Stevenson breaks the ice!

State champs
stop Hartland
in D2 final, 5-4

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

They've earned the right to "Spartan On" as Stevenson did what no other Livonia prep hockey team has done in 43 years on Saturday — win a coveted state championship.

The Spartans are the newly crowned MHSAA's Division 2 champions by virtue of their 5-4 victory at Plymouth's Compuware Arena against fellow Kensington Lakes Activities Association member Hartland.

Stevenson, getting a pair of goals each from senior defenseman Travis Harvey and star junior forward Dominic Lutz, survived a wild second period that featured six goals to hoist the state championship trophy.

"You have to do it to feel it," Harvey said. "I'm speechless right now."

For Lutz, who notched his 42nd and 43rd goals of the season, it was a surreal moment.

"It's unbelievable," he said. "A lot of my teammates have been playing together for years and it just means a ton to me and it's great accomplish this. We've worked so hard and it's great to be rewarded. It was a great team win."

It was 1-1 after one period as Harvey scored from Mick Sinclair and Blake Battjes at 4:55, but Hartland's Austin Flores countered when he beat Spartan goaltender Connor Humitz in the upper right corner from Chris McRae and John Nagel.

The newly crowned Livonia Stevenson Spartans celebrate their MHSAA Division 2 state title after a 5-4 win Saturday over Hartland at Compuware Arena.

McRae then scored unassisted at 54 seconds of the second period to give the Eagles a momentary 2-1 advantage, but Stevenson answered with three straight goals.

Lutz connected for two in a row, one unassisted at 4:30 and the second from Jake Kierdorf at 7:07 followed by Harvey's second of the game from Ray Chartier at 9:10 to make it 4-2.

"In this kind of game you try and pick your corners, but in the end you've just got to get good shots on net," Lutz said. "My second goal ... I just threw it at the net and it deflected off someone and got in. I shoot pucks all the time, but once it comes down it, you've got to just put it on net and make it's on the goal and not wide."

Lutz's first goal, however, was a beauty as he took a pass from Kierdorf between the circles and ripped a shot by Hartland netminder Nick Wineka.

"That time I had no pressure and was able to place it where I wanted," Lutz said. "My slap shot takes more time, but my wrist shot I think I'm way more accurate with it. And it just seems to work for me."

Hartland's Ned O'Boyle, however, made

Taylor makes GLIAC squad

Grand Valley State women's basketball senior Briauna Taylor (Livonia Franklin) was recently named to the All-Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference first-team and the All-Defensive squad.

It is the third straight season that the 5-foot-9 Taylor earned first-team honors and first time for the defensive award as voted on by the conference coaches.

Taylor paced the 19-8 Lakers with 15.8 points, 6.9 rebounds and 3.2 assists per game.

She also shot 44.7 percent from the field to rank third on the team and in the top 20 in the conference.

Taylor led the team in scoring 16 times and grabbed a team-high in rebounds on 15 occasions. She had five double-doubles on the year.

Earning GLIAC North Division Player of the Week three times in her senior campaign, Taylor hit double figures in all by five games and recorded 20 or more points in nine games including 30 in a win against Michigan Tech.

Barber CCHA rookie honor

Miami University (Ohio) freshman forward Riley Barber (Livonia) was named to the All-Rookie team in Central Collegiate Hockey Association.

Barber leads the RedHawks offensively with a 36 points and 15 goals and 21 assists in 34 games.

The Washington Capitals draft pick has 11 multi-point games and was named CCHA Gongshow Rookie of the Week four times.

4 MU cagers All-Academic

Four Madonna University players were among 178 student-athletes named to the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics Daktronics Division II Women's Basketball Scholar-Athlete Team.

The four players, who carried a 3.5 grade point average or better, included seniors Michelle Lindsey (Birmingham Marian), Kristie Porada (Gibralta Carlson) and Heather Pratt (Flushing), along with sophomore Rachel Melcher (Marian).

For Lindsey (nursing), Porada (pre-medicine) and Pratt (business administration), the selection marks the trio's second straight season of earning the honor, while Melcher (biology) is making her first appearance on the squad.

