the court shall advise the accused of the statutory consequences possible as the result of a plea of guilty in respect to suspension or revocation of an operator's or chauffeur's license, the penalty imposed for violation of this section, and the limitation on the right of appeal.

(9) The operator's or chauffeur's license of a person found guilty of violating this section, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to this section, shall be surrendered to the court in which the person was convicted. The court shall immediately forward the surrendered license and an abstract of conviction to the secretary of state. The abstract of conviction shall indicate the sentence imposed. Upon receipt of, and pursuant to the abstract of conviction, the secretary of state shall suspend or revoke the person's license and, if ordered by the court and the person is otherwise eligible for a license, issue to the person a restricted license stating the limited driving privileges indicated on the abstract. If the license is not forwarded to the secretary of state, an explanation of the reason why the license is absent shall be attached. If the conviction is appealed to circuit court, that court may, ex parte, order the secretary of state to rescind the suspension, revocation, or restricted license issued pursuant to this section.

R 28.1415c Section 5.15c

Implied consent

(1) A person who operates a vehicle upon a public highway or other place open to the general public, including an area designated for the parking of vehicles in the state is considered to have given consent to chemical tests of his or her blood, breath, or urine for the purpose of determining the amount of alcohol or presence of a controlled substance or both in his or her blood.

(2) The person is arrested for a violation of section 5.15 (1) or (2) or 5.15b, or a local ordinance substantially corresponding to subsection 5.15 (1) or (2), or 5.15b.

(3) The person is arrested for felonious driving, negligent homicide or manslaughter resulting from the operation of a motor vehicle and the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person was operating the vehicle while impaired by or under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance or a combination of intoxicating liquor and a controlled substance, or while having a blood alcohol content of 0.10% or more by weight of alcohol.

(4) A person who is afflicted with hemophilia, diabetes, or a condition requiring the use of an anticoagulant under the direction of a physician shall not be considered to have given consent to the withdrawal of blood.

(5) The tests shall be administered as provided in section 5.15a.

R 28.1415d Section 5.15d

Refusal to submit to test; Advice as to Rights

(1) If a person refuses the request of a peace officer to submit to a chemical test offered pursuant to section 5.15a, a test shall not be given without a court order. A written request shall be forwarded to the secretary of state by the peace officer. The report shall state that the officer had reasonable grounds to believe the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1) and that the person had refused to submit to the test upon the request of the peace officer and had been advised of the consequences of the refusal. The form of the report shall be prescribed and furnished by the secretary of state.

R 28.1415e Section 5.15e

Notice of receipt of report; request for hearing; Notice of hearing; failure to request; consequences

(1) Upon receipt of the report made pursuant to section 5.15d, the secretary of state shall immediately notify the person in writing, mailed to his or her last known address, that the report has been received and that within 14 days of the date of the notice the person may request a hearing as provided in section 5.15f.

(2) The notice shall specifically state that failure to request a hearing within 14 days will result in the suspension of the person's license or permit to drive. The notice shall also state that there is not a requirement that the person retain counsel for the hearing, though counsel would be permitted to represent the person at the hearing.

R 28.1415f Section 5.15f

Failure to request hearing; effect; hearing scope; record; transcription reviewing court decision; and judicial review; suspension or revocation

(1) If the person who refuses to submit to a chemical test pursuant to section 5.15d does not request a hearing within 14 days of the date of notice pursuant to section 5.15e, the secretary of state shall suspend the person's operator's or chauffeur's license or permit to drive, or nonresident operating privilege, for a period of 6 months or for a second or subsequent refusal within a period of 7 years for 1 year. If the person is a resident without a license or permit to operate a vehicle in the state, the secretary of state shall deny to the person the issuance of a license or permit for a period of 6 months, or, for a second or subsequent refusal within a period of 7 years, for 1 year. The person involved may file a petition in circuit court of the county in which the arrest was made to review the suspension or denial as provided in section 313 of the Act.

(2) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The court may, in its discretion, order the hearing officer to prepare a transcript of the proceedings if the court finds that the hearing officer's transcript is inadequate. The hearing officer shall cover only the following issues:

(a) Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(c) Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.

