IN BRIEF

Happy holiday

The Observer & Eccentric Newspaper offices will be closed Monday, July 5 in honor of the holiday. Offices will re-open Tuesday at 8:30 a.m. The O&E is on Facebook, Twitter and the web at hometownlife.com. All customer service inquiries at 866-887-2737 will be returned beginning at 8:30 a.m. Tuesday, July 6. Our Sunday delivery hotline will be available until noon today.

Register to vote

Time is running out for people to register to vote in the Tuesday, Aug. 3, primary election. The deadline for registering is Tuesday, July 6.

The voter registration forms can be found on the city clerk's page of the city website at ci.westland.mi.us/elections. Fill out the necessary lines and drop it off at the clerk's office in the Westland City Hall, 36601 Ford, west of Wayne Road. For more information, call (734) 467-3185.

Help wanted

Westland Mayor William Wild is accepting resumes from residents interested in serving on a variety of boards and commissions that have vacancies.

Appointments are available for:

- The Brownfield Redevelopment Authority which uses tax increment financing to help remediate environmentally affected sites in the community;
- Economic Development Corporation provides below market rate financing for eligible firms and Tax Increment Finance Authority which implements an infrastructure improvement plan within a specified district;
- Historical Commission which collects, maintains and preserves any materials and documents relating to the history of Westland and Nankin Township;
- Local Development Finance Authority which implements a development plan to improve a 2.5-mile section of the Newburgh Road corridor;
- Local Officer's Compensation Commission which determines the salary of all elected officials;
- Parks and Recreation Advisory Council which reviews plans and specifications for work undertaken in city parks and volunteers for programs provided by the city's recreation department.

Resumes can be sent to the Mayor's Office, Westland City Hall, 36601 Ford, Westland 48185.

Ex-worker enters plea to embezzlement

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

A Westland woman has received concurrent prison sentences and has been ordered to pay restitution after pleading no contest to charges of embezzling an estimated $300,000 from a local nursing home.

Michaeline Meek, 46, received sentences of one to 15 years in prison for embezzling less than $100,000 and one to 20 years in prison for embezzling more than $100,000. She was taken into custody immediately after being sentenced Wednesday by Wayne County Circuit Court Judge Craig Strong.

Meek also was ordered to pay restitution totaling $267,735 to Westland Convalescent Center where she had been employed for decades. The business reportedly received an insurance payment for a portion of the missing money.

Originally, Meek was charged with the 20-year felony of embezzling more than $100,000 that was stolen from Westland Convalescent Center from March 2008 through August 2009. A second warrant charged Meek with embezzlement under $100,000, a 15-year felony. That warrant relates to money missing from Westland Convalescent Center over a period dating back to 2005.

Employed by Westland Convalescent Center since the 1980s, Meek worked in the business office where her duties included handling accounts payable. Westland police investigated and found that when clients paid in cash, Meek did not deposit the money and kept it.

The amounts of money not deposited varied a great deal, from $55 to $1,000, police said. The largest sum was $20,000 missing in one month for a total $170,000 missing in a 17-month period.

Clients were issued receipts for their payments, so the money was actually stolen from Westland Convalescent Center, not the clients, police said. In fact, the embezzlement came to light after a nursing home resident died and a family member tried to contact Meek about paying any outstanding balances at Westland Convalescent Center.

When Meek failed to return calls, the family member contacted the center's chief financial officer. A large discrepancy on what was owed on the account triggered the investigation.

Fired by Westland Convalescent Center, Meek had remained free on bond prior to sentencing.

Library goes from books to burgers for bonanza

BY JULIE BROWN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Jan Borden and Trixanna Bradley, both of Westland, didn't have to cook dinner Wednesday evening. The women, who met that day, were sharing a bench at the William P. Faust Public Library "Burger Bonanza" tasting, featuring Schoolcraft College culinary arts graduates.

"I am a hamburger lover, I figure Schoolcraft College, you can't go wrong," said Borden, who mixes sirloin and turkey for her burgers.

Bradley, who was there with daughter Brittany, 17, a Westland John Glenn High junior, said it was a combination of "recipes and a love of burgers" that brought her to the library pavilion.

"I've never tried ground turkey or chicken. I'm not much of a red meat eater, but I'll eat a burger," she said.

The 60 attendees watched Marcelle Barlage of Novi and Bill Rushlow of Inkster, who'd graduated the previous week from Schoolcraft's well-regarded culinary arts program. They're now considered chef culinarians.

"We are doing sliders, beef sliders, with different kinds of toppings," Barlage said. "We have all kinds of goodies."

Salvation Army rings bells for Christmas ... in July

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

For those who don't want to spend all their free time at the beach or doing yard work, the Wayne-Westland Salvation Army is offering an opportunity for some volunteer work.

It's Christmas in July as bell ringers will be manning the Red Kettles on selected days to raise money for the Salvation Army. Specifically, the money raised in the summer will benefit the Salvation Army summer day camp.

"Our summer day camp is full and has a waiting list. This time of year, funds are always a little short — we're halfway through the year," said Capt. Derek Rose of the Wayne-Westland Salvation Army Corps.

The Christmas season is a big fund-raising time for the Salvation Army, but as Rose noted, funds can be a little short by the time summer rolls around. The summer Red Kettle drive raised $3,000 last year and Rose said he hopes $5,000 can be collected this year.

"This is our third official year of Christmas in July. The first year, we had mini red buckets in Westland, Romulus and Wayne," said Rose. "Last year, we added Friday and Saturday at a store and two Saturdays at the intersection of Wayne and Warren roads."

Kenleigh Ball is among youngsters who've been enjoying the activities and treats at the annual Westland Summer Festival. Today is the last chance to visit the festival which ends with a bang with fireworks this evening. For more on the event, see Page A3.

Rotary installs officers, honors members' service

BY LEANNE ROGERS
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Members of Westland Rotary gathered recently to install new officers and honor members for their service to the community.

Jeff Juenemann was installed as the club president, taking over from Antoinette Martin, who had served as president for the past year.

"Did we do enough (during the past year)? No. My goal was to do 20 percent more and I know we exceeded that," Martin said before handing over the gavel to Juenemann.

Previously club president in 1986-87, Juenemann said he was pleased to hold the office again, adding that it would be a challenge to follow Martin.

"You've had a great year; I learned all year. I knew a lot about leadership and fund-raising, but being a major part of the community — it's been wonderful watching it," said Juenemann, whose goals are to grow club membership and have more successful fund-raisers.

During the past year, Rotary had fund-raisers that included charity poker games, a comedy club event, a fireworks cruise on the Detroit River and a Hawaiian luau dinner/auction.

Among the community donations by Rotary in the past year were $3,500 to Westland Youth Assistance, $6,000 in scholarships for local high school students,

$7,500 to the Salvation Army Summer Camp and $1,000 to sponsor Westland's 2009 Turn Off the Violence event. Rotarians also donated $1,250 worth of mattresses, towels and toiletries for the Westland Family Shelter, provided backpacks and school supplies to hundreds of Westland students and raised $1,100 for the Salvation Army Red Kettle Drive by bell ringing at Macy's. Honored as Rotarian of the Year was Joe Tseng, whom Martin noted missed only one event in the past year and sent a substitute to the one he missed. "I didn't expect this. It's been a fun year. I followed Antoinette's orders. We made a lot of money and helped a lot of charities," Tseng said. Richard Isham received the Service Above Self Award, honoring someone who demonstrates the Rotary motto. "I'm one of the senior citizens of the group, someone who wandered into Westland 13 years ago," Isham said. "I enjoy getting involved and the camaraderie. It's nice to be able to do things for those who can't do it for themselves." Richard Strausbaugh was recognized with the Paul Harris Award for having raised $10,000 for Rotary.

