State clears way for remediation of park

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

It's official — Westland and Wayne County have received state approval for plans to begin remediation of Central City Park.

"It's really remarkable news. Everyone here has been working on this for a long time," said Mayor William Wild, who ordered the park fenced off due to contamination shortly after taking office in January

"It's good to show people there has been some real progress," said Alan Helmkamp, assistant Wayne County executive, who credited the cooperative efforts of city and county officials in getting the project approved.

Wayne County is hoping the remediation project, which is expected to take a few months, can get under way this spring.

While the first phase of remediation plans was being developed and working its way through the process of negotiation to reach approval by the Department of Natural Resources and Environment, the county was also developing a Request for Proposals for the project.

"It's completed on our end. We will need EPA (federal Environmental Protection Agency) approval because brownfield money will be used — that is part of what Wayne County is bringing to the table," Helmkamp said. "We are hoping for a quick turnaround from the EPA."

The first-phase remediation would address environmental problems on the 12 acres at the east end of the park. The plan calls for installation of a geo-textile membrane, 12 inches of fresh soil and other landscaping to prevent park users from coming into contact with contaminated soil. Other areas would be covered by asphalt or concrete.

Aidan Beroff warms up for the hoedown by doing the Bunny Hop.

Hoedown marks 30th year of family dancing

Adults and children did the Bunny Hop, the Virginia Reel and other square dances as part of the recent annual Family Hoedown at the Bailey Recreation Center.

Close to 30 dances followed the commands of caller Mike Brennan during the 30th installment of dance.

"They even did the Chicken Dance as squares," recreation Supervisor Margaret Martin said. "Everyone who came had a good time."

Youngsters received a cowboy hat and "were deputized for the night," Martin said. There also were complimentary photographs by the Steve Allen Studio, cookies and punch, goodie bags and games in which adults had to catch the cowboy hat their date tossed through a lasso and youngsters had to retrieve a prize hidden in a cowboy hat under a parachute.

The hoedown is one of two adult-child dances the recreation department hosts as a prelude to Valentine's Day. Little girls dressed up in their finest for the Princess Ball, held the day after the hoedown.

"All the kids seemed to have a great time," Martin said.

For more than two decades, to sounds of a hoedown has filled the Bailey Recreation Center. A favorite Valentine's activity, the Family Hoedown brings together as adults and children who try their hand at square dancing. Getting in the swing of things at this year's event is Joyce Brooks and her grandson Wesley Brooks.

Juliana Johnson shows off the cowboy hat and badge she received at the hoedown.

W-W spending cuts trims 2009-10 losses

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

The Wayne-Westland Community Schools will hang on to more of its fund equity this year by spending less, but that won't be enough to offset anticipated funding cuts next year.

"The governor made it very clear, the state has a $1.7 billion hole in its budget and schools are going to share in the loss," Supt. Greg Baracy said. "School funding is short and revenue losses are expected to continue. We expect a $400 (per pupil) loss in part because of the increase in retirement costs."

Baracy's comments came as the school board approved a revised 2009-10 budget which has the district receiving $579,000 less than anticipated in revenues and spending $2.2 million less. The bottom line is a fund balance of $5.3 million as opposed to the $2.05 million budgeted last June.

According to Gary Martin, deputy superintendent of administrative and business services, the City digs out from first big snowfall of winter

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

City workers expected to have subdivision streets cleared by midnight Wednesday as Westland continued digging out from a winter storm that dumped more than eight inches of snow over the metro area.

The snow emergency, triggered by six inches of snowfall, was declared at 8 p.m. Tuesday night and initially slated to end at 8 p.m. Wednesday. Under city ordinance, no vehicles can be parked on city streets until the snow emergency is lifted.

Department of Public Services crews worked over night Tuesday into Wednesday clearing major thoroughfares in the city. Late Wednesday morning, the crews began working on subdivision streets.

"We'll work continuously until 11:30 p.m. or midnight and we'll get the majority of the city cleared tonight. We won't work through the night again," DPS Director Kevin Buford said. "We have every piece of equipment out there and all of our guys working, even a couple of building inspectors."

Although the Westland Faust Library closed early Tuesday due to the storm, all city facilities were open Wednesday.

Police seek duo who took coaxial cable

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Westland police are looking for information about thieves who stole two spools of coaxial cable from a local business.

The cable, valued at $6,660, was reported stolen Feb. 5, but had actually been taken more than two weeks earlier from T-Mobile at 400 Manufacturing Drive.

"The company didn't know the cable was missing. They found empty spools and checked their surveillance video," Sgt. Steve Borisich said.

The surveillance video showed a van or SUV driving along the north side of the building. The suspects, both wearing hoods, apparently jumped the fence to get to the cable, which was stored on large spools outside the building.

"They were there 2 1/2 hours. They cut the cable into three-foot lengths and threw it over the fence, then loaded it into the vehicle," Borisich said. He added the thieves could be seen using a hacksaw to cut the cable.

The thieves apparently visited the business Jan. 13 and Jan. 16 between 11:30 p.m. and 2:30 a.m. The company is no longer storing the cable outside.

Used at cellular communications towers, the 1.5-inch coaxial cable or coax is an electrical cable with two inner layers of copper. That makes it attractive to thieves who sell the stolen cable to scrap metal dealers, Borisich said.

The cable does carry a serial number which could make it identifiable, Borisich said, but due to the time lapse in the theft being reported, the cable had likely already been stripped and the copper melted down.

BUDGET

biggest loss this budget year has been the $165 per pupil cut in state school aid. The district had budgeted for $88.7 million in state funding, but now expects to receive $83.9 million.

However, a higher pupil count brought in an additional $843,000. The district added 106 pupils to its enrollment, bringing this year's count to 12,893 students.

Martin told the school board that expenditures are up $279,000 for salaries and benefits, due to the higher enrollment. The district's Workers Compensation Insurance also is up almost $100,000. However, the district will spend $280,000 less for utilities and $168,000 for supplies, purchased services and capital outlays.

The revised budget leaves the district with a fund equity that's less than 5 percent of expenditures.

"It's the lowest it's been since 1995-96, it's enough for about two weeks — 17 days — of operations," Martin said. "And this is happening all over the state. We're receiving $11 million less in funding than four years ago."

The governor's proposed budget is due out today, and Baracy said Wayne-Westland officials are prepared to work with lawmakers on solving the state's financial problems.

"There's an awful lot of work to be done in Lansing," he said. "We will do whatever we can and work with the Legislature so we can solve this structural problem once and for all."

"It seems like every message out of Lansing gets worse," school board Trustee William Gabriel said.

"It (the first-phase remediation) was approved with suggestions. They want us to measure the methane gas in the trenches. We'll try to implement that," Helmkamp said. "I'm having it costed out now. We'll follow through. We're taking their suggestions to heart."

Wayne County owns the park and leased it to Westland on a 30-year lease which expired in 1978, although the arrangement has been continued.

"The city built and operated the park. We've continued that on an extension. That's one of the things we need to figure out — the ownership, maintenance and operation of the park," Helmkamp said.

The county has spent more than $800,000 in recent years on the extensive environmental investigation required by the state and professional services needed to prepare the plans, Helmkamp said.

The first-phase remediation is expected to cost $1.5 million, funded in part through brownfield money and $200,000 in county park millage funds.

The city is seeking a $350,000 grant from the DNRE with a $150,000 local match to fund restoration of Central City Park. The plan would include a walking path, large pavilion, concession stands and soccer fields. Public comments on the grant application will be taken at the city council meeting that begins at 7 p.m. Tuesday at City Hall.

Wayne County had used the park property to dispose of catch basin cleanings and street sweepings between the 1940s and 1970s. Westland (formerly Nankin Township) also used portions of the property for landfilling activities in the 1950s. These materials, along with additional fill material deposited in the area from an unidentified source, are contaminated primarily with lead. Photographs taken in 1971 documented extensive illegal landfilling practices and the presence of numerous 55-gallons drums.

When he announced the remediation plan approval was imminent, Wild noted the efforts of Council President James Godbout and Parks and Recreation Director Robert Kosowski.

"We got all of the parking lots cleared, so everything is open," Buford said. "I noticed last night some business, restaurants, closed early, too. No one was there."