(d) Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15a and 5.15c.

(e) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The court may, in its discretion, order the hearing officer to prepare a transcript of the proceedings if the court finds that the hearing officer's transcript is inadequate. The hearing officer shall cover only the following issues:

(a) Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(c) Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.

(d) Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15a and 5.15c.

(e) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The court may, in its discretion, order the hearing officer to prepare a transcript of the proceedings if the court finds that the hearing officer's transcript is inadequate. The hearing officer shall cover only the following issues:

(a) Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(c) Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.

(d) Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15a and 5.15c.

(e) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The court may, in its discretion, order the hearing officer to prepare a transcript of the proceedings if the court finds that the hearing officer's transcript is inadequate. The hearing officer shall cover only the following issues:

(a) Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(c) Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.

(d) Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15a and 5.15c.

(e) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. Proceedings at which evidence was presented need not be transcribed and transmitted if the sole reason for review is to determine whether or not the court will order the issuance of a restricted license. The court may, in its discretion, order the hearing officer to prepare a transcript of the proceedings if the court finds that the hearing officer's transcript is inadequate. The hearing officer shall cover only the following issues:

(a) Whether the peace officer had reasonable grounds to believe that the person had committed a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(b) Whether the person was placed under arrest for a crime described in section 5.15a (1).

(c) Whether the person reasonably refused to submit to the test upon the request of the officer.

(d) Whether the person was advised of the rights under section 5.15a and 5.15c.

(e) The hearing officer shall make a record of proceedings held pursuant to subsection (2). The record shall be prepared and transcribed in accordance with section 86 of the administrative procedures act of 1969, Act No. 396 of the Public Acts of 1969, being section 241 of the Michigan Compiled Laws. Upon notification of the filing of a petition for judicial review pursuant to section 313 of the Act, the hearing officer shall transmit to the court in which the petition was filed, not less than 10 days before the matter is set for review, the original or a certified copy of the official record of the proceedings. # Gerkey spoils CC's state hockey party

staff writer

Just call Don Gerkey a party crasher.

The senior centerman from Fraser High School scored three of his four goals in the first period of Saturday's state Class A hockey finale and led the Ramblers to a convincing 7-2 win over Catholic Central.

Catholic Central had planned on adding the hockey title to its recent state wrestling crown, but Gerkey and company placed a resounding stop to that goal at the Flint IMA sports arena.

The Ramblers, which led the league in penalty minutes, won their first state hockey championship by rocking and rolling to the 7-2 win. It was the first appearance for each team in the championship tourney, sponsored by the Michigan State High School Athletic Association.

Ironically, Fraser defeated Catholic Central in December by the same score. On Jan. 8, the teams, both members of the Michigan Metro Hockey Association, played to a 2-all tie.

FRASER, AN eastside team with a reputation for hard checking and aggressive play, dominated most of the game. A hard-hitting first period had an unsettling effect on the Shamrocks, who kept a constant watch for the hounding Ramblers throughout the remainder of the game.

"Any time you lose a game you're disappointed, but this is a bigger disappointment," said Shamrock coach John Gumbleton, whose team finished the season with a 20-6-2 record.

Catholic Central never established its speed game, and that's what did the Shamrocks in.

"I think we were intimidated by the way they came at us so physically," Gumbleton said. "But the puck bounced in their favor and they deserved it because they played well."

Fraser scored early in the second period to take a 4-0 lead. Catholic Central had some good scoring opportunities, but they were thwarted by Fraser net-minder William Hagener, who turned away 34 shots. Three times in the second period, Hagener made key saves on CC speedster Joe Hamway.

Fraser scored three more times in the second period to put the game out of reach. The Shamrocks' first goal was scored by senior forward Michael Kelly, who tipped in Daniel Whelan's shot from the point.

Catholic Central outshot Fraser in the final period, 13-5. But the only goal was an unassisted tally by CC senior defenseman Joseph Kley.

Fraser finished the season with a 22-3-3 mark.

Catholic Central erupted for four goals in a 3½-minute span during the second period to put away Portage Central (19-5-2) Friday at Flint in a semifinal game, 7-0.