Strausbaugh and Julie Brown were recognized for perfect attendance at weekly Rotary meetings for 30 years and 11 years, respectively. "These are two individuals who live Rotary daily and weekly — they don't take a day or week off. They were at a Rotary meeting every week for those years," Juenemann said. "It's a tremendous accomplishment by people who are dedicated."

Head of her class

According to her family, Alejandra Bianca Zarate worked long and hard to become president of the senior class at John Glenn High School, a position which offered the an opportunity to speak to her fellow graduates during commencement ceremonies at the Eastern Michigan University Convocation Center in June.

The bell ringing will take place noon to 6 p.m. Fridays and Saturdays in front of the Palace Supermarket at Venoy and Palmer and Heartland Market, Ford and Wildwood. Also look for bell ringers during those hours Wayne and Warren roads. Around the Christmas holidays, the bell ringers are usually outside stores like Macy's and Kroger. The Salvation Army has national agreements with those businesses and there are limits on how often. "That's our biggest fundraiser," Rose said. Unlike the Christmas collections which uses some paid bell ringers, Rose said the Christmas in July effort relies entirely on volunteers. E-mails are being sent to all of the Salvation Army volunteers, such as the Westland Rotary, asking for help. "We're interested in getting as many people on board as possible," said Rose. Volunteers must be 18 years old to collect donations at the Wayne and Warren roads intersection. People younger than 18 are allowed to be bell ringers at the stores when accompanied by a parent. For more information about the Christmas in July effort, call Sandy Kollinger at (734) 722-3660.

The two focused on easy-to-prepare recipes. "If you give somebody something too complicated, they won't want to do it," Barlage said. A few vegans attended and could enjoy portabella mushrooms off the grill. Rushlow also demonstrated how to roast a red pepper on the grill.

Barlage laughed when asked if the call to Schoolcraft was for their top graduates. "Well, maybe it was, I don't know," she said. "It's very exciting. We like to share the knowledge." She told her attentive audience at Burger Bonanza was particularly appropriate close to the Fourth of July. "Believe me, these recipes are easy, you'll impress your family and friends," she said. "We've got Bill working really hard at the barbecue because we know you're all really hungry."

His wife Pamela was his assistant. Barlage also answered questions about Schoolcraft's culinary program, which boasts four master chefs, and its student-staffed restaurant, which she encouraged attendees to try. The burger tasting drew compliments and an assessment of "delicious" from Borden and Bradley. "I approached them. We knew we wanted to do a food program," librarian Andy Schuck said. "We eventually figured out burgers and summer go hand-in-hand." A librarian colleague at the Westland library works part time at Chelsea's library, which hosted a barbecue. That helped bring the idea here, and Schuck was grateful for Wednesday's great weather. "We've been getting lucky all summer with our music," he said. "All of our outdoor events have had great weather." Here are a few of the reci-

Fireworks close out 40th annual summer festival

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

Kenneth Mehl has a word of advice for families planning to catch the Westland Summer Festival fireworks this evening: "Come early and stay late."

"We've had people setting up at 5 a.m. for the fireworks," said Mehl, who chairs the private nonprofit Westland Festival Committee. "The traffic gets heavy about 4 p.m., that's when we get bombarded. The best thing is to go to the library or John Glenn High School and park and get the shuttle bus. There's no parking on site."

The festival is being held in the civic center complex on Ford west of Wayne Road and opens at noon. There's 24 rides and a midway, as well as food concessions, a beer tent, an arts and crafts area, petting zoo and a display of exotic animals.

A popular event with kids has been the racing ducks. Youngsters get to hold the ducks and release them at the starting line, Mehl said. The ducks are out of Albuquerque, N.Mex., and the Westland festival is their first stop of the summer season.

"The little kids are out there squealing with delight," Mehl said.

The Westland Jaycees are hosting free children's events 2-6 p.m. and every child will get a prize. The Westland Civitans also are holding the finals of their Beautiful Baby Contest at noon, while the Wayne Masonic Lodge is hosting a free child identification program from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. at Westland Fire House No. 1 on the east side of Westland City Hall. Each child who goes through the process will receive a dental impression, as well as a CD containing a photo, video, digital fingerprints and their vital information.

Entertainment leading up to the fireworks includes Voice of the King Elvis Tribute 3-6 p.m. and Second Wind performing at 7 p.m.

Carlson between Marquette and Ford will be closed at 1 p.m. and Ford will be closed completely between Newburgh and Carlson after 6 p.m. to handle the crowds. Traffic on Carlson will be restricted to shuttle buses and local residents. Westbound traffic on Ford will be rerouted to the north, while eastbound traffic will be able to go north and south on Newburgh.

The road closures have helped traffic clear out much quicker following the fireworks, Mehl said, adding that it's great to see people staking out their spots early.

"You can see people sitting on Ford Road and the cars go by," he said. "I don't really know how many people come or where they come from, but they come from all over — Troy, St. Clair Shores. They just come."

County officials urge youngsters to have a safe summer

BY SUE MASON
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

In the time it took to spell her last name, Skylar Croom had already "caught" more than 60 marbles.

"When I see two, I try to pick them up with my toes," said the Lincoln Park youngster.

Four-year-old Aidan Morris held up his catch and smiled for a photograph.

"I'm trying ... I got one," said Aidan.

The youngsters were trying their feet at toe fishing in a kiddie pool stocked with marbles and smooth stones, one of several activities provided as part of the kickoff of the Wayne County Summer Safety Campaign, held Thursday at the Wayne County Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped in Westland.

"While you're on vacation or playcation, we want you to stay safe and have a wonderful summer," Edith Killins, director of the Wayne County Department of Health and Human Services, told the gathering which included youngsters from Starfish Family Services; Head Start program and Focus: Hope for Children.

The summerlong campaign revolves around ABC — Always Be Careful — and provides children ages 6-18 to promote fun ways to keep everyone safe for the summer. It's sponsored by Wayne County Executive Robert Ficano and the Wayne County Prosecutor's Office and Sheriff Department.

"It's the first time we've coordinated something like this, it's aimed at youngsters and some of it is common sense — anything from gun safety to not texting by driving," said Ficano, who shared the microphone with county Prosecutor Kym Worthy and Wayne County Sheriff Deputy Chief Raphael Washington.

The three officials provided safety messages ranging from letting professionals handle fireworks and telling adults about rather than touching guns to the use of car seats and safety restraints. Youngsters

SAFE SUMMER FUN CONTEST

What: Wayne County Safe Summer Family Fun Essay and Poster Contest. Youth are invited to submit essays and posters about the fun ways to keep everyone safe while enjoying the summer.

Who: For youth ages 6-18 and residents of Wayne County. There are three categories — ages 6-10, 11-14 and 15-18.