As the crews moved into subdivisions, Buford said he and other staff would be knocking on doors to enforce the parking ban, if vehicles are found on the street.

"It makes it tough to clear the streets (with vehicles parked on the street). On some of our narrower streets, like in Norwayne, our trucks can't get through if there are two vehicles parked on the street," Buford said. "There are dead end streets and we have to back out. It's difficult driving those big trucks. It's for the safety of our guys, but also to let us do the best job we can."

Once a snow emergency is declared, police can begin ticketing vehicles left on the street. Local television and radio stations, along with WLND, are notified once a snow emergency goes into effect. It's also announced on the city Web site and through Nixle alerts.

"We put it out anywhere we can. When the kids are home on a snow day, people should realize there is a snow emergency," Buford said.

Tickets can also be issued to people who put snow in the street while clearing their driveways and sidewalks — it's a violation of city ordinance.

"They are not supposed to blow snow into the road — they need to blow to either side of their driveway," Buford said.

This has been the first winter Westland has used a brine application on city streets as part of its snow removal program.

"We've used the brine three times and it has worked very well. It definitely has cut down on the time our guys have been out plowing," Buford said. "The brine is put down before the snow falls and that has made it easier to clear the street. It has helped us tremendously and we're using tons of less salt."

It's Blizzard time: DQ opens for season

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Bar Dekle is all about celebrating and she's not about to let a little bit of snow get in the way. The owner of the Dairy Queen of Garden City, Dekle is opening the soft serve hot spot for the season this afternoon.

"I'm shooting for 1 p.m. All the crew is coming back," Dekle said.

Dekle has been in the store on Ford east of Merriman over the last month, getting ready for the season that's sure to please fans of the Blizzard. The tasty treat is celebrating its 25th anniversary and throughout the season there will be special Blizzard offers on the 25th of every month.

Of course, there's a lot more than just that to celebrate this year. Dairy Queen itself turns 70 this year, and Dekle is marking her 35th year as owner of the Garden City store.

"It's fun, it keeps me young," she said.

The Blizzard celebration kicks off Feb. 25 with a buy one Blizzard get one for 25 cents. April 19-25, it will be buy a Blizzard for 25 cents. If your birthday is on the 25th of the month, you can buy a Blizzard for $1.25.

In addition to the specials, Dairy Queen is bringing back the top 25 Blizzard flavors for the year. They include Oreo, cookie dough, Oreo cheesequake, Reese's peanut butter cup, Butterfinger, Snickers, Heath, banana cream pie, strawberry cheesequake and banana split, chocolate cherry, Hawaiian, chocolate-covered strawberry, raspberry truffle, chocolate Xtreme, turtle pecan cluster and Georgia mud fudge.

"Banana split is the number five seller at our store," Dekle said. "My husband loves the raspberry truffle. Heath was his favorite until the raspberry truffle came out. I have so many I like, but of these, raspberry truffle is my favorite. It's refreshing, but still has the sweetness of a truffle."

Regulars will notice a few changes around the store. The exterior of the building is getting a makeover. It has a new blue color, LED lights around the building and up lights that highlight the blue trim. A new sign is due to arrive by the end of the month. Inside, the floor in the main part of the store has new tile.

Dekle's longevity as the owner is reflected in her crew. On average, she has 16 employees. Most started working for her when they were 14-15 and have stayed on.

"Sometimes I hire more so I have some for next year in case a few leave," Dekle said.

Both Jonathan Sobieski and Stephanie Hanson started working for Dekle when they were 14. Sobieski is starting his sixth season, Hanson has been there 10 years.

"It's an easy place to work. If wasn't for the people, I wouldn't be here," Sobieski said. "I've done everything from making the ice cream, to cleaning and filling. The worst was pulling the weeds. I had to do that my first and second year."

"Like Jon said, it's pretty easy, the pay is good and nobody else is hiring," said Hanson, whom Dekle describes as her "premo cake decorator." "I like it most of the time, except when we get 40-50 cakes around Mother's Day."

Unable to add a drive-through window on the building, Dekle has a twist on quick service. Call in an order ahead and save 10 percent. Employees from Garden City Hospital, the police and fire departments take advantage of the quick service.

"We've had people park on Ford Road, park on the grass, even a bus driver stopped for ice cream," Hanson said.

For the first week, the Dairy Queen will be open until 8 p.m. The hours will start expanding as the weather gets warmer. Closing will be 9:30 p.m. while school's in session and 10 p.m. on weekends.

The state's sour economy has had an impact, but business is still up. Last year, Dekle made 0.5 percent more than the previous year.

"It's a happy product that we sell," she said. "It's better than a burger and fries and is 95 percent fat free."

So if you're ready to kick the winter blahs, stop by the Dairy Queen or order ahead by calling (734) 427-7850.

Report: Alarm scares off would-be thief

Break-in
 1 Police were called to the 28000 block of Powers Feb. 6 after a resident reported someone had broken into her garage. The resident said the detached garage had a security alarm which had been activated for the night. Hearing the alarm, the woman said she looked out the window and saw an unknown person wearing a dark green jacket with a fur-lined hood exit the garage.
 The suspect ran north through the back yard, she said. Nothing was reported to be missing.
 The officer found the garage door was open with damage to the jamb and interior trim.
 A police dog tracked the suspect and stopped in the rear yard of a home in the 28000 block of Powers, police said. The officer talked with two teens who live at the home but didn't locate a suspect.
 When the officer returned to update the homeowner, it was discovered that someone had pried open a lock on a neighbor's shed, police said. The resident told police he stored work tools in the shed but nothing appeared to be missing.

Larceny from a building
 2 Police were called to Krusty's Pizza, 28985 Joy, Feb. 4 after an employee reported that a man had helped himself to money from a tip jar on the counter. After noticing the jar, which had several dollars in it earlier, was empty, the employee checked the business surveillance video which reportedly showed a man taking the money when no one was looking.
 The employee reportedly identified the man as a resident of the Mohawk Trailer Park. The man had paid for his pizza with a credit card and his trailer number was located, police said. No one answered the door when the officer attempted to talk with the man. The officer left a citation on the trailer door after the trailer park manager indicated the man was inside but wouldn't open the door for police.
 Several hours later, an officer spotted the man driving on Joy near the trailer park, police said. After he was stopped, the man admitted taking $2 from the tip jar, police said. He was alerted to the citation and told not to return to Krusty's Pizza.

Larceny
 3 A Ypsilanti man told police Feb. 6 that someone had stolen a gas meter from a multi-family unit that is under construction in the 2000 block of Eastport. The meter was last seen Jan. 30. The gas was turned off and the units unoccupied before the meter, valued at $350, was stolen.
 The owner told police that someone had stolen tools from the location a week earlier.
Flag missing
 A resident in the 1500 block of John Hix told police Feb. 8 that she heard a loud noise about 4 a.m. and looked outside but didn't see anything amiss. The next morning, she reported that someone had broken her 12-foot flag pole and stolen her U.S. flag. The loss was estimated at $150.

Police investigate reported robberies at Wendy's and Sprint

Armed robberies
 4 A reported robbery at 6:30 p.m. Feb. 4 at the Sprint store at 173 N. Inkster marked the second reported robbery in that area in less than a week. The Wendy's restaurant at 123 N. Inkster was reportedly robbed at about 9:14 p.m. Jan. 29.
 At the Sprint store, when an employee left to get change from the gas station across the street, a thief reportedly entered and held up another store employee.
 "What up, homeboy?" asked the man as he reportedly pulled out a black semi-automatic pistol.
 The employee put his hands up and stepped away from the counter, allowing the man to walk around the counter and steal money from the cash register, police said.

GARDEN CITY COP CALLS
 There were no customers in the Sprint store.
 Garden City Police reportedly found a "live" bullet near the counter which they confiscated. Police believe it fell out of the suspect's gun.
 The suspect was described as a 30-year-old man who had a black mask covering his face. He wore white gloves and light brown boots. The hood of his blue hoodie was pulled over his head.
 In the Wendy's robbery, the suspect reportedly jumped over the counter of the restaurant and demanded money. He also reportedly drew a black, semi-automatic gun from his coat, stole currency from the register and ran out of the store.