The two teams went scoreless in the opening period.

Dave Morse then broke the ice at 8:54 of the next stanza as he put in a rebound shot off of Mustang goalie Jim Klein. Mike Kelly and Scott Summers drew assists.

Less than a minute later, Jeff Steffes scored the first of his three goals (from Mike Cannon and Dan Whelan). He scored again at 10:17 from Cannon and Scott Bozyk.

Morse closed out the scoring in the period with a goal at 12:22 from Kelly. Morse later received a misconduct penalty for failing to use a mouth guard.

In the third period, Steffes earned his hat trick at 6:08 from John Luomala.

Kelly and Joe Hamway added insurance goals within the next two minutes to make it a rout. Jim Peterson and Eric Socia assisted on Kelly's goal. Defenseman Joe Kley got credit for an assist on the final goal.

CC goalie John Bebes turned away 19 shots to gain his fifth shutout of the year.

The Shamrocks drilled 45 shots at Klein.

Stevenson bests pesky Pats

Spartans nail down district

By Brad Emons
staff writer

Sophomore jinx?

Bob Sluka, a 10th grader, hit a crucial turn-around jumper with 1:32 remaining to lift Livonia Stevenson past stubborn Livonia Franklin, 61-49, for the Class A District championship.

The game was played Friday night at Churchill High School.

The Patriots had pulled within two points, 50-48, with 2:06 left to play on a 10-foot bank shot by Bob Stebbins.

Stevenson then worked the ball into the 6-foot-6 center, who calmly put the in the 12-foot pressure shot.

Franklin then turned the ball over and Curt Ullstrom of Stevenson iced the victory by hitting four consecutive free throws in the final minute.

Stevenson, sporting a 20-3 record, will enter Class A Regional action against Milford Lakeland Wednesday at Franklin.

"THE ONLY thing I can say as a coach is that we wanted the ball inside during that situation," said Stevenson coach George Van Wagoner, who returns to the regional after a year's absence. "Bob's shot was a key one and I'm happy for him."

Stevenson used a balanced attack to offset the heroic performance put on by Stebbins, a 6-4 center who tallied 31 points and grabbed 16 rebounds in his final game.

Gary Mexicotte, Stevenson's cat-quick point-guard, led the winners with 18 points, mostly on breakaway drive-lays in the open court. He also dished out eight assists.

"I'm happy for Gary," Van Wagoner said. "He was all over the place."

Tom Domako, a 6-7 junior, added 15 points and senior guard Pete Rose had 10. Sluka, Ullstrom and reserve forward Bob Palmisano chipped in with six points apiece.

STEBBINS' 17 points kept Franklin within striking distance as the Spartans led 28-23 at halftime.

But early in the third quarter Mexicotte got rolling, scoring eight straight points to put Stevenson ahead by 11, 36-25.

Franklin, however, refused to quit as 6-2 junior forward Mike Wilkens got hot, scoring eight of his 10 points near the end of the period. The Patriots were still within five, entering the final quarter, 42-37.

Franklin quickly pulled within three, but Stevenson went back up by seven on a shot by Mexicotte with 4:45 to go. Franklin then hit three free throws and pulled within two after Wilkens forced a jump ball and won the tip.

"Give Franklin credit," said Van Wagoner. "They came in here on a roll."

"We thought Stebbins was tired, but he never came out. I don't know how he

CC streaks to district crown

By C.J. Risak

Run-and-gun basketball is the adopted style of the Detroit PSL.

After Saturday's game against Detroit Catholic Central, PSL team Detroit Redford may have to start looking for another brand of basketball.

That's because CC bested Redford at its own game, zooming to an 11-0 lead and never downshifting in winning its second straight state district title, 86-62, Saturday at CC.

The victory raised the Shamrocks' record to 19-3 and put them into the state regionals opposite another PSL squad, Detroit MacKenzie, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at Livonia Franklin.

MacKenzie, however, is much better than Redford, which finished the season at 10-8. MacKenzie is 20-2 for the year.