What: There will be three posters and three essay winners for each category. Honorable mentions also will be awarded. Kids can enter one or both contests. Posters must be on a standard 22-inch by 28-inch poster board or smaller and a variety of media — watercolor, pen and ink, crayon, chalk and markers — can be used. Essays must be 500 words or less and have a descriptive title. They must be typed, double spaced and printed on only one side of the paper.

When: Deadline for entries is Friday, Aug. 13.

Where: Mail entries to Maria McCarville, Wayne County Safe Summer Contest, Wayne County Library, 30555 Michigan Ave., Westland, MI 48186 or by e-mail to mccarvi@co.wayne.mi.us.

even got tips on eating healthy and staying hydrated during hot summer weather.

"I don't want to know if any of you have seen a real gun, I want to know how many know what to do," said Worthy. "I don't want you to touch it, I want you to go tell an adult where it is."

"Everyone should know not to touch a gun," a 5-year-old told her.

The youngsters' responses to questions drew chuckles from adults and led Worthy to say she felt "like the straight man for a comedy act." When talking about the texting while driving ban which took effect Thursday, one youngster told Worthy he takes the cell phone away from his mother when she talks on it while driving.

When asked by Wayne County Health Officer Loretta Davis what happens when people eat too much food, one youngster said the word gas, picking up on her comments about food being like fuel for the body. While adults chuckled, Davis pointed out to the youngsters that overeating also leads to obesity.

"We have a lot of programs that focus on living healthy," said Davis. "We work to help establish community gardens and walking paths and just helped the city of Ecorse with a smoke-free walking path."

Ficano pointed out the importance of safety with fireworks, telling the gathering that anything that leaves the ground is "pretty much illegal."

"Even if they're legal, you need to have a hose or a bucket of water," he said. "Don't touch fireworks, let adults do that. Between June 20 and July 20, that's when most injuries related to fireworks happen."

Worthy stressed the importance of youngsters being in car or booster seats during her presentation.

"It's very important," she said. "I've seen a lot of kids who have been thrown from cars."

Sue Steiger, a librarian at the Wayne County Regional Library for the Blind and Physically Handicapped, reads the safety book, "Officer Buckle and Gloria," to youngsters attending the Summer Safety Campaign Kickoff.

Drewmarri Bryant laughs at the funny things Gloria does during the storytime.

Tell your mom and dad you need to be in a car seat to be safe."

"Do your mom and dad wear seat belts? Be sure to tell them to wear them," she added.

In addition to the games, youngsters were treated to a hot dog lunch and adults could stock up on safety materials.

Volunteers like James Larkin of Garden City, who was helping with the food, was impressed with the program.

"They should do this every year," said Larkin. "It's good for the kids. It shows them how to eat and how to have good clean fun."

Garage sale map makes bargain hunting easy

Garage sale treasure hunters now have an easy way to make the most out of their day. We've added an innovative garage sale mapping feature to our website — hometownlife.com — that allows users to not only see exactly where the best sales are taking place, but also create a custom map that makes getting to them much easier.

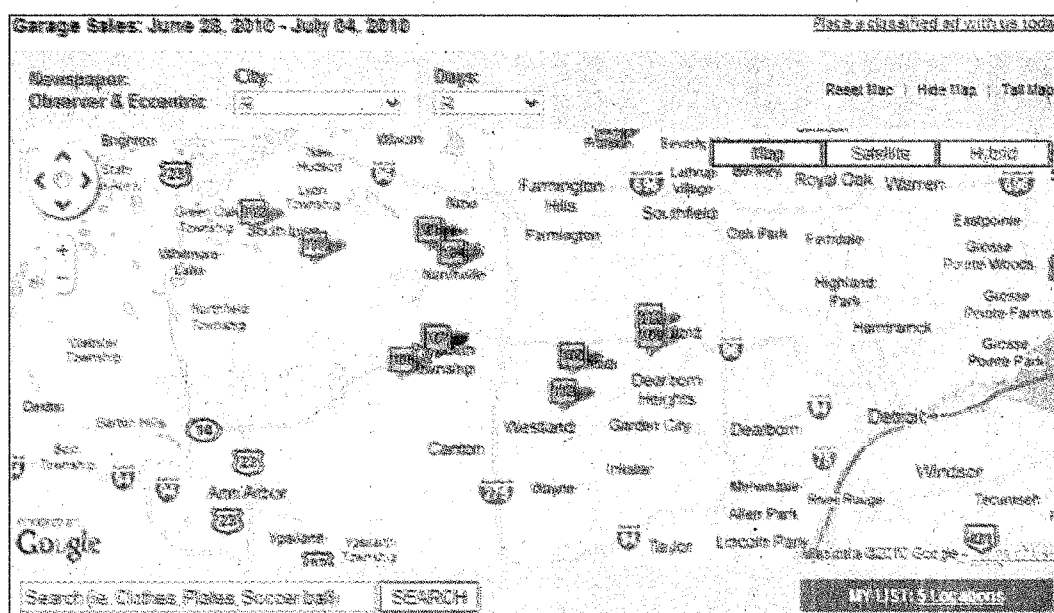

The days of writing down addresses and plotting a course from one sale to the next are over because our new feature does all the work for you.

To get started, simply go to hometownlife.com and click on the garage sale map located below the main carousel of stories. A map showing the location of each sale will open in a new browser window. From there, users are able to select the sales they want to go to and generate a custom map that routes the easiest way from location to location. The garage sale map is proving popular with our online readers, too, as hits have tripled since its debut two weeks ago. That means anyone who wants to advertise a garage sale in the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers and Hometown Weeklies may do so with the added confidence of knowing a growing number of bargain hunters are turning to hometownlife.com to make sure they don't get lost along the way.

To place an ad for your garage, estate, rummage sale or auction, call our toll-free number: (800) 579-7355.

In celebration of a classic

Over the past 50 years since its publication, Harper Lee's "To Kill a Mockingbird" has maintained a constant presence in many of our lives. Whether you were forced to read it for a high school English class, or chose to delve into on your own, the story about a 1930s southern town's reaction to accusations of the rape of a white girl by a black man is unforgettable. To this day, allusions to Scout, Jem, and Atticus Finch continue to show up in books, movies and everyday conversation.

There's an entire website dedicated to the 50th anniversary of the publication of "To Kill a Mockingbird." Visit www.okillamockingbird50year.com to discover celebrations that are taking place this year across the country. The website also contains useful reading and teaching guides as well as lesson plans so teachers and educators can make the most out of the classic text.

If you are a member of a book club, this is the perfect time to read and discuss Lee's book, if you haven't already done so. Discussion questions and book club suggestions are available on the site, so feel free to print them off pass them around to members of your book group.

Of course, the library owns "To Kill a Mockingbird" and related materials in multiple formats. Not really in the mood to pick up a print copy of the book? We have unabridged copies of the audio book in both CD and cassette. To supplement your reading, check out the movie in VHS or DVD, and if you need to write a paper about Harper Lee or her most famous work, don't rule out the biography area and the relevant books of Mockingbird literary criticism.

If you've made it this far without reading "To Kill a Mockingbird," by Harper Lee, why wait any longer? Or if you have the urge to read it through a third or fourth time, the book's 50th anniversary makes 2010 a wonderful year to revisit Maycomb, Alabama.