 A police officer along with K9 Deuce set up a track which ended in the 170 block of Arcola, police said.
 The Wendy's suspect is described as a black man, in his mid-30s, almost 6 feet tall and about 190 pounds. The hood of his coat was pulled over his head, with a scarf wrapped around his face. He was dressed in black with a thigh-length coat.
Retail fraud
 5 Alert employees at Orin Jewelers at Ford Road and Middlebelt helped police capture an alleged shoplifter about 11:30 a.m. Jan. 26.
 The suspect was described as a short, elderly woman, 60-70 years old, who was cool and collected at the store when she asked to see a pair of $3,500 earrings, police said. The employee who was waiting on her reportedly said that she turned to get a calculator and when she turned back around the earrings, which were on the counter, were gone.

 The customer said that she didn't take the earrings. The employees noted later that she kept her purse on the floor and not on the counter, police said.
 The woman reportedly left shortly after in a blue SUV. Police used license plate information provided by store employees to locate the woman in Dearborn Heights.
Identity theft
 A man who lives in the 31200 block of Hennepin reported Feb. 3 that someone stole his identity and opened and maxed out — at $3,000 each — credit card accounts in his name. The accounts were all opened Jan. 25. A Target account was opened in Southfield, a Walmart account in Dearborn, a JCPenny account in Troy. A Lowe's account was denied.

 The thief reportedly used phone numbers from four years ago.
Drunken driving
 6 Police arrested a 21-year-old Westland woman for drunken driving after they reportedly stopped her when she tried to turn from the wrong lane.
 She had just left Albert's on the Alley on Middlebelt about 2:30 a.m. Feb. 3 and was in the wrong lane eastbound on Ford Road, trying to get to the McDonald's Restaurant, south of Ford Road, police said.

 The woman said that she drank two Long Island iced teas during a 90-minute period and subsequently registered a .17 blood alcohol level which is twice the legal limit, police said.
 She told the police that the reason she couldn't balance herself well during the sobriety tests was because she was wearing high heels, police said. The officer asked if she had flat shoes she could change into and she said she only had heels in the car.

Smokey's Rib and Fish House co-owner Frank Muger poses in the restaurant.

Smokey's puts flavor in barbecue

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A restaurant focusing on barbecue has opened on Ford and the name says it all — Smokey's Rib and Fish House.

"The menu mostly focuses on ribs, pulled pork and prime rib, chicken and fish," said Frank Muger, who co-owns the restaurant with Chris and Dario Tomei.

Unlike Knockouts, the establishment it replaced, Smokey's focus is on food, Muger said.

"The ribs are the best items on the menu. The response has been very good since we opened. We really focus on dining," said Muger, adding there was quite a bit of remodeling at the restaurant before it opened in late November.

While this is the first time Muger has owned a restaurant,

Music memorabilia decorates the walls at Smokey's Rib and Fish House.

he has previous experience in the food industry having worked at Papa Joe's and Montana's Restaurant.

Smokey's does have a liquor license, so drinks can be ordered with meals. The restaurant also features two big screen televisions for patrons who like to watch television while enjoying a meal.

Located at 36980 Ford, nearly opposite the Westland police station, Smokey's is open daily at 4 p.m. The restaurant closes at 10 p.m. weekdays and is open until 11 p.m. on the weekend.

For small businesses

Wayne County Airport Authority (WCAA), operator of Detroit Metropolitan Airport (DTW) and Willow Run Airport (YIP), hopes to engage the talent and resources of more local, small businesses through a Small Business Opportunity Forum 8 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. Tuesday, Feb. 23, in the L.C. Smith Building (former check-in lobby area) at DTW.

The Forum will focus on becoming a WCAA certified Small Business Enterprise as well as upcoming contract opportunities and proposal development techniques for SBEs.

"The Airport Authority's mission includes creating economic vitality in the region we serve; and our commitment to Small Business Enterprises is a high priority for our organization," said WCAA CEO Lester Robinson. "We are passionate about certifying more small businesses and having them participate in Airport Authority business opportunities."

The Small Business Opportunity Forum will kick off with a continental breakfast followed by testimonials from small businesses that have experienced success in providing goods and services to WCAA. Several WCAA division representatives will also share information about anticipated contract opportunities with the Airport Authority.

From 10 a.m. to noon, participants will have a chance to network with key WCAA staff members. Additionally, outside organizations that offer business support services such as insurance, bonding and financing/lending will also be in attendance. The forum will conclude with a workshop that includes tips on preparing quality proposals.

This Small Business Opportunity Forum builds on the Airport Authority's established Small Business Enterprise Program launched in 2008. Small businesses with headquarters in Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw or Wayne counties are eligible to become WCAA SBE certified. Details regarding this program can be found online at www.metroairport.com/business/SBEPProgram.asp.

Space is limited, so reservations are encouraged by Feb. 12. Complimentary parking will be provided to participants who reserve a spot in advance.

For more details about the forum and to reserve your spot, contact the WCAA Procurement Division at (734) 247-7900.

LOCAL OPINION

online at hometownlife.com

Our fundamental purposes are to enhance the lives of our readers, nurture the hometowns we serve and contribute to the business success of our customers.

OUR VIEWS

The Westland Observer was there when sisters Joyce Bornholdt and Donna Prieskorn, both breast cancer survivors, helped kick off Westland's Painting the Town Pink.

Newspaper investment enhances local lives

For the last couple of years, as Michigan's economy continues to tank and businesses everywhere have struggled, we have covered the efforts of local retailers to get people to "shop local" in an attempt to get our readers to spend their dollars to help local businesses get through and hopefully thrive in tough economic times.

It's not only our sincerest desire to help those most invested in our local communities, it's at the heart of our credo to help our readers and our advertisers — our businesses — to prosper in the communities in which they work and live.

For more than three decades, the Westland Observer has been proud and honored to develop a relationship with the community we serve. We are the hometown newspaper of record for your successes, your good news and bad.

It's our role to be the community watchdog, to keep an eye on the city council and board of education you elect, to watch them as they protect you, serve you and spend your money. We've been there to chronicle state championships, academic achievements, business successes. We're at festivals and community events like the Westland Summer Festival, Relay for Life and Painting the Town Pink, meetings and games.

If you doubt we're your hometown newspaper, look around and count the other media bringing your good news to the community. We publish births, weddings and anniversaries. We cover the ups and downs of our towns.

We're at football games Fridays in the fall, baseball games in the spring. We're at school board meetings and town hall gatherings. We're at band concerts and school plays. We provide the stories and photographs that end up on your refrigerators, hung there with a magnet for all to see. Our stories and photos end up in scrapbooks, preserved for posterity.

We use our editorial voice to shape the debate in our communities and, through our Letters to the Editor, provide readers with a voice of their own. In recent years, we've added a Web component (www.hometownlife.com), which not only updates your communities on a daily basis, but provides yet another forum for discussion.

We've been privileged and proud to play this role in our communities for years. It's always been a mutually beneficial relationship — our stories and photos supply our readers with memories, and our pages are a proven advertising vehicle that drives customers into local businesses.

But here's a message that sometimes gets forgotten: We're a local business, too.

We depend on the support not only of our advertisers, but of our readers. The Westland Observer has been successful at carrying your advertising message, but the only way we can continue that success is if you continue to advertise with us. Likewise, we're happy and proud to provide the refrigerator- and scrapbook-worthy stories of which memories are made. But we can't do that without a subscription base that keeps the engine running.

We understand times are tough. But times are tough in our industry, as well, and there's only one way to make sure the Westland Observer is still around in another 30 years, and that's to invest in it, through your advertisements and your subscriptions.

An investment in the Observer is an investment in your memories, good government, good schools, local business and your lives.

A valuable resource

I do not know how many people are aware of a valuable resource right here in the city of Westland. The Westland Easytalkers Toastmasters Club is here to assist people to overcome the fear of public speaking, hone their skills and provide leadership training.

Toastmasters International is an international organization with a mission to help people who wish to improve their career opportunities. The membership of Toastmasters is a diverse group of people from different walks of life, occupations and backgrounds.

The Westland Easytalkers Toastmasters Club meets at 6:45 p.m. every Thursday at the Bailey Center, located behind Westland City Hall. The club is not limited to Westland residents. Anyone is welcome. For information, call Bill at (734) 306-3980 or Curt at (734) 525-8445.