"It'll be a war," CC coach Bernie Holowicki predicted. "MacKenzie's big, talented and well-coached."

REDFORD, A YOUNG team with just two seniors among its top eight players, was never a threat to CC. The Shamrocks' pressure defense forced bundles of turnovers and helped them maintain at least a 10-point bulge from the midpoint of the third quarter on.

"It's our bread and butter," Holowicki said of the defensive pressure. "It was effective against Thurston and it was effective again today. They (Redford) had tall guards and we figured they'd try to throw it around."

When the Huskies did, a CC player was ready to pounce on it. The Shamrocks outscored Redford, 24-14, in the third quarter to go up by 19 (59-40), ic-

basketball

ing the victory. Eleven Husky turnovers in the quarter aided the CC surge.

What also helped get the Shamrocks out of the gate quickly was the inside-outside scoring punch of senior center Mike Maleske and sophomore guard John McIntyre. McIntyre, who Holowicki called a "good flow player, good at the transition game," netted eight points in the first quarter and had 14 by halftime.

WHEN MCINTYRE or any of his teammates missed, Maleske was there to pick off the rebound. The 6-6 pivotman poured in 10 first-quarter points as CC raced to a 25-14 lead.

Maleske finished with 23 points and 17 rebounds in the contest, while McIntyre accounted for 20 points and six assists.

Senior guard Stan Heath also had an outstanding game, scoring 13 points, dishing out five assists and making six steals. Bob Elwell had 15 points and Tom Malone collected eight points, six assists and five steals.

Throughout the contest, Redford coach Maurice Menefee pleaded with his team to "pick up the tempo" and to "pass the ball." The Huskies could do neither effectively. Edgar Lampkin and Kevin Tucker each notched 16 points for Redford. Moses Moss added 11 and Kenneth Tate had 10. Tucker's eight rebounds was high for the Huskies, as CC maintained a 39-29 advantage on the boards.

Hamway keys MSU puck hopes

By Scott Adler
staff writer

Mark Hamway's comment that he "can't complain" about the 1982-83 college hockey season could be the understatement of the year.

The Michigan State University captain humbly said he was happy with the way this season was turning out for him and his Spartan teammates shortly after they trounced Ohio State, 8-3, in the Central Collegiate Hockey Association semifinal game Friday at Detroit's Joe Louis Arena.

"I can't complain about this season," Hamway, a forward, said. "It's gone well for us so far. We had a letdown (about mid-season) but we came back."

Hamway added another point to his career total of 185 with an assist in the second period, moving him into sixth place on MSU's all-time total point list. He is expected to move up another notch before his final college season is over, surpassing Russ Welch with 190 points.

HAMWAY IS FOURTH on the all-time goal-scoring list as well, with 90, six goals behind Daryl Rice.

"I've had a great four years," he said. "I've met some great people, played some great hockey and had some great times here."

A 1979 graduate of Redford Bishop Borgess, Hamway played for the Windsor Spitfires of the Ontario Major Junior A League because Borgess didn't have a hockey program. He was one of Ron Mason's first recruits when Mason came to coach the Spartans from Bowling Green four years ago, and Hamway admits Mason played a major role in his decision to attend MSU.

"Simply what he did to the program speaks for itself," Hamway said of Mason. "(The hockey program) was nothing before he got here. He put Michigan State on the map in hockey."

HAMWAY HAS HAD a banner career for the Green and White. He was named MSU's Outstanding Rookie as a freshman as well as earning an honorable mention spot on the Western Collegiate Hockey Association all-league team.

He was drafted by the New York Islanders in the seventh round in the 1980 National Hockey League draft, and he captained the Great Lakes team to a gold medal in the 1981 National Sports Festival in Syracuse, N.Y. He was recently named CCHA honorable mention all-league for his performance this season.

The Spartans have topped the school record for most wins with 29, besting last year's win total of 26. But it was Hamway's 1981-82 campaign that assured him a spot in the limelight that is often occupied by MSU's All-American goalie Ron Scott.