The William P. Faust Public Library of Westland is open 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Monday-Thursday and 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Friday-Saturday.

Highlighted Activities

Reward offered

A $1,000 reward is being offered for the return of a remote controlled Carlton OX stump grinder, stolen from in front of a home in Garden City. The stump grinder, with its own trailer, was attached to a large wood chip truck. The truck was recovered at West Outer Drive and Lahser in Detroit. People who have information, can contact David Peterson of Hill Top Tree Service in Westland at (734) 729 3652 or the Garden City Police Department at (734) 739 1700.

Weatherization program expanded

Wayne Metropolitan Community Action Agency has partnered with Wayne County to expand its free weatherization program.

Wayne Metro is now serving the communities of Westland, Garden City, Canton, Plymouth, Plymouth Township, Northville, Northville Township, Livonia, Redford, Inkster, Wayne, Romulus, Belleville, Taylor, Dearborn Heights, Van Buren, Sumpter Township and Huron Township.

Wayne Metro already provides free weatherization services to the communities of Dearborn, Hamtramck, Harper Woods, Highland Park and the five Grosse Pointes.

"We're very excited to be expanding this program" said Louis Piszker, Wayne Metro CEO. "We've seen a tremendous demand for weatherization services as more families start to 'go green,' and are interested in saving money on their utilities."

Wayne Metro's Weatherization Assistance Program helps low and moderate income families to permanently reduce their energy bills by making their homes more energy efficient. Income-eligible families receiving weatherization services see their annual energy bills reduced by an average of $200 or more.

Weatherization services may include attic, wall or floor installation, storm windows, window repair or replacement, furnace and duct repair, roof repairs, compact fluorescent bulbs, ceiling and wall repairs, programmable thermostat or steel replacement doors. Services are tailored to each house, based on a completed energy audit performed by a certified inspector.

There are no out of pocket costs with Wayne Metro's weatherization services. All work is done by reputable, licensed and insured contractors. Additionally, all work is done to city codes and inspected by city inspectors.

Several documents are needed to apply for assistance. Picture ID for all adults living in the home, Social Security Cards for everyone in the home, Bridge card, Medicaid, Medicare cards, proof of home ownership or landlord agreement, current winter or summer tax statement, proof of income for the past 90 days and utility bills are required to complete an application. All adults over the age of 18 must be present during application appointment.

Income-eligibility guidelines do apply. For more information, call (734) 727-7097. Applications begin by phone, and a Wayne Metro representative will work with families to gather all of the necessary documentation to complete the application.

Wayne Metro is a non-profit organization serving the 42 communities surrounding Detroit and comprising out- Wayne County. The agency provides more than 40 diverse programs and services to empower low-income people and strengthen communities. For more information on these services, visit the Wayne Metro website at www.waynemetro.org.

Hearing-impaired children need not miss summer camp

BY LARRY RUEHLEN
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

LaTonya Barber is striving to bring the fun of attending summer camp to hearing-impaired children.

"There aren't many areas that have a strong connection to the deaf community but Redford does," said Barber, who teaches sign language and life skills to the hearing impaired. "So I thought why not start a summer camp?"

There are 90,000 Michigan residents with hearing loss but finding a local summer camp specifically designed for the deaf wasn't easy.

"Children tend to learn much easier than adults," she said. "They don't have all those worries associated with being a grown up. They can think clearly and have a great life."

Barber is offering a series of summer camp in cooperation with organizations like Detroit Rising Stars, the YWCA and Redford's Department of Leisure Services.

The Performing Arts Camp will include basic piano, vocal techniques, sign language, poetry, dance and drama.

"Ms. LaTonya is the best teacher I've ever known," said student Shanae O'Neal. "I really liked sign language and vocal techniques".

New this year are the Tiny Tot Sign Language Camp and Deaf Kid Enterprise. Tiny Tot Sign Language Camp is a one week camp for children ages 3-6. Any child who wants to learn sign language may join in the fun.

"I taught my son how to sign at 2," said Barber. "He's 5 now and he still remembers how to sign."

All children must be accompanied by an adult while learning sign language.

Deaf Kid Enterprise was designed specifically for deaf or hearing-impaired youth. Students in this camp will learn leadership skills, entrepreneurship, etiquette and more. All students will participate in hands-on activities, attend or participate in upcoming events, field trips, and recitals. Students will receive a snack, certificate of participation, and a membership to the YWCA (provided their camp is there).

The camps serve children ages 3-18 and will take place at the YWCA of Metropolitan Detroit (Northwest Branch) 25940 Grand River Avenue and the Redford Community Center, 12121 Hemingway. Weekly and Saturday sessions are being offered beginning July 10 and prices vary from $40 to $145. For more information, visit www.detroitrisingstars.org or call (313) 414-1054.

LaTonya Barber believes youngsters learn sign language much easier than adults. With that in mind, she's hosting a series of summer camps for hearing-impaired children.

NRCLL audition a hit for future Little League tournaments

BY JIM TOTH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

North Redford Central Little League President Curt Smart hopes this is just the beginning.

The long-standing Little League organization took an important first step toward hosting larger and more significant tournaments in the future by welcoming 15 area champions recently to diamonds at Chuck Lawson Memorial and Claude Allison Park to compete in the 11-12-year-old Tournament of Champions.

The five-day (extended slightly due to inclement weather conditions), single-elimination format saw Taylor North Central earn bragging rights for a second consecutive year with its victory in the title game over rival Taylor South. Champions from Lincoln Park, Flat Rock, Brownstown, South Redford and North Redford were some of the other participating teams.

"It was a ton of work, but it was worth it when you see so many people come forward to help support us and parents and players from other leagues come out and enjoy themselves," said Smart, who coached in the NRCLL for four years before taking over as league president late last year. "It's been quite some time since the NRCLL has hosted a tournament, but everybody was pretty happy at the end the way things turned out."

In order for the NRCLL to host this tournament or, for that matter, any tournament, significant improvements needed to be made at both parks. Lighting, scoreboards, fencing, field conditions — you name it and some form of overhaul was required.

And, in these trying economic times, funding for such projects can be difficult to obtain. Fortunately for the NRCLL, community leaders, league board members, parents, coaches and even former players stepped up and contributed in their respective ways since the near the end of last year when the initial discussions had occurred.

One NRCLL coach Trevor Hamilton, who owns Hamilton Fencing, spent considerable time installing new fencing around the fields, while Leo Snage utilized his skills as an electrician working on areas of lighting and scoreboard operations.

"We hadn't hosted a tournament in so long that the district administration was worried how we would handle it," said Smart, a Livonia resident. "It worked out pretty good. Everybody who worked on this all year came together this week."

The next step, according to Smart, is for the NRCLL to come together and host a Little League state tournament that would bring visitors from all over Michigan to Redford with hopes of advancing onto the national stage.

"Hosting a tournament like that brings people from all over and that can really help our area," Smart said. "They come here and visit and spend money and give back to people who helped make this happen."

A former player himself in the NRCLL, Smart said he would like to see the organization return to the glory years when more than 300 youngsters participated on various teams, winning championships and making all of Redford proud.