Fiscal responsibility

Welcome to the new members of Westland City Council. Your mission as newly voted in council members is to show the people that voted you in that city council will function better with fiscal responsibility. If we the people have to stretch pennies during these hard times, city council should learn to do the same.

The Jan. 4 City Council Motion 1010-01-05 includes spending $50,441 on a new GMC Hybrid Yukon to replace a 2000 Yukon. This does not sound fiscally responsible. I'm sure city council could find a better less expensive model that will fit the bill than a Hybrid Yukon.

Why is city council approving a purchase of Hybrid Yukon when during these tough economic times citizens have to make due with bare minimums at our dinner table? Why are we still offering car allowances for city officials during these tough economic times? Why not just offer paying mileage for use with their private car like most competitive American companies do? Is this why many Westland citizens are having our property taxes raised to pay for this?

I have a 10-year-old Ford Sable with more than 108,000 miles that I drive for business and with proper maintenance practices, I'm sure I will be able to get another 100,000 miles out of this good old American-made product.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

We welcome your Letter to the Editor. Please include your name, address and phone number for verification. We ask your letters be 400 words or less. We may edit for clarity, space and content. Submit letters via the following formats.

Web: www.hometownlife.com
E-mail: smason@hometownlife.com
Blog: You may also let your opinions be heard with your own blog at hometownlife.com.
Deadline: Letters must be received by 9 a.m. Monday to be published in the Thursday edition.

Look, during these tough economic times the city council should act with more fiscal responsibility. Many companies are cutting corners by cutting wages, company cars, cutting operating costs and even layoffs. You the city council asked to be voted in. Now here is your chance to show the voters you will act responsibly with our tax dollars.

At the company I work for, I have found ways to cut 50 percent to 70 percent cost from vendor purchases just by doing simple cost comparing research and analyzing product efficiencies. Fifty percent to 70 percent cost savings from just looking online and having vendors line up and compete for by business. Businesses are hurting right now and they are willing to reduce their prices to stay in business. In our present business climate, if you're not getting the best deal for your dollar, you're not doing your job.

May I remind you there are many qualified educated people out of work that would gladly work for less than what we pay some of our city officials. The San Antonio, Texas, city council members are a great example of fiscally responsible government. The city council members only get paid $20 per week.

I agree with Mayor Dave Bing, who says, "Folks in government ... had this entitlement attitude that says, 'It's always been this way. It's always going to be this way.'" I challenge our new city council members to change this attitude. Do your homework, stop unnecessary spending, reduce high salaries and departmental waste. Let's keep Westland fiscally sound. Westland citizens will be watching.

Corporatist states

All doubt, as if any really existed, about whose corner the Republican Party stands in has now been removed. Mitch McConnell, Senate Minority leader from Kentucky and long an opponent of the people, was unabashedly giddy, almost unable to contain his joy.

Now the downtrodden, beleaguered corporations would finally, after all these years, be able to emerge from the darkness and fully claim the final most important blessing of full citizenship in this democracy; one that they so richly deserve and have been denied: freedom of speech. John Boehner, Republican from Ohio and House Minority leader, similarly elated and obviously moved, in a cracking voice stated as tears seemingly welled up in his eyes, "It's high time, this a victory for the First Amendment."

They were acting as if some grand initiative that would really help humankind like "peace in our time" or "an end to disease and poverty" had been achieved instead of what really had happened. The Republican leadership and most of their brethren were celebrating something really monumental: the facilitating of the entire hijacking of the electoral process by big money, the corporations of America and yes, the rest of the world; so much for "We the People" and "one man, one vote." Welcome to the Corporatist States of America!

According to Republicans, some solace for Dems should be that organized labor will also benefit from this new degree of enfranchisement, knowing full well that this will more likely be the death-knell for unions. The expansion of the so-called "right to work," the subsequent insourcing of foreign-based auto companies and suppliers without requiring that they pay the going rate in wages and benefits and the outsourcing of American jobs is already killing one of the few advocates for the people's interests and the interests of the middle class that still exists, big labor.

Today unions represent only 10 percent of American workers and miss the clout they once enjoyed that enabled them to boost wages, benefits and working conditions for all Americans, not just those in unions. Thanks to Republican-based facilitation, labor now lacks the resources needed to defend itself against the corporatist-funded electoral onslaught.

This is a conservative Republican gift that will keep on giving, courtesy of Reagan and the Bushes and the justices they appointed.

ONLINE VOICES & VIEWS

The following are excerpts from readers participating in our online forum for discussing issues. In Your Voices, on the Web at hometownlife.com.

• On limiting comments

I think the citizens are tired of the Council Watchers. I would love to be able to understand how they justify wasting the time of everyone at the council meetings.

Judy McKinny definitely can not stand President Godbout. She is so arrogant when she gets in front of the microphone. She says nothing and complains constantly. She is always telling people to join her, it's their right. Did it ever dawn on her, that people only get up in front of council when they have something to say? Dewitt is like a broken record. What part of the word "estimate" does she not understand? Lastly, Swistek and Davis have issues. Lots of them.

I am sure that if someone has problems with the city, the council will listen to them longer than 3 minutes. People can still write, call and e-mail all these council people.

Westlander

Finally! Now I only have to suffer through approximately 21 minutes of inane babble by the local self appointed "council meeting celebrities." Getting 1,000 votes in a election of a city that's more than 80,000 or so, does not make a speaker for "the people of Westland." I would have suggested the suspending the televised meeting altogether. Just my 2 cents worth

Azgoodazitgetz

I agree! If you watched the last meeting where they were protesting the reduction of time, they made the best case for why it should be reduced. They stood up there and made a mockery of the allotted time. They were all done well before 3 minutes were up but just rambled on to fill up the remaining time (something they do on a regular basis). One even went into a countdown of the seconds left to use up all of her time

Keeping investments in balance is key to success

Over the last few weeks, I've been to the Troy, Royal Oak and Sterling Heights public libraries speaking about investing. Unlike many seminars for investors, mine are meant to be educational and not designed to sell you something. Unfortunately, too many seminars geared toward investors are all too often the hard sell.

Money Matters
Rick Bloom

That being said, one issue I discussed at recent seminars was the importance of rebalancing one's portfolio. During one discussion, a gentleman mentioned he was using an adviser to manage his portfolio. However, during the four years he has dealt with the adviser, his portfolio was never rebalanced. The question was how often he should rebalance and what should he do about his adviser.

As to the adviser, the first question is whether the adviser is paid. In this case, he is. In fact, the investor is paying this adviser 1 1/2 percent to manage his account (1 1/2 percent is at the high end to manage an account).

My next question is what are you paying him for? The gentleman answered he was paying the adviser to watch his account. I believe when an adviser commits to watching an account and charging high fees for it, one thing he/she ought to be doing is rebalancing the account. Rebalancing may not seem important, but it is essential for successful investors.

When it comes to investing, most people concentrate on what investments they should buy and sell. Unfortunately, this is a fool's game and not something that smart investors should do. Rather, smart investors recognize that they need to focus not just on the individual investment, but on sectors of the economy that their money is invested.

Over the years, smart investors have recognized that to be successful over the long run you must have a diversified portfolio. Diversified just doesn't mean owning 10 mutual funds or 20 stocks. It means spreading out of money into a variety of different asset classes. These asset classes are such things as large U.S. companies, small U.S. companies, energy, emerging markets and international large and small.

In the portfolios I manage, I typically will have about 15 different asset classes in a portfolio. The theory behind using a variety of asset classes is that different sectors of the economy move at different times. By diversifying, you are able to spread out your risk without sacrificing returns.

The key to a well-balanced and diversified portfolio is to target each individual asset class. For example, 5 percent in an emerging market or 10 percent in large U.S. companies. Having a target ensures that you are not too heavily invested in one sector of the economy.

Rebalancing comes in after you have purchased your investments and a period of time has gone by in which various investments have performed differently, thus your allocation is no longer accurate. Therefore, the key to rebalancing is to adjust the portfolio back to your original allocation. For example, if you allocated 15 percent of your portfolio in small U.S. companies and now small U.S. companies represent 20 percent of your portfolio, you know you have to reduce your exposure by 5 percent and reinvest that 5 percent in an area of the economy that hasn't performed well. In that regard, rebalancing allows you to buy low and sell high. Unfortunately, too many investors never rebalance and after a period of time their original allocations are off. Consequently, the portfolio does not reflect what they are trying to achieve as an investor.