Hamway knocked in 34 goals and had 31 assists last season, making him the fifth player in MSU history to rack-up 30-plus goals and assists in the same season. He had a 16-game scoring streak and was tied for fourth in goals and seventh in points in national rankings.

Mason said he thinks Hamway is one of the quality players in the country. "He can just take over a contest, dominate it from one end to the other," Mason said.

HAMWAY SAID HE is hoping to make the 1984 Olympic team and then perhaps play in the NHL, but right now his sights are set on an NCAA hockey championship.

"It's hard to tell (if we're going to win the NCAA title)," he said. "It's a long road. I'd like to make the Olympic team but right now my concentration is on this team. I'm just taking it game by game, doing my best and going out and working hard."

Early foul trouble knocks Glenn out

By C.J. Risak
staff writer

Plymouth Salem's basketball team has survived its third test.

The Rocks withstood a late Westland John Glenn rush to capture their second straight state district tournament title, 76-70, Friday at Salem.

The victory puts Salem into the regionals opposite Detroit Western at 7:30 p.m. Thursday at Eastern Michigan University.

For the Rocks, it was another obstacle cleared. They tied with Livonia Stevenson for the regular season Western Lakes Activities Association (WLAA) championship, both at 12-1, and won the WLAA tourney title last Saturday (March 5) against Stevenson.

Now Salem, 21-2 for the season, has added a district crown to its list of achievements. But it didn't come easy.

IF GLENN COACH Dan Henry is plagued by a recurring nightmare of a man in a striped shirt blowing a whistle — sometimes emitting a deafening shrill, other times giving no sound at all — no one can blame him. By the 4:58 mark of the second quarter, both his key big men, 6-foot-8 Paul Grazulis and 6-5 Jack Walker, had three personal fouls and were on the bench.

And when Glenn started making a run at Salem late in the fourth period, some calls that could have been made against the Rocks weren't.

Still, if there was one reason for the Salem victory, it was Dave Houle.

"He was smoking," said Henry of Houle's 22-point, 10-rebound performance. "He was the difference in my opinion."

The 6-4 Houle went right after both Grazulis and Walker and came out with the better of it. Because of their foul troubles, the Glenn pair combined for just 12 rebounds (six each). Salem out-rebounded the Rockets, 37-27, in the game.

HOULE PUMPED in 10 first-quarter points as Salem sped to a 21-12 advantage. The Rocks' lead was still nine at the half (38-29) and, by the midway point of the third quarter Grazulis and Walker were in trouble again, each having drawn their fourth personals.

That helped Salem expand its lead to a dozen going into the final quarter, 54-42. But the Rocks, playing their fourth game in seven days, were weary and Glenn's relentless full-court pressure started taking its toll.

"Their pressure never let up for a minute," said Salem coach Fred Thoman. "They made a run at us and we responded, then they made another run at us and we responded again."

The Rockets, trailing by as many as 13 points early in the final quarter, fought back to within four with 25 seconds left. Guards Greg Gill and Mike Bayderian led the charge with some pinpoint shooting.

Bayderian hit three straight baskets midway through the period and Gill scored his team's final 10 points in the last 2:07 of the game.

BUT SALEM ALWAYS had an answer. Matt Broderick's breakaway basket on a pass from Rick Berberet with 18 seconds remaining put the Rocks back in front by six and assured the win.

Broderick scored nine of his 18 points in the fourth quarter, including the Rocks' last five, and John Cohen came off the bench to contribute 11 points in the period. Cohen netted 14 in the game. Glenn Medalle bagged 12 points for Salem. Berberet had six assists.

Gill, who poured in 24 points in the last quarter, ended with 14. Bayderian had 14 (eight in the fourth quarter) and Grazulis 11. The Rockets' finished the season at 14-8.

"We want to win or go down swinging," said Henry. "We went down swinging."

Leaving Salem still at the plate.

Glenn center Paul Grazulis has nowhere to turn as he's held in check by Salem's Dave Houle and Rick Berberet (far left). Grazulis got in early foul trouble. He finished with 11 points as Salem held on, 76-70.

Maleske, Malone carry Shamrocks by sluggish Eagles

By Brad Emons
staff writer

A one day reprieve wasn't much help for Redford Thurston.