"We have approximately 175 kids involved now and, sure, you always want to see more," Smart said. "We do a lot of fundraisers throughout the year trying to keep fees down and reasonable for parents to get their kids involved. Our season is done now, but we hope these improvements will lead to greater opportunities next year."

Homemade ace

Sayles nails hole-in-one using favorite club

BY TIM SMITH
OBSERVER STAFF WRITER

BILL BRESLER | STAFF PHOTOGRAPHER

Marcia Sayles takes a swing in her Plymouth Township backyard with the club and ball that helped her tally a hole in one.

The link between Marcia Sayles and golf is getting stronger all the time.

Consider that Marcia met her husband, Joe Sayles, in 1992 during a Plymouth Kiwanis Club golf outing.

Since then, the Plymouth Township resident kept golfing with Joe until recent years and later joined the Ann Arbor Women's Golf Association — a league she continues playing in once or twice a week.

And on June 11, Marcia Sayles sank her first-ever hole-in-one at the University of Michigan Golf Course. Sayles used an 11-wood cobbled together in 1994 by former Schoolcraft College President Dick McDowell to ace the 118-yard 14th hole.

"I never had a hole in one before and I don't expect I'll ever get another one, but I just thought that was kind of unique to hit a homemade club," Sayles said. "Dick, I called him up and told him. Now I have a lady I play golf with in Florida and she wants one."

According to Sayles, the homemade golf club came her way almost by accident.

"When I retired in 1994 from Ameritech, I had been playing in some outings with him and I was struggling trying to hit 120 yards with an iron," Marcia recalled. "I said, boy, it sure would be great if I had a wood that would go that distance."

"And he said, 'You know, I make clubs out of my basement and I'll make you one.' He made me that 11-wood and I've been using it ever since. I just love the club."

She pulled it out of her bag once again when stepping up to the 14th hole at U-M Golf Course on June 11.

JUMPING FOR JOY

But Sayles decided she didn't need to take the help of another golf friend, Mary Cascardo of Plymouth Township.

Cascardo, part of the foursome along with Ann Arbor residents Carolyn Hiss and Linda Place, bought some wooden tees and offered Sayles one for the 14th hole.

Instead, Sayles "turned down her tee."

Bucks draw, 0-0

Goalkeeper Mitch Hildebrandt (Livonia Stevenson/Oakland University) notched his third shutout of the season Thursday as the injury-riddled Michigan Bucks battled host F.C. London (Ontario) to a scoreless draw in Premier Development League men's soccer action.

It was the second tie between the two teams this season.

"This London team is the hardest working team in the division and made it difficult for us all night," Bucks coach Gary Parsons said. "Mitch came up big in goal and the addition of veteran Ian Daniel on our back line really helped to earn the tie."

The Bucks, now 6-2-2 (20 points) in the Great Lakes Division of the PDL's Central Conference, were missing their top three scorers including PDL Player of the Week Kenny Uziogwe, Mauro Fuzetti and Stefan St. Louis.

London, meanwhile, is 6-1-3 (21 points) in the Great Lakes Division.

The Bucks' next home date will be Saturday, July 10 at Ultimate Soccer Arenas in Pontiac when they play the biggest match of the season against the first place Chicago Fire Premier.

Kickoff is set for 7:30 p.m. and tickets are on sale at Ultimate Soccer or by visiting www.bucksoccer.com.

Falcons golf outing

The Farmington High School Football Backers will have a golf outing and fund-raiser Sunday, Aug. 1, at River Back Golf Club in South Lyon.

The fee to participate is $90 per golfer; all proceeds will help fund the Farmington football program.

To participate, call Joe Pesci at (734) 730-7872 or Jim Clark at (248) 224-4020. All entries are due by Saturday, July 17.

Soccer partnership

The Plymouth Community United Futbol Club announced Thursday a formal affiliation agreement with the City of Plymouth.

"This is a major step forward for both the club and the city in the development of local, community based soccer programs," said in a release by the club's website. "We, at PCUFC look forward to working closely with the City of Plymouth, always insuring that we are providing the best opportunities for our players."

North cheer camp

The North Farmington High School Summer Cheer Camp will be Aug. 2-6. The times are 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. each day.

Girls and boys in the 5-12 age group are welcome to participate. The cost is $100 per child. You must register by Friday, July 23, to receive a free T-shirt. Campers must bring a bag lunch.

All participants will be invited to cheer with the varsity cheerleaders at the first home football game.

For more information, contact varsity cheer coach Amanda O'Neill at either amandaoneill@yahoo.com or 734-624-8252.

Beechview repeats as swim champ

Beechview Swim Club won its second consecutive all-Farmington city championship in summer swimming June 26 at Kendallwood Club.

Beechview swimmers amassed 592 points to finish ahead of Farmington Glen Aquatic (503), Woodbrooke Hills (438) and the Kendallwood Cruisers (430).

The meet is an annual fund-raiser for Special Olympics swimming. Kendallwood won the first city meet in 2008.

The two-time champions from Beechview are coached by Driska and Amy McCullough. Amy is a former all-state swimmer at Mercy High School who later competed for the University of Michigan and was invited to the U.S. Olympic Trials.

Beechview swimmers Olivia Rath (15-18), Emily Brunett (11-12) and Peter Romero (13-14) set meet records in their age groups in the 50 backstroke (33.06), 100 IM (1:18.97) and 50 freestyle (28.13), respectively.

Beechview had two double winners in Marina Borri (15-18) in the 50 breaststroke and 100 IM and Rath, who also won the 50 freestyle.

Beechview's other winners were Madison Ruffin, David Ratze, Katie Romero, Evan Kozara, Charlie Zink, Paige Kondek, Miranda Doecker,

The Farmington Glen winners were Abby Inch (2), Trevor Jones, Emma Inch, McKenna Greaves and Matt Lederer. The Kendallwood winners were Yurika Ueda (2), Nicholas Leshok (2), Danny McNeece, Scott Ansteth, Mickey McNeece (2), Andrew Kish (2) and Annika Gidley.

The Woodbrooke winners were Ethan Gell, Summer Edwards (2), Colin Caverly (2), Alden Kane, Caroline Strauss, Christopher Barron (2), Keith Erichsen (2), Emma Gell, Grace Kane and Kelsy Schultz.

More than 320 swimmers participated in the meet — an increase of about 50 from previous years. This meet introduces many younger swimmers to big-meet competition and serves as preparation for the Northwest Suburban Swim League's A and B finals at the end of the season.

All-Observer baseball squad a cut above

FIRST TEAM
P.J. Cooley, Sr. P, Farmington: The 6-foot-4 senior southpaw was the No. 1 pitcher for the Falcons, who were 26-9 and champions of the OAA South Division. Cooley, who has signed with Hillsdale College, broke 2007 all-stater Burny Mitchem's (University of Dayton) school record for single-season strikeouts with 100. He was 6-2 with five complete games and three shutouts. Cooley issued 12 walks in 57.7 innings and posted a 1.46 ERA. He was a .917 fielder; and he also had a double, a triple, two home runs and 10 RBI in 25 at-bats.

Kevin Delapaz, Sr. P, Canton: One of the best all-around athletes ever to represent Canton High School, the lefty excelled again in '10 as the Chiefs rolled all the way to the state quarterfinals.