How often should someone rebalance his/her portfolio?

I recommend, at a minimum, at least once or twice a year. Of course, if you have professional management and you're paying an adviser to manage your portfolio, they should be rebalancing more often.

One of the benefits of periodically rebalancing your portfolio is it allows you to focus on the most important thing and that is your overall game plan vs. what is happening to the market on a day-to-day basis.

All the independent studies say the same thing and that is that the right allocation is more important to a portfolio than picking the right individual investments.

If you have not rebalanced your portfolio in a while, it is a great time to do it. Of course, to make rebalancing effective, you must know what you're rebalancing to. In other words, you have to know how you want your portfolio to look before you can rebalance it. If you're the type of investor that never really looks at investments and, in fact, tends to ignore them, then it may be an indication that you need professional management. Good luck!

Schoolcraft sponsors College Goal Sunday

People planning to attend college this fall can get assistance completing their federal financial aid forms during College Goal Sunday, Feb. 14. A nationwide effort, College Goal Sunday will happen from 1 to 4 p.m. at 27 sites across Michigan, including the VisTaTech Center at Schoolcraft College in Livonia.

At College Goal Sunday, financial aid experts will be on hand to sit down with students and parents and to help them through the process of completing the FAFSA.

Individuals attending College Goal Sunday should bring their Social Security numbers, driver's licenses or alien registration cards, family's 2009 federal income tax returns (2008 federal tax returns, if 2009 has not been filed yet), 2009 untaxed income records, 2009 W-2 forms, bank statements and investment records and information. Students under 23 years of age are encouraged to attend with their parent or legal guardian. These documents contain information that is required in the FAFSA.

Schoolcraft College's Livonia campus is located on Haggerty Road, between Six and Seven Mile Roads. Parking in Lot N is recommended.

College Goal Sunday is free. Reservations are not necessary. For more information, visit www.miccollegegoal.org.

HOMETOWN LIFE

Naubert catalyst as Stevenson cages Wildcats

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

With the KLAA Central Division boys basketball title at stake Tuesday night, Livonia Stevenson would not be denied.

The host Spartans got a sterling effort from the backcourt duo of Bobby Naubert and CJ Mwila, who combined for 41 points in a 56-49 victory over Novi.

Stevenson, now 11-3 overall and 8-1 in the Central, is one victory away from clinching the title outright. The Spartans can do it with victory Friday at home over South Lyon.

Naubert

"I'm proud of these kids winning a division title - any league title is never easy," said Stevenson coach Mike Allie, whose team avenged a 71-54 setback to the Wildcats on Jan. 19. "Right now we're division champs, no matter what. But we could tie with Novi with a loss to South Lyon."

Naubert, a 5-foot-11 senior, finished with a game-high 26 points.

The shifty left-hander, whose style reminds some of former UCLA All-America and Lakers guard Gail

BOYS BASKETBALL

Goodrich (better known as "Stumpy"), scored eight fourth-quarter points as the Spartans held off a late Novi rally.

The Wildcats, who trailed by as many as 14 in the third quarter, pulled to within one, 42-41, on a pair of free throws from Antwan Batwo, with only 4:14 remaining.

Allie then signaled for a timeout and the Spartans responded with a 7-0 run as Naubert made a pair of free throws, coupled with a driving layup and 3-pointer from Mwila, a 5-10 junior who finished with 15 points.

"I thought we did a good job of keeping our composure," Allie said. "We knew Novi would make a run, but we were able to hold them off in the last minute of the game."

"At one point we had four seniors on the floor. We told them they had to keep their composure. We're at home, in front of our home crowd. We had to settle down and play basketball. I thought we did that down the stretch."

Stevenson made four 3-pointers in the opening quarter to take a 18-12 lead. The Spartans then led 29-20 at intermission on Naubert's conventional three-point play with 5.62 seconds left.

SIDELINES

Jiga top shooter

Livonia's Robert Jiga, a student at Emerson Middle School, has advanced to the Great Lakes Regional after capturing the Michigan Elks Hoop Shoot state contest, Jan. 30, in Midland.

Jiga, representing Livonia Elks Lodge No. 2246, captured the Boys 12-13 age division by sinking 20-of-25 free throws.

He will travel with his parents, Silvestru and Angela Jiga, to the Great Lakes Regional, March 20, in Angola, Ind. where he will compete in a field 18 with the winner earning a spot among the top 72 in the National Finals, April 22-25, in Springfield, Mass.

Kimble signs

Livonia Stevenson senior Kayla Kimble recently signed a letter-of-intent to play soccer at Grand Valley State University, the 2009 NCAA Division II champions.

Kimble, a first-team All-Observer pick as a midfielder, also earned All-Kensington Lakes Activities Association and Division 1 All-District honors. She was the Spartans' captain as a junior and scored five goals and added two assists.

Marlow a Saint

Siena Heights University women's soccer coach Scott Oliver announced the signing recently of Livonia Churchill senior center midfielder Nicole Marlow to an NAIA letter-of-intent.

"I am very excited to come to Siena Heights because I get to live my dream of playing soccer in college," said Marlow, an all-A student who was a starter for the 17-3-3 Division 1 regional finalists last spring. "I also love the small community and plan on becoming a teacher."

"Nicole is really one of those late bloomers from high school," Oliver said of the All-District pick. "She has really developed into a good soccer player and we see a lot more potential for her in the immediate future."

Soaring club class

The Sandhill Soaring Club invites anyone interested in preparing to take the FFA Private Pilot Knowledge Test - for any rating - to join a 13-week class, which meets 7-10 p.m. Mondays, Feb. 15, at the Ann Arbor Municipal Airport, Terminal Building, 801 Airport, Drive, Ann Arbor.

A fee of $125 covers all sessions.

The class will cover all the steps required to become a pilot and provide the opportunity to log the necessary ground training and endorsement to take any of the FAA written exams. The class is conducted by certified flight and ground instructors.

Upstart MU trips No. 13 Davenport

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A downtrodden Madonna University men's basketball team turned the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference upside down Saturday afternoon at home by upsetting

MEN'S BASKETBALL first-place Davenport University, 51-44.

The Crusaders did it with a suffocating 1-3-1 zone defense as the Panthers, ranked 13th in the latest NAIA Division II poll, shot only 22.7 percent from the floor (15-of-66).

Davenport didn't help its cause either by connecting just 44 percent from the free-throw line (11-of-25) in falling to 20-6 overall and 9-1 in the WHAC.

MU, now 5-20 overall and 2-8 in the WHAC, won despite going without a point from the

First KLAA wrestling tourney deemed a success

BY BRAD EMONS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Despite a notable no-show, the first-ever Kensington Lakes Activities Association wrestling tournament drew rave reviews Saturday at Westland John Glenn.

Hartland, ranked No. 3 in the latest Division 1 poll by the Michigan Grappler, led the 24-school field with 248.5 points. The Eagles earned points in 13 of 14 weight classes and came away with two individual titles.

Host Glenn, also ranked in the top 10 in Division 1 at No. 7, was runner-up with 202.5 points, while Brighton was a distant third with 144.

Canton, ranked No. 8 in Division 1, elected to send its 'B' squad and finished well back in the pack in 22nd with 17.5.

"It was a very exciting day for the sport of wrestling. I am honored to have been the first team to host arguably the toughest league tournament in the state of Michigan," Glenn coach Bill Polk said. "The competition had a state finals-type atmosphere in the final couple rounds. We accepted a runner-up finish to a great program (Hartland), but we are never satisfied with second place."

Glenn individual winners included Anthony Pavlich (130 pounds), Travis Mann (140) and Dustin Gajowiak (285).

Pavlich notched his 100th career pin during the tourney to eclipse the school record held by Jim Wood.

Steve Wakeford, meanwhile, added a second at 112 and the Rockets added four thirds, including Kyle Gillies (103), Josh Austin (119), Mark Thompson (135) and Mike Johnson (145).

"Looking back, if a few other close matches went our way, we had a shot at the title," Polk said. "Most of our wrestlers performed better than what they were seeded, so as a coach I can't complain. All in all, it was a good day."