In a neighborhood state tournament battle, host Detroit Catholic Central put all pieces together in a 93-54 district basketball triumph over the Eagles.

The game, which started Wednesday and was suspended until Thursday because of a shattered backboard, drew an overflow crowd of 1,400 fans.

CC's 6-foot-6 Mike Maleske, who caused the delay when his hand accidentally slammed the bottom of the glass, was spectacular in his play both days.

He had six points on Wednesday as CC enjoyed a 16-9 advantage with 7:55 to play in the first half. When play resumed on Thursday, the senior center scored 14 more points to finish with 20, added 17 rebounds and blocked four shots as the Shamrocks ran away from Thurston in the second half.

Maleske, meanwhile, got plenty of help from his teammates, who seemed to do everything right while Thurston did everything wrong.

"WE RAN across a heckuva team," said a disappointed Thurston coach Gary Fralick, whose team finished with an 18-3 record. "They played well, hit the boards well and shot well in the second half."

"The key was their excellent board work both offensively and defensively," Thurston, usually a strong rebounding team, was murdered on the boards, 55-26.

Maleske scored several baskets on offensive rebounds as did 6-4 teammate Tom Malone, who led all scorers with 22 points to go along with 11 rebounds.

basketball

And the Shamrocks beat Thurston at its own game — the fast-break.

Kevin Kral was the chief beneficiary of CC's running attack as he drilled home 15 points.

The play of guards John McIntyre and Stan Heath also helped to ruin Thurston's upset hopes. McIntyre, a sophomore who plays with the poise of a senior, tallied 15 points and added 11 assists. Heath, a quick point-guard, added 10 points and four steals.

"Mac" does an excellent job of pinpointing it (a zone)," said CC coach Bernie Holowicki. "We played well. We were a little down since we lost to Southwestern, but we bounced back tonight."

THURSTON made a slight run at CC on a driving layup by Jim Weiss with 6:41 to play in the second quarter, cutting the lead to 18-13, but Eagles failed to inch any closer.

CC, creating turnovers with its full-court-zone press, led 38-27 at the half and 66-39 at the end of three quarters.

"In spurts — we made turnovers — in parts of the third and fourth quarter," Fralick said. "CC has a lot of quickness. They take away the passing lanes."

George Sibel scored 18 points to lead Thurston. He was nine-for-21 (shooting) from the floor. Senior Steve Smith added 11 and 6-7 junior Dan Starinsky had 10.

And Weiss, a senior 6-4 forward, fouled out near the end of the third quarter and finished with a season-low six points.

Stevenson wins

can stay in there. And that's tribute to him."

ON OF THE keys to Stevenson's victory was the defensive play of Rose, who held Franklin's leading scorer, Mike Johnson to six points.

"We played well enough on the boards, but we did not score consistently enough and we had the opportunities tonight," said Franklin coach Jim McIntyre, whose team bowed out with a 12-10 record. "But I don't want to take anything away from Stevenson. They have talent galore."

Spurs capture Rec title

John Fusica scored 20 points last week to lead the Spurs to a 79-69 victory over Carriage House in the final of the Livonia Parks and Recreation men's A-B playoffs at Holmes Junior High School.

The Spurs, 'B' League champs with a 14-3 record, pulled away from a 52-46 halftime lead against the 'A' League champs for the win.

Fusica got plenty of support as teammates John Schram and Dwayne Cole added 17 and 13 points, respectively.

In the semifinals, the Spurs eliminated Kountoupes, 64-56, while Carriage House ousted Frankie's Lounge, 71-57.

Other members of the championship team include Joe Schram, Mike Johnston, Blaine Anderson, Charles Karabell and coach Doug Merta.

Cabernet names can be confusing

It is one of life's rules that man is less than wholly consistent in most things.

Each day we see evidence of this, and in the making and naming of California wines we have a clear example that must drive a lot of consumers a bit frantic at times.

The laws governing what constitute the production of an American wine are very carefully spelled out in legislation that became effective Jan. 1 of this year. The law is specific about what kinds and amounts of grapes may be used (75 percent of the varietal named) as well as about identifying the location of the vineyard.