The team's ace and second-team All-Stater went 6-4 with a 1.59 ERA while fanning 62 batters in 57.1 innings and helped his own cause offensively, compiling a .436 average.

For the third straight year, he pitched – and won – the district championship game.

"He's a big-game pitcher, that's why he's going to Bowling Green," Canton coach Mark Blomshield said. "He's got a good career in baseball ahead of him."

For his efforts, Delapaz was an all-conference honoree and capped it all off with a second team All-State selection as well as the MVP award at the East-West All-Star Game at Comerica Park.

Delapaz also was honored as the year's top male athlete at Canton High School.

Nate McHugh, Sr. P, Garden City: A repeat First Team selection, McHugh enjoyed a second consecutive stellar season of play by posting a 7-2 ledger and 2.81 ERA in 54-plus innings of work on the mound. The crafty southpaw hurled seven complete games, four of which were shutouts, and did not allow an earned run all season in league play.

At the plate, McHugh proved to be a tough out as he finished with a .395 batting mark that included 21 runs scored and 27 RBI.

"Nate has been the heart and soul of our team last year and this year," Garden City coach Steve Herman said. "He led us both on and off the field. He's not one of those loud, vocal leaders, but he was the one who stood up early in the year when we were struggling and took hold of the team. He put together two pretty consistent years. I think he had a little more trust with his fastball this year, but with Nate you never had to question what he was going to give you. Mentally he was always ready to pitch and you knew you were getting his best."

Seth Tschetter, Jr. C, Canton: Tschetter continues to amaze both behind the plate and at it.

A three-year starter at a demanding position, he consistently is a difference-maker whether throwing out base runners or coming up with clutch hit after clutch hit.

He earned All-KLAA and All-District honors after batting .363, driving in 25 runs. Beyond that, he showed leadership skills as co-captain.

His all-around efforts were crucial to Blomshield's team setting a school record 28 wins and making it to the Division 1 state quarterfinals.

"Seth is a ... big contributor to the Chiefs' three district titles over the past three seasons," Blomshield said. "Strong defensive play as well as skill with the bat has made Seth an excellent two-way player."

Joel Fisher, Sr. C, Farmington: The sturdy and durable senior catcher will continue playing at Michigan State following an outstanding prep career at Farmington. Fisher batted .422 with 36 RBI and a .725 slugging percentage this year. His 46 hits included a dozen doubles and seven home runs, and he accounted for 38 runs being scored. For a player with power, he had just eight strikeouts in 109 chances. Fisher was a .972 fielder with 214 putouts and 26 assists. He had just three passed balls, and he threw out 11 of 17 would-be base stealers.

"Joel and PJ were the perfect combination of pitcher/catcher and best friends," coach Pete Finn said. "They worked very hard for their success this year. It will be difficult to replace them. They competed like champions for three years."

Joe Galanty, Sr. 1B, Canton: Beginning with his five-homer spring trip to Cincinnati, Galanty showed big-time power for the 2010 Chiefs. After Galanty's powerful trip to Ohio, Blomshield praised the senior's dedication to excellence.

"He's worked really hard during the off-season and he's getting what he deserved," Blomshield said. "The payoff's right now."

The co-captain finished with nine homers to set a new school record, and batted .351 with 32 RBI while playing flawlessly at first (3 errors).

The All-KLAA and All-District selection has verbally committed to play baseball at Saginaw Valley State University.

His two-run homer against Northville clinched the Kensington Conference championship.

Joe Williams, Jr. 2B, Liv. Churchill: The junior earned All-KLAA honors batting .433 (45-for-104) with 11 doubles and one triple.

"Joe led the team in many of our offensive categories," Churchill coach Ron Targosz said. "He is a pure hitter who seemed to always put the ball in play."

Williams also had a slugging percentage of .558 and an on-base average of .512 while scoring 25 runs.

"Joe was very consistent all season long and came up with some very big hits for us. He will be a very big part of our offense next year. Joe played second, third, or we could put him behind plate. He was a very versatile player who could get the job done."

Zach Vera-Burgos, Jr. 3B: Vera-Burgos exploded onto the varsity scene to help his Cougar teammates win 21 of 29 games, including capturing league and district titles. A third baseman, Vera-Burgos hit from the No. 3 spot in the order much of the season, hammering opposing pitchers at a school-record clip of .537. He scored 37 runs, drove in 26 runs and stole 12 bases.

"I knew he was going to be a good hitter, but I didn't know he was going to be this good," Herman said. "He hit the ball no matter who the other team was throwing. As a team we hit the ball very well and Zach was the player leading the way showing every other hitter how to do it."

Austin Baglow, Sr. SS, Luth. Westland: The senior batted a school record .533 with 49 hits, including a school record 19 doubles and 40 runs score.

He also added three triples, one homer and 32 RBI.

either the No. 1 or No. 3 slot in the batting order, Melvin slammed opposing pitchers at a .510 batting clip this season. During his career at Thurston, Melvin hit .437 and struck out only 13 times in 257 at-bats. He saw playing time on the mound, behind the plate, in the infield at shortstop and outfield in center.

"Charlie was a very consistent player," Thurston coach Bob Snell. "You knew what you were going to get out of him every day in games and at practice. He played the game the right way doing everything we asked of him. He's that rare talent in that he is a true baseball player who loves the game and puts everything he has into it every time he steps on the field. We're going to miss him a lot."

Mike Nadratowski, Jr. OF, Plymouth: Nadratowski did it all for the Wildcats, providing defensive stability in center field and providing plenty of offense.

Nadratowski tracked down anything hit his way, even ranging into the gaps to make catches if necessary.

He was a reliable starting pitcher and hit .406 to boot — along with six homers, 29 RBI, 34 runs and 16 stolen bases. The scholar athlete's versatile efforts earned him All-District and All-Conference honors.

"You've seen him, he hits home runs and makes great defensive plays," said Plymouth head coach Bryan Boyd. "He does great things every time he steps on to the field."

Tyler Lynch, Jr. OF, Liv. Stevenson: The junior was the Spartans' top hitter with a .458 average (38-for-106) with 30 runs scored and 16 RBI.

Lynch also had a .567 on base average and a slugging percentage of .494 en route to All-KLAA honors.

"Tyler is a hard-working, dedicated young man who brings Stevenson's play to a higher level," Berryman said. "He had many big hits that led to Stevenson victories."

COACH OF THE YEAR

Rick Berryman, Liv. Stevenson: The sixth-year coach guided the Spartans to one of the area's biggest turnarounds with a 27-8 record after going 11-19 in 2009.

Stevenson also earned a co-share of the KLAA's Central Division title with Novi and Northville going 13-3.

Berryman, a retired administrator from the Redford Union Schools, last won Observer Coach of the Year in 1994 with RU. He also coaches the Michigan Rams in the Livonia Michigan Collegiate Baseball League.

"The 2010 turnaround season started in December with the commitment from the players to improve Stevenson baseball," said Berryman, who is 99-92 overall. "The entire team had a unity of purpose and dedication to personally improve to help the team improve. The coaching staff worked extremely hard to improve each player's physical and mental baseball skills, and many of the players excelled beyond their expectations. Numerous players went into the Stevenson record book. As a result, the unselfish attitude and work ethic of all involved led to an excellent season with many positive outcomes."