Livonia Franklin earned a top 10 finish in eighth with 101 points.

Franklin's Matt Roos (top), who won the 152-pound division at the Observerland Invitational, contributed a second Saturday in the same weight class at the first-ever Kensington Lakes Activities Association tourney hosted by John Glenn.

Warrior grapplers first at Summit

Going 5-0 on the day, 130-pounder Justin Palka earned lower weights MVP honors as Lutheran High Westland finished 4-1 Saturday to capture the Romulus Summit Academy Team wrestling tournament crown.

Laith Francis (125) added a title going 5-0 as the Warriors defeated the Detroit Cesar Chavez (42-26), Livonia Stevenson 'B' (42-42 on the seventh criteria), Summit (42-30) and Onsted 'B' (38-32).

Memphis was the only team to defeat Lutheran Westland, 38-30. But the Warriors, who tied with Onsted 'B' with a 4-1 record, won based on head-to-head competition.

Other medalists for the Warriors included Jacob Bartos (189) and Martin Kemp (171), both going 4-1 on the day to take runner-up honors.

"It was a good tournament for us going into team districts this Thursday," Lutheran Westland first-year coach Joseph Schmidt said. "It was a nice surprise to win the tourney because I was missing two seniors, Sean Rowe and Craig Kowalsky (limited to two matches due to prior commitment).

"The young kids wrestled the best they have all year. Matt Sankey (140-145) had his best day of his young career going 3-2 with one of his losses a very exciting overtime loss."

Trojans second in Metro

Livonia Clarenceville parlayed four individual titles into a runner-up finish during Saturday's four-team Metro Conference tournament hosted by eventual champion Macomb Lutheran North.

The Trojans were led by lower weight MVP Coy Sillanpaa, who captured the 140-pound weight class.

Other individual champs for the Trojans included Michael Weiss (103), Travis Edwards (215) and Anthony Giordano (285).

Taking second-place finishes for Clarenceville were David Gibson (103), Aaron Bibik (135) and Brendan Groves (152).

Third-places went to Shane Martin (112), Bradley Martin (119), Chris Edwards (145) and Matthew Ainout (160).

Josh Hadley, a 189-pounder from Harper Woods, was named upper weights MVP. Hamtramck's O'Dale Dillard captured the 160-pound class.

Livonia Churchill's Sara Kroll (middle), flanked by her parents Anna and Michael, signed her NCAA Letter-of-Intent Feb. 3 to run track and cross country at Michigan State. Kroll qualified for the Foot Locker National Cross Country Championships last December in San Diego, Calif. and finished third in the MHSAA Division I cross country finals last November. She is coached by Sue Tatro (upper left), the cross country coach, and Pat Daugherty (upper right), the track and field coach. Kroll was also the state runner-up in the 800 meters as a junior. Said MSU coach Walt Drentfh: "We're really excited because Sara is a versatile person with great range. She's just the kind of runner we need at the elite level. Her coaches have done a wonderful job with her. She grew up a State fan and her parents are State people. She can't wait to put on a uniform and that connection was vital to the recruiting process."

Chiefs wrap up crown with victory over Patriots, 51-29

Canton put an exclamation point on the KLAA South Division girls basketball race Tuesday night with a convincing 51-29 victory over Livonia Franklin.

The state-ranked Chiefs, who improved to 14-1 overall and 9-0 in the division, clinched KLAA South crown outright over last year's state Class A runners-up.

Leading Canton's balanced offensive attack was Kayla Bridges (14 points) and Kari Schmitt (13).

Adding nine each were CarolAnn Sexauer (all in the first half) and Alyssa Cottrell. "CarolAnn had a great first half and Kayla Bridges had a great second half," Canton coach Brian Samulski said.

The Chiefs only led 11-9 after one quarter and 25-14 at halftime before outscoring the Patriots 14-5 in the third to go ahead 39-20.

"It was a pretty solid win defensively," Samulski said.

KLAA GIRLS BASKETBALL

No. 2 Davenport trips MU women

The Madonna University women's basketball team had four players score in double figures Saturday, but it wasn't enough as host Davenport University earned a 90-75 Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference victory.

Davenport, ranked No. 1 in the latest NAIA Division II poll, had 13 different players score led by Carrie Grubius' game-high 18 points.

WOMEN'S BASKETBALL

Julie Janish came off the bench to score 12, while Kallie Benike added 11 as Davenport improved to 23-2 overall and 9-1 in the WHAC.

Heather Pratt's 17 points led the Crusaders, who fall to 8-14 overall and 4-6 in the WHAC.

Katie Mount and Tabatha Wydryck added 11 each, while freshman Kaylee McGrath (Livonia Stevenson) contributed 10.

Wydryck, a junior guard, grabbed a game-high 10 rebounds.

The Crusaders, who couldn't overcome a 50-35 halftime deficit, committed a total of 22 turnovers and were out-rebounded 55-33.

1:35 mark of the first half all the way until there was only 11:30 remaining in the game before freshman Kevin Henry broke the drought with a pair of free throws.

MU led 21-19 at halftime, but Davenport rallied with a 13-0 run to take a 32-21 advantage.

"Thank God we were getting stops, because if we weren't scoring or stopping them, it would have been a 20-point game," MU coach Noel Emenhiser said. "The entire drought we managed to stay down only seven or eight points. We were playing good defense for the most part. That kept us in the game — defensively."

Junior guard Bryant Slaughter (Westland), who led all scorers with 17 points, sparked the comeback by hitting back-to-back 3-pointers to put the Crusaders ahead to stay, 41-40.

Geoff Gaylor's bucket with 1:05 left gave MU a 48-42 advantage and sealed the victory.

"I'm just really proud of our guys," Emenhiser said. "It doesn't matter who we play, they always believe we have a chance, and today they matched the effort, the attitude. We talk a lot about those two things. If give 100 percent in both, you always have a chance to be in the game. Most nights this year we haven't had it for the whole game, and today we did. The guys always believed that there was a chance for us win the game if you kept playing hard."

Henry, a 6-4 freshman from Toledo, Ohio, contributed 15 points and eight rebounds. Senior center Leroy Allen grabbed a team-high 11 rebounds and added eight points.

David Thompson led Davenport with 14 points, while Nathan Cox came off the bench to score 11. Livonia Clarenceville High grad Lonnie Fairfax had four points and two assists in 17 minutes.

Lorenzo Ecford grabbed a game-high 13 rebounds, but MU held its own on the boards as the Panthers only enjoyed a 50-48 edge.

"The guys' will to keep working," Emenhiser said. "A couple guys stepped up and said, 'We're not going to lose.' It was sheer determination as opposed to anything we did as far as X's and O's."

The win personally brought a great deal of satisfaction to Emenhiser, the first-year coach.

"It's great," he said. "When you see things starting to translate, the things we've said over and over the last four months, starting actually make sense to the guys — that's a great feeling. We just want to be at our peak at the right time. And we have an opportunity to do that."

STEVENSON

"Naubert was really a floor general tonight," Allie said. "I thought Bobby played one of his best games in a Stevenson jersey. He really controlled the tempo and found the open men. When game got tight, he took over and went to the basket. And he went 6-for-6 at the free-throw line down the stretch — that's huge."

Novi (12-3, 7-2) got 13 points from senior point guard Jeremy Mims.

Samer Ozeir, a 6-8 junior who burned Stevenson for 22 points in the first encounter, finished with 12, but had only three during the first half after getting into early foul trouble.

"This time they guarded Samer, but everything else was pretty much the same," Novi coach Cory Heitsch said of the rematch. "I thought CJ (Mwila) was more involved offensively instead of Bobby (Naubert) having the ball most of the time. It made Bobby more effective."

Batwo came off the bench to score 10 for the Wildcats, who shot only 24 percent from the field (13-of-53).

"The foul trouble and lack of making layups affected us emotionally," Heitsch said. "Foul trouble happens at all levels of basketball. They let the jersey grabbing and pulling frustrate him (Ozeir). They (Stevenson) were face guarding and pulling on the shirt, and we did not react well early."

Kyle Bambach added six points for the Spartans, but it was his defense that was pivotal in the outcome.

"Kyle Bambach was the unsung hero tonight," Allie said. "He did a great job harassing him (Ozeir). His only job was to keep Samer off the glass and make every shot he took contested. Samer was frustrated all night and that's a credit to Kyle's defense."