As in France, the smaller the region described (Charlie's Chateau in the back yard) the more prestigious. Charlie's spot is a classier location than Anderson Valley, Mendocino County, the North Coast, California or America, in that order.

AND THE WAY the wine came into being ("grown," "bottled," "cellared," "produced," etc.), all have very specific definitions, and the declared alcohol level must not be greater than 1 percent in error. The vintage date assures that 95 percent of the wine in the bottle was grown that year.

And so it goes.

But when it comes to the matter of qualifying the nature of, say, the cabernet sauvignon in the bottle, there are no laws and a few rules. For example, Charles Krug regularly issues a vintage-dated cabernet and also releases one called Vintage Selection and charges 50-70 percent more for the latter. Sterling issues a "Reserve," so does Mondavi. Phelps has a release called "Insignia."

Others use terms such as Special Selection, Cask, Proprietor's Reserve, i.e., they can use any set of phrases that mean nothing inherently to describe that particular bottle quality.

Presumably these wines are a reflection of the winemaker's best shot that year. Never mind how it compares with last year's regular issue. It could wine

Richard

be less good. But, if the image is to be maintained, the price must be at least a third higher than a standard issue. A double is not unusual.

Some of these issues are well worth the price. Some are probably not, at least every year. That is not the issue. What is important to know is that the only assurance you have before dropping $15-35 for such an issue is the reputation of that winemaker and our faith in it.

WHILE THE EXAMPLES have concerned cabernet only, the same set of rules apply to any other wine. They are used as a rule only with the more prestigious grapes, however.

But there is a "Catch 22" about to enter our state. A new and extremely promising winery from Sonoma, the Glen Ellen Winery, will soon be marketed here and two of its issues violate the rules. It will probably send out some very fine cabernet, chardonnay and sauvignon blanc, and we will be lucky to get them. However, it also will release a Dry Red Proprietor's Reserve and a White Proprietor's Reserve and both are frankly jug wines — high quality jug wines (made of cabernet and French colombar respectively) to be sure.

However, to call them "Proprietor's Reserve" means they have turned around the usual labeling practice.

What is a customer to do?

Luckily, winemakers for the most part can be trusted (and it is usually the marketing people who do the exploiting), and, in the case of the two Glen Ellens, these wines are very good indeed.

Let's have another glass and think about that.

At the Boar's Head

Peter G. Thomson is Prince Hal, who cavorts with Tim Caudle as Sir John Falstaff and Kay Towne as Mistress Quickly, at the Boar's Head Tavern in "Henry IV, Part I." The Shakespearean play, first of a trilogy celebrating the deeds of Henry V, continues in repertory through April 1 at the Hilberry Theatre at Wayne State University, Detroit. Tickets are available at the WSU theater box office, Cass and Hancock, phone 577-2972.

At Honey Tree

Jose Riojas plays music for listening from 6:30-11 p.m. Thursdays and 7:30 p.m. to midnight Fridays-Saturdays at the Honey Tree, 28990 Orchard Lake Road, Farmington Hills. Open seven days a week, Honey Tree offers American and Greek cuisine. Cocktails are served.

Gospel musical to open 2-week stay at the Fisher

The gospel musical "Your Arms Too Short to Box with God" opens a two-week run Tuesday, with an option for an extra week, at the Fisher Theatre in Detroit.

This new production of Vinette Carroll's hit Broadway musical stars Patti LaBelle, direct from her Broadway engagement.

For ticket prices and performance times call 872-1000.

The gospel show was presented three times on Broadway, in 1976, 1980 and 1982, and twice in Detroit at the Music Hall.

Jon Voight is J.P. Tannen, a divorced father, who tries to become closer to his three children by taking them on a Mediterranean cruise in "Table for Five."

the movies
Louise Snider

Tears may flow watching cloying 'Table for Five'

"Table for Five" (PG) is a soggy, sentimental sponge of a movie. It's about as sincere and exciting as a commercial for dandruff shampoo. At best, the movie is a third-rate "Kramer vs. Kramer" with Jon Voight as a father learning to be a father.