Bulls hurler Beauchaine stymies Rams' bats

The 22-and-under Michigan Bulls maintained their grip on first place in the Livonia Michigan Collegiate Baseball League with a 1-0 victory Wednesday over the 20-and-under Rams at Bicentennial Park.

Carson Beauchaine won the pitcher's duel with a 2-hitter as the Bulls improved their summer record to 16-2. Beauchaine struck out four and walked only two in seven innings.

He outdueled Rams starter Brandon Sinnery, who gave up only two hits himself in six innings. Sinnery fanned four and walked three as the Rams dropped to 14-4-1 in league play.

Only three balls reached the outfield between the two teams.

The Bulls tallied their lone run in the bottom of the first when lead-off hitter Devin VanderMolen walked, advanced to second on a sacrifice bunt and scored on a hit-and-run fielder's choice by Jacob Rhodes.

RAMS 3, PRIDE 0: Albion College's Mike Schypinski tossed a 2-hit shutout Wednesday as the Michigan Rams (15-4-1) defeated the 22-and-under Pride (8-9) in a Collegiate League make-up game at Bicentennial Park.

Schypinski faced just 25 batters in seven innings. He struck out 10 and did not allow a walk.

The Rams collected nine hits with Brad Guenther and Cam Walker leading the way with two each.

Aaron Cieslak, Bobby Thomas and Sam Ott each knocked in a run.

Losing pitcher Josh Wedesky gave up three runs on eight hits and two walks in four innings. Reliever Colin Coulter pitched three scoreless innings, allowing just one hit while fanning two.

Billy Hardin III (Madonna University) and Jason Potts had the lone hits for the Pride.

And she (Cascardo) said, "Well, let's see how you hit this ball then," you know, kidding me."

What happened next wasn't a joke.

"I hit the ball and it flew over the sand trap, landed on the green and curved into the hole," Sayles said. "We all jumped up and down and screamed."

"We were all so excited, it was unbelievable. I think everybody on the course probably heard us."

One of the perks of her hole-in-one was being invited by the Golf Association of Michigan to participate in a Sept. 7 shootout at Whispering Willows Golf Course in Livonia. The event is for all golfers with an ace under their belt in 2010.

Whether she scores another ace that day or not really won't worry Marcia, however.

"I'm not the greatest golfer in the world," she said. "But I have a lot of fun."

Garage sales draw buyers looking for some good deals

BY JOANNE MALISZEWSKI
CORRESPONDENT

Canton's Sandy Gillis chalks up the popularity of summertime garage sales to an age-old adage: "One man's junk is another man's treasure."

It must be true. As the summer progresses, more and more garage sale signs stand boldly at the entrances of neighborhoods in Observer area communities of Plymouth, Canton, Livonia, Farmington, Westland, Redford and Garden City. In fact, garage sales have become such a part of the American summer landscape that the second Saturday in August of each year is now designated "National Garage Sale Day." This year it is Aug. 14.

Unpredictable weather seems to be the only obstacle to the growing surge of garage sales this summer. Still, humidity, menacing dark clouds and rainstorms haven't daunted the die-hards. Families have spent weeks gathering their stuff, figuring out how to price items, and borrowing tables from friends and family to go into business for a weekend.

A recent threat of thunderstorms, however, kept Thomas Donovan a little on edge recently as he emptied his garage of merchandise left from his downtown Farmington store, Music Go Round, that closed recently.

The garage sale that filled Donovan's backyard was a dream come-true for his daughter, Ceara. A dad and daughter activity for a few years, Donovan and Ceara often visited other sales. But 10-year-old Ceara wanted her own.

"With running the store, I couldn't be home to do one," Donovan said.

It was bittersweet that the closing of his store finally gave Donovan the time to host a garage sale with his daughter. And with the help of his mother-in-law, Catherine McCarthy of Farmington, his daughter and her best friend, Rosie Burns-Pavlik, the sale drew a healthy stream of shoppers by early afternoon on its first day.

"I hope people can find things they can use," McCarthy said, as she continued to organize sale items neatly displayed under airy tents.

Donovan's goal: to clear out left-over store merchandise and to clean out stuff they have long wanted to get rid of in their house. That sentiment was echoed by Livonia resident Margaret Press, who just wanted to get rid of stuff at her sale on Hartell Street.

"I have asked everyone who stopped by and bought something, 'what else do you need?'" Press said.

Cleaning out the house and a need to make some extra cash appear to be the driving forces behind many of Wayne and Oakland counties' weekend garage sales.

ECONOMY

"I think the (poor) economy has had an effect," said Paulette Wyman of Canton, referring to a burgeoning supply of garage sales, as well as practical home items that shoppers are now buying.

The first customer who arrived at the Press garage sale scooped up furniture, including chairs and couches. Yet, Press and her sister, Marion Janda, as well as their mom, Lorraine Agee of Livonia, couldn't sell other household items such as vases, dishes and decorative pillows. But Press did sell four vacuum cleaners.

"Everything I was going to throw away, I sold," said Janda, who hauled belongings all the way from her home in Iowa for the sale.

The need to make extra money also drives Wyman, who has a couple of sales each year, and participates in others with friends. The money she earns from the sales helps support the approximate $20,000 in medical bills for her sons, Zachary, 13, and Jonathan, 10, who have autism.

Shopper George Gravelinger of Southfield finds a hidden treasure of record albums at a Farmington garage sale.

Livonia resident Margaret Press organizes a set of dishes at her garage sale.

"I really enjoy this," said Canton shopper Carole Szewchuk. "I find wonderful buys."

Paulette Wyman of Canton completes a sale for fellow resident Carole Szewchuk.

Have a successful garage sale plan

Is there a reason why some people have successful garage sales and others don't?

Ask Paulette Wyman of Canton who shares her secrets for success. As a means of raising money to help pay her sons' medical bills, Wyman offers the following tips.

Advertise. That's Wyman's first step in creating a successful sale. Some residents advertise in newspapers and online. Thomas Donovan of Farmington let the world know of his sale with a newspaper advertisement in the Observer & Eccentric Newspapers that he won in an auction at Farmington Methodist Church. (Map garage sales from throughout the area at hometownlife.com)

Still other residents just use large signs in their neighborhoods. But be sure to check with your municipality. Each has different rules. Livonia, for example, requires an application and a permit with a $5 fee. Many communities have rules as to where you can place signs, as well as the size of the signs. Communities may also have rules as to how many garage sales you may have during the season.

Unlike many who host garage sales, Wyman doesn't wait until Thursday or Friday to open. She starts on Wednesday to get a head start. "A lot of people wait for the weekend so I try to get people before that."

Wyman and others who are well experienced at garage sales suggest that you give customers a discount if they buy a large amount. To be sure, Wyman said you should not wait until the final day to slash prices. The goal is to sell. In today's economy, it's best to cut prices after the first day.

Another tip — especially on humid days — is to provide guests with bottles of water. If you help shoppers feel physically comfortable, they will stay longer and spend more time going through the items for sale, Wyman said.

Don't forget it's a modern world. While looking at music accessories and speakers from Donovan's Music Go Round store in downtown Farmington that closed recently, a young man quickly texted his friends to let them know what was available.