- Entrances with recessed doors are encouraged for protection from the elements and from doors swinging out into the sidewalk area.
- Front entrance doors shall be constructed out of wood, glass, steel, or fiberglass or as approved by the City Council upon recommendation by the Planning Commission, provided it is compatible with the character of the district.

Any building located at a corner site shall provide distinct and prominent architectural features of enhanced character and visibility to reflect the importance of the building's location.

- Fa ade Pattern: Large, long facades shall be subdivided into bays, through the location and arrangement of openings and architectural treatments that are compatible in size and scale to existing buildings. The maximum wall length without modulation shall be thirty feet (30'). The bay width shall be 16'-to 30'.

- Fa ade Height to Width Ratio:

- One story buildings: Single bay facades or individual bays of multiple bay facades, are not to exceed 2 feet of width for each 1 foot of building height unless otherwise approved by the City Council upon recommendation of the Planning Commission.

- Two-story buildings: Single bay facades or individual bays of multiple bay facades, are not to exceed 1 foot of width for each 1 foot of height unless otherwise approved by the City Council upon recommendation by the Planning Commission.

- Roof Type: Many of the commercial roof configurations in the corridor are "flat" (less than 3:1 roof slope) with parapets that conceal the roof itself. In order to maintain and create a distinct visual character for the district, roofs shall comply with the following requirements;

- Existing flat roofs and parapets shall be maintained.
- All new retail/office buildings shall have flat roofs and parapets.
- Sloping roofs, gabled (6:12) or hipped may be allowed as special architectural features, particularly for residential townhouse development subject to review and approval by the City Council upon recommendation by the Planning Commission.
- Parapets may be stepped.
- Mansard roofs, geodesic domes and A-frames are prohibited.

- Second floor window area: minimum 25% and maximum 60% of fa ade area.
- Butt joint glazing, where panes of glass are glazed together using glue or other adhesive material and without a structural element of the window frame, is prohibited.
- The use of shutters is discouraged on commercial buildings.
- Fa ade openings such as windows and doors shall be vertical in proportion.
- Sliding doors and windows are prohibited along frontage lines. Roll up windows may be allowed subject to approval by the City Council upon recommendation by the Planning Commission.

- Building Materials;

- Exterior materials used on buildings in the FROD district shall fall into two categories, primary and accent building materials. The building material requirement is based on the exterior wall surface area, excluding windows and doors. Primary building materials shall cover a minimum of 60% of the exterior wall surface area, while accent materials may be used on up to 40% of the exterior wall surface area.

Primary Building Materials include:

I'm glad that Valentine's Day is on a Sunday this year. Without the busy weekday morning rush to get everybody off to school and work, we can take a little extra time to sit down together for a special Valentine's Day breakfast. These Heavenly Heart-Shaped Pancakes don't take a lot of time to make, so we can enjoy a warm breakfast and good conversation.

There are plenty of other simple ways you can show your love all day long. Instead of the everyday dishes and placemats, why not dress up the table with the good stuff? Set a pretty table and sprinkle it with heart-shaped confetti to make the whole family feel special.

Leave little notes around the house that tell your family some of the many reasons you love them. There are lots of little things you can say to make a big impact on others.

Set aside some time to do something as a family. Spending time with each other is a great way to show love and make new memories.

Fat Tuesday

Throw a King Cake party or pack away the paczki

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

King Cake not only satisfies the sweet tooth, but can make you feel like royalty in a single bite.

"Ours is a traditional New Orleans-style cinnamon coffee cake. We braid it and decorate it with the traditional colors of Mardi Gras, yellow, purple and green," said Jeff Pavlik, owner and baker at Sunflour Bakehaus in Farmington.

"Our King Cake feeds 10 to 12 and comes with traditional plastic baby or coin, as well as a set of 10 beads (necklaces). The coin or baby is placed outside of the cake when you buy it, but it's your responsibility to hide it under a slice. Whoever picks that slice has rights to be the king or queen of the party."

The trinket also reminds the royal party-goer to serve King Cake at the next Fat Tuesday gathering, which they also must host.

"We've been doing them for seven years. When we first started doing them no one had seen them. It was a long process of education. They've started to catch on in metro Detroit," Pavlik said, adding that contemporary versions range from pecan praline-filled to cream cheese and bourbon-flavored.

"We stay pretty true to the kind of cake that has been around for years in New Orleans. You'll find French and Spanish King Cakes from the same tradition."

King Cake traditionally was served on Epiphany, the Christian observance held 12 days after Christmas that marks the three kings visit to the baby Jesus.

Epiphany gave way to the carnival season, which lasted until Lent.

"The carnival season was the ball season and these (King Cakes) were served during the grand balls," Pavlik said. "The king or queen could pick the partners they wished to dance with. These balls were continuous activities. You could have one every week."

AVAILABLE NOW

Pavlik began making and selling King Cakes last weekend in time for the Super Bowl and will have the traditional Mardi Gras sweet available through Fat Tuesday, Feb. 16.

He'll also sell fruit- or custard-filled Polish pastries, "paczki," but will buy them from a local doughnut-maker. He's taking orders on both King Cakes and paczki.

"We do carry extra in the store, but if you want to guarantee paczki or King Cake I highly recommend ordering ahead."

King Cakes, with necklaces and trinket, are $15. Paczki are $13 a dozen or $1.25 a piece. Sunflour Bakehaus is located at 33250 Grand River Ave., in downtown Farmington; (248) 442-2360.

Pavlik said his bakery sells "quite a few" King Cakes to people who want a Fat Tuesday alternative to paczki.

"You can slice off a sliver of King Cake," he noted. "You have better portion control."

BAKERY MUSIC

Who cares about portion control when you can polka the calories away?

"People have danced. They've polka danced in here. And they love it," said Bridget Domzalski, describing the annual scene on Fat Tuesday at her business, GM Paris Bakery in Livonia.

Joe Czapski will be on hand with music from 6 a.m.-6 p.m., at the business, located at 28418 Joy; (734) 425-2060.

But customers don't have to wait until Tuesday for a GM Paris Bakery-made paczki. Domzalski said she has been making "a couple of hundred dozen" a day this week, all while also making a full line of bakery items. By Saturday, the bakery will make only paczki "24 hours a day."

"It is busy. They'll be lined up out the door Tuesday, and on Monday, too."

GM Paris Bakery sells paczki for $6.50 a half dozen, $12 a dozen or $1.25 each.

Here's a sampling of other local stores with paczki or King Cake for Fat Tuesday:

- Joe's Produce Gourmet Market, 33152 W. Seven Mile, Livonia, has sold out every day since it began offering paczki about a week ago. Debbie Warren, cake decorator for the store, suggests ordering ahead to guarantee they will be available in the fillings requested. Cost is $6.49 a half dozen and $1.29 each. (248) 477-4333
- Heritage Bakery, 37458 Five Mile, Livonia, sells both King Cake and paczki and is open 5 a.m.-7 p.m., Monday-Friday.
- "We started two weeks ago. People have been buying us out every day," said Ryan Sarb, who works behind the bakery counter. "The King Cake is more of a bread than a cake, but it does have a sweet taste. About one out of every 15 people who come in for paczki buy one." King Cakes cost $12.95; the paczki are $11.50 a dozen or $1.25 each. (734) 464-1855
- Old Fashioned Bake Shoppe, 27427 Warren, Garden City, usually sells out of paczki around 1 or 2 p.m., on Fat Tuesday, according to owner, Louie Simovski.