Voight is divorced. His three children (one of them adopted) live with his ex-wife (Millie Perkins) who has remarried. Her second husband (Richard Crenna) is a conscientious and loving father to his stepchildren. Along comes Voight who decides that he should play a more meaningful role in the lives of his children and not just be an occasional visitor.

He wants to get closer to his children, but it is clear he doesn't know how. It is also clear he will have a problem since he still has not mastered being an adult.

His idea of getting close to the children is to take them on a Mediterranean cruise for their vacation and insist they have fun. Well, you don't have to be a kid to know that when someone keeps insisting, "We're going to have fun," the one thing you can be sure of is that you're not going to have any fun.

AFTER SOME skirmishes with all three, he gives up the father role and decides to be their friend. The parenting business conflicts with his lifestyle.

The kids catch on to him quickly and quickly size up the limits of his commitment. Voight feels he has exercised his father-friend duties by playing with the kids when he feels like it.

When he doesn't feel like it, when he wants to go out, for example, and pick up someone at the ship's bar, he expects the kids to be content to quietly stay in their rooms.

It comes as no surprise then to find that the big question this movie asks is, "Can he change?" Can he become a nurturing, responsible father? Nor is it a surprise to find that the question is answered affirmatively.

Actually, "Table for Five" might have been more interesting, and certainly more surprising, if the answer were negative. It would have been a novelty if he found he couldn't change. Better yet, if he admitted that he didn't want to change, that he wanted to continue being a selfish, immature individual, and that the kids were a drag.

LET'S LOOK at them. The youngest is a cute little guy who has nightmares and a reading problem. The middle child is a girl, "wise beyond her years." She's the adult always admonishing him.

The eldest, the adopted son from the Philippines, is a surly teenager whenever he is not plugged into some circuitry. When we first see him, he is sitting on the floor of his bedroom, wearing headphones, watching television and playing a hand-held computer game.

So there is Voight with one malcontent, one nagger and one learning-disabled kid, when he learns his ex-wife and the family dog were killed in an auto accident.

We are spared seeing his ex-wife's mangled body, but we do get a look at the fatally injured dog as he gamely tries to get up from the wet pavement.

David Seltzer, who wrote this shameless, cloying script, will go to any length to wrench a tear from an audience. His past credits include, "The Other Side of the Mountain" (about Jill Kinmont, the skier who became paralyzed in an accident) and "Six Weeks" (about a child with a terminal illness).

Knowing this, if you still want to see "Table for Five," take your Kleenex and your chances.

Tannen dances aboard ship with his daughter Tilde (Roxana Zal), who is "wise beyond her years."

what's at the movies

CURTAINS (R). The ultimate nightmare is behind the curtain. Stars John Vernon, Samantha Eggar and Linda Thorson.

THE DARK CRYSTAL (PG). Adventure-fantasy by creators of the Muppets features strange, elf-like creatures caught up in a struggle between the forces of good and evil in setting that resembles J.R.R. Tolkien's Middle Earth.

THE ENTITY (R). Barbara Hershey stars as a woman who experiences the terror of an of an unknown presence intent on possessing both her body and soul.

48 HOURS (R). Action drama with comic flair features Nick Nolte and Eddie Murphy as a white cop and a black con who are forced to work together to track down two killers.

FRANCES (R). Powerful drama with Jessica Lange as Frances Farmer, the film actress whose independence and radical views led to a tragic downfall.

GANDHI (PG). Epic film about Mahatma Gandhi, political and spiritual leader who led movement for Indian independence from Britain. Magnificent performance by Ben Kingsley as Gandhi.

LOVESICK (PG). Dudley Moore and Elizabeth McGovern star in this contemporary romantic comedy. Moore is a prominent psychiatrist who falls in love with his new patient, McGovern.

THE MAN FROM SNOWY RIVER (PG). Handsome adventure film from Australia presents mountain boy's passage into manhood. Kirk Douglas plays double role as two feuding brothers. Newcomer Tom Burlinson has title role.