If you are shopping for something in particular, round up the troops and send friends to garage sales with the promise they will text or call if they see what you need. Garage sales hosts should ask visitors if they know anyone who would like a particular item. If so, ask them to call or text.

Work on recognizing shoppers who are buying to put items on e-Bay or shoppers who are buying for resale shops. That will give you a clue as to what will sell fast.

Typically, e-Bay sellers and owners of resale shops are looking for the unusual or rare. "Anything that is vintage," Wyman said. She is certain that the 1973 Lite Brite toy she recently sold will soon be seen on e-Bay.

"You can spot them," Wyman added.

time with each other. Looking at a table-full of merchandise, Lisa said, "if I like something, I generally already really know the price."

BOOK LOVER

Books are on the top of Szewchuk's shopping list, but she also buys items that she gives to a friend to make ornamental trees. Other shoppers at garage sales in late June were seen buying kids' clothing, toys, knickknacks, lamps and other household and kitchen items.

"Men come when there are clocks, tools or fishing gear," Wyman said, adding that garage sales tend to draw more women than men, unless the men are looking for something specific.

At the Donovan garage sale in Farmington, for example, shopper George Graveldinger of Southfield, sorted through some four or five well-placed boxes of record albums. He searched for music by Neil Young, Bob Dylan, Led Zeppelin and The Who.

"I'm an artist. I play music while I paint. I get away from commercial radio," Graveldinger said, who was shopping with his wife, Jenni.

Proud of his record collection, Donovan congratulated himself with being able to part with so many of his albums. "I kept about one-eighth of them."

Meanwhile, Donovan's

daughter, Ceara, and her best friend, Rosie, stepped in as accountants for the Farmington garage sale. Seated at a check-out table, the girls waited on shoppers and found bags in which to pack the merchandise. While keeping track of the sales the girls also offered hand-made bookmarks and asked for a 25-cent donation for the food pantry at St. Alexander Catholic Church in Farmington Hills.

"We kind of got bored watching TV," Rosie said. "And playing with dolls," Ceara added.

ANOTHER QUESTION ON INJECTING JOINTS

In a past column, I discussed the question of how often could a physician inject a joint. That discussion brought out the point that the number of times a doctor can inject a joint is not a specific number such as 3, 4 or five times a year. Rather, how often a physician can inject a joint depends on the benefit to the patient of the joint injection.

If both patient and physician agree the injection gave benefit, then repeating the injection is reasonable.

A related question is: how many joints can a physician inject at any one appointment. It is not uncommon for a patient to hurt in a shoulder, knee, wrist and ankle at the time of seeing the physician. Or, the patient may be experiencing a flare that involves both shoulders and both knees.

Is it appropriate for the doctor to inject steroid into all the painful joints?

In most cases, the physician does not expect to inject all the painful joints at a time when a patient is hurting in so many places. That type of flare calls for a revision of medication. Furthermore, joint injection involves the use of local anesthesia; individuals, particularly the elderly are limited as to how much anesthesia they can tolerate.

Usually, the practical limit is no more than three joint injections at any one appointment. In patients over age 70 or with serious medical conditions such as lung or heart disease, two injections may be the better number.

Help senior agency by golfing at outing on Friday, July 30

The Senior Alliance (TSA) plans a golf outing Friday, July 30, at the Van Buren Golf Course.

The Senior Alliance 2010 Golf Classic supports TSA, a non-profit, Area Agency on Aging 1-C, that is designated to help thousands of seniors and caregivers throughout southern and western Wayne County through the Meals-on-Wheels program, the Holiday Meals-on-Wheels program, information and assistance and many other services critical for seniors to live their best life. Ninety-three cents of every dollar raised from the golf event will go directly to senior services.

The 9 A.M. shotgun start will kick-off a day filled with opportunities to win great raffle prizes, eat delicious food, and possibly win the cherished "Ficano Cup." The winning foursome is presented with the trophy each year.

Reserve a foursome or become an event sponsor by calling Linda DeVore, information services manager, at (734) 727-2017. The Senior Alliance (TSA) is a private non-profit agency that operates in Western and Southern Wayne County. TSA works to enable older persons to function as independently as possible in the community environment which best suits their needs. For more information call (734) 722-2830 or (800) 815-1112.

Doug and Lia Moore of Livonia

Doug and Lia Moore on their wedding day

A DECADE TOGETHER

Doug Moore, Livonia parks and forestry supervisor, and his wife Lia Koch Moore celebrated their 10-year anniversary on June 30.

Doug is from Capac and Lia is from Canton. They met in 1999 in Dearborn and married eight months later at Christus Victor Lutheran Church in Dearborn Heights. Doug became a step-father to Lia's daughter, Taylor Furda. They quickly added to their small family. Justin, Cameron and McKenna joined the family to create their family of six.

The family resides in Livonia.

Keep kids sun-safe at summer camp

Summer camp provides children a chance to spend more time outdoors, but all that time in the sun can be dangerous to their health.

Without proper sun protection, a fun summer at camp can lead to painful sunburns, premature skin aging and skin cancer. Just one severe sunburn in childhood doubles the chances of developing melanoma later in life.

Children with fair skin, blond or red hair and blue or green eyes are at the highest risk of sunburn. But darkerskinned children also need sun protection. "Fewer than one-third of children between the ages of eight and eleven wear sunscreen," said Perry Robins, MD, President of The Skin Cancer Foundation. "Parents need to teach children from an early age how to be sun-safe and reduce their risk of skin cancer."

There are many things parents can do to keep their kids sun-safe at summer camp. You may want to ask:

- Are the camp counselors trained in sun safety?
- Do counselors remind children to apply sunscreen regularly?
- Are outdoor activities scheduled in the early morning or late afternoon? Ultraviolet (UV) rays are most intense from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.
- Are there adequate places for campers to seek shade during outdoor activities?
- Parents also should prepare their children before they leave for camp with a sun safety lesson, including how to use sunscreen. An SPF 15+ sunscreen (water resistant formulas are especially good) should be used regularly.
- Apply 1 ounce (2 tablespoons) of sunscreen to all exposed areas, 30 minutes before going outside.

- Reapply every 2 hours and right after swimming or sweating heavily.
- Remind children to cover those easy to miss spots, such as the back of ears and neck, as well as the tops of feet and hands.
- If parents suspect their children are not using enough sunscreen, or not reapplying often enough, an SPF 30 sunscreen should be used instead.

Parents also should make sure that children know how to cover up with sun-protective clothing. Ideal sun-safe clothing includes long-sleeved shirts and long pants. Denim clothing is especially protective. But since campers typically wear only T-shirts and shorts, they should take some extra precautions.

- Wear T-shirts with a dense weave in dark or bright colors.
- If they won't wear a wide-brimmed hat, a baseball cap is better than nothing.
- Wear UV-blocking sunglasses to protect their eyes and the sensitive skin that surrounds them.

With proper guidance, children can learn to protect themselves and enjoy summer fun without sacrificing the health of their skin.

The Skin Cancer Foundation is the only global organization solely devoted to the prevention, detection and treatment of skin cancer. The mission of the Foundation is to decrease the incidence of skin cancer through public and professional education and research. For more information, visit www.SkinCancer.org.