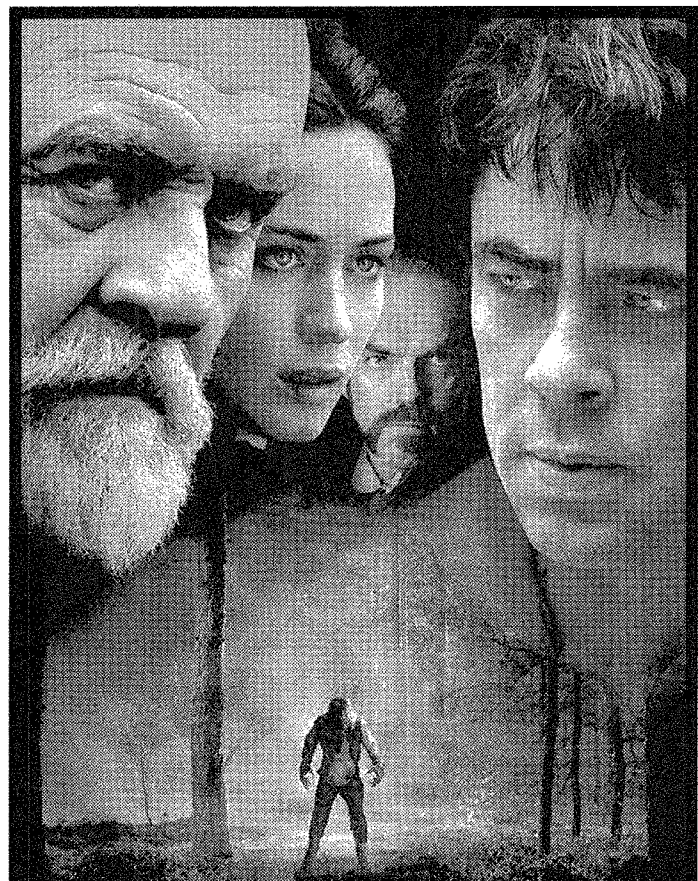

"The best way is to place an order," said Simovski, who admits a weakness for prune-filled paczki. He'll sell raspberry, apple, blueberry, cherry, custard and lemon in addition to prune paczki Monday and Tuesday. Cost is $8.99 per dozen or 90 cents each. (734) 522-3010.

- Le Cakery Bake Shop, 844 N. Wayne Road, Westland will sell paczki with seven different fillings on Monday and Tuesday and is taking orders this week for both King Cakes and paczki. Owner Pauline Dimovski also said customers can special order buttercream filling for paczki. She'll open her bakery early both days, at 6 a.m. Monday and 5 a.m. Tuesday.

"We're known for our paczki," she said. "I tell you, they are so good."

They cost $1 each or $12 a dozen. (734) 326-4151

Bake a Fat Tuesday tradition

Want to try your hand at making Carnival King Cake?
Here's the recipe Jeff Pavlik's uses at his Sunflour Bakehaus in Farmington. Don't forget to place a small plastic baby or plastic coin under the cake before you cut and serve it. Its recipient wins the king or queen title and responsibility for the next King Cake and Carnival party.

CARNIVAL KING CAKE

Cake dough
½ cup warm milk
1½ tablespoons butter at room temperature
1 package active dry yeast
½ cup lukewarm water
½ cup white sugar
1 egg
¾ teaspoons salt
½ teaspoon vanilla extract
¾-2½ cups all purpose flour
Filling
1½ tablespoons butter at room temperature
½ cup white sugar
2 tablespoons cinnamon
Glaze
1 cup powder sugar
1½ tablespoons water

Sugar decoration
½ cup of white sugar for each color
Purple, yellow and green food coloring

1. Warm milk on stove and combine with butter. Set aside until lukewarm.
2. Place yeast in lukewarm water with 1 tablespoon of the sugar. Temperature of the water should be no more than 110 degrees. Let stand until creamy, about 10 minutes.
3. Combine milk and yeast mixture in mixing bowl, whisk in the egg and add the remaining sugar, salt, and vanilla. Slowly add in 2 cups of flour, stirring continuously until a dough forms. Place dough on work surface and knead in the extra ½ cup of flour, adding small amounts of additional flour if needed to form soft, smooth and elastic dough. Knead for 10 minutes. If using a bread machine follow instructions for making a coffee cake.
4. Place dough in a lightly oiled bowl. Cover dough and let rise in a warm place until doubled in volume, about 1 hour. When risen punch dough down, let it relax for 5 minutes, then stretch it into a large rectangular piece, approximately 9 by 11 inches.
5. Preheat oven to 375 degrees.
6. Spread butter over entire surface of the dough. Sprinkle sugar over the entire surface and then the cinnamon.
7. Fold dough into thirds, cut into three equal strips with a pastry cutter and braid. Let braid relax for several minutes then bring ends together to form an oval.
8. Let cake rise in a warm spot until doubled in size, about 45 minutes.
9. Bake for about 25 minutes until golden brown.
10. Let cake cool completely. Prepare colored sugars. Mardi Gras colors are purple, green and gold. Mix the icing and spread over top of the cake and then sprinkle colored sugars in alternating pattern.

FOOD

Tell your sweetie 'I love you' over dinner on Valentine's Day

BY SHARON DARGAY
O&E STAFF WRITER

Candlelight, flowers and Sack Meal #3.

Cupid may be on a budget this year, but he's not skimping on style at local White Castle restaurants.

"They all do something a little different," said Diana Ford, district supervisor for White Castle. "It's something special and unique to each location. Each general manager creates their own aura."

"Some might have flowers in vases. Some do candles. Some bring in cider and do a toast. Some might have red tablecloths. They are all a little different."

"One of my stores last year made an arch with balloons. One store bought rose petals and sprinkled them on the floor and had flowers and balloons attached to them."

Although many sweethearts will head to more traditional eateries, all Detroit-area White Castles with dining rooms — including those in Redford, Canton, Livonia and Farmington Hills — are taking reservations for Sunday, Feb. 14, and they are "pretty full" Ford said. For reservations call (248) 477-1450 ext. 10.

The company has offered a sit-down meal served by wait staff — by reservation only — complete with decorations, on Valentine's Day since 1991. Ford said the event has been available in Michigan for about five years. The special day attracts loyal customers and twosomes who originally met at a White Castle and want to celebrate memories.

The dinner event is extended an additional hour, from 4-8 p.m., this year because Valentine's Day coincides with a Sunday, Ford said.

"We thought people would want to bring their kids." The menu doesn't change on Valentine's Day. Everything normally available — including Meal Sack #3 which includes 10 Slider hamburgers, two soft drinks and French fries for $12.06 — can be ordered.

This year, everyone with a reserved place at the restaurant also will receive a free cupcake for dessert. "Some people think, oh, this is a joke. We're going to White Castle. Then once they get in there they say 'Oh my gosh, this is the best Valentine ever,'" Ford said.

suggestion for a romantic meal?

"The chef can prepare two different entrees and split them on two plates."

The pastry chef hasn't finalized the dessert menu but will offer a special, too.

Costanza suggests sweethearts visit the martini bar before their meal and stay after to hear keyboard player Paul Fitz entertain.

"Start with a martini. Then it's nice to have dinner and then move back into the lounge for dessert and music."

Make reservations for the restaurant, located at 39405 Plymouth Road, at (734) 254-0400.

With room for 250 customers, reservations for two generally aren't necessary at Amantea in Garden City, but Valentine's Day likely will be the exception.

Domenic Porco, owner, suggests them at least between 5-7 p.m., at his restaurant, 32777 West Warren Road. Call (734) 421-1510.

"We are having two dinners complete with two beverages for $29.90," he said, describing the Valentine's Day special. "That's two prime rib dinners."

The special will include salad, coleslaw or soup, vegetable and two small cannoli.

MIXED GRILL

Complimentary hors d'oeuvres await Valentine's Day diners at Fiamma Grille Steak and Seafood Restaurant in Plymouth.

"We'll put together a pairing of a couple of dishes, generally meat and seafood, simply grilled," said Ryan Yaquinto, manager, describing the special.

The restaurant, located at 380 S. Main, will be open from 4-9 p.m., Feb. 14. He recommends reservations at (734) 416-9340.

"We do have high back booths," he said, describing the most romantic seating at Fiamma Grille. "And we have a couple of window seats that are great for people watching or weather watching, especially if it's snowing outside."

Here's a sampling of other area restaurants for Valentine's Day dinner:

• Cafe Cortina, 30715 W. 10 Mile, Farmington Hills will be open Valentine's Day. Call for reservations, available after 6:15 and until 10 p.m., at (248) 474-3033.

• Antonio's Canton, 2220 N. Canton Center Road, Canton, will be open 1-9 p.m. Seating is on a first-come basis and reservations are taken only for parties of eight or more. (734) 981-9800

• Rose's Restaurant & Lounge, 201 N. Canton Center Road, Canton. Open noon-9 p.m. Sunday. (734) 981-9904.