All four were also honored as member of the Wolverine-Hoosier Athletic Conference All-Academic team earlier this fall.

Glenn girls orbit into Final 4

Rockets hand
King 1st loss

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

Westland John Glenn's star twin guard duo of Raine and Raven Bankston have never set foot inside the confines Michigan State University's Breslin Center.

But that will all change Friday when the 24-1 Lady Rockets will play defending Class A champion Grand Haven (26-0) in a 1 p.m. state semifinal courtesy of a dramatic 55-50 win Tuesday night over previously unbeaten Detroit King in a quarterfinal game at Detroit Western International.

The senior transfers from Detroit Mumford combined for 33 of Glenn's 55 points with 17 and 16, respectively, while fellow senior ShaKeya Graves tallied a game-high 22, including 18 in the second half, to spark the victory.

They were the only three Glenn players to score.

"It means a lot because me and my sister have not been to the Breslin Center," Raine said. "We never made it this far. It's the first time."

No Lady Rocket team had ever reached a quarterfinal and it didn't look good at halftime with the Rockets staring at an eight-point deficit (27-17).

And to make matters worse, Glenn was playing without starting junior guard Kaira Barnes and found themselves in foul trouble with Graves and Raven Bankston each picking up three personal fouls. The two then each picked up their fourths by the end of the third.

"I just told myself I couldn't foul out because my team needed me," Raven said. "I just had to play under control and stay humble, and that's what I did. Half our team are seniors, so we knew if we lose, it's our last game."

Graves, who was just 2-for-10 in the first half, went wild during the third quarter scoring 14 of Glenn's 25 points as the Rockets stayed within striking distance, 47-41.

A rebound basket by Raine Bankston with 6:48 left in the final quarter evened the count at 46-all. Raine then made the key play of the game coming out of a timeout when she converted a three-point play with 2:54 to go, putting Glenn ahead by two, 51-49.

Raven then came down following a King turnover and scored on a short shot in the key to put Glenn up 53-50 with 1:57 remaining. Graves followed with a pair of critical free throws with 1:22 left to seal the win.

King's last point came when LaShai Geeter made one-of-two free throws with 2:21 to go to pull the Crusaders to within one, 51-50.

"My mind is just going a million miles an hour right now," Glenn second-year coach Eric Kovatch said. "I can't pick out one thing, but we just played hard. Our girls wanted it. They wanted to go to Breslin Center and they've been working really hard. It's a great high school basketball game."

"At our first open gym on Sept. 9 our goal was to get to the Breslin Center. We're not done, but it will be a great experience for our kids."

Graves, meanwhile, called her first-half performance "horrible," but things quickly changed for the better in the third. "At the beginning of the game I kind of played slow," said the DePaul University signee. "But towards the third quarter I knew I had to help my team, so I had to pick it up."

Stevenson 3rd in D1 swim finals

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

It could only be categorized as a job well done and a highly productive MHSAA Division 1 meet effort Saturday for the Livonia Stevenson boys swim team.

The Spartans posted their best finish since 2006 by placing third with 191 points, only behind defending state champion Saline, which edged Birmingham Brother Rice for first by four points, 313-309, for the team title at the Holland Aquatics Center.

The Hornets captured two relays – the 200-yard medley and the 200 freestyle – along with eight individual events.

"I couldn't expect a better outcome," said Stevenson coach Jeff Shoemaker, who guided the Spartans to a third-place finish in 2006. "I would have never expected us to go as fast as we did. I'm really impressed with the boys and still pretty on a high about it. It's one of my better seasons, one I'll remember for sure."

Stevenson junior Nick Arakelian was the only individual to break Saline's first-place individual domination when he set a Division 1 state record in the 500 freestyle with a time of 4:27.75.

Arakelian was also runner-up to Saline's Josh Ehrman in the 200 individual medley going 1:48.22 (to Ehrman's MHSAA all-class record of 1:47.86).

Stevenson's 200 medley relay team of John Ferrara, Arakelian, Bradley Bielicki and Jake Goeddeke (1:34.42) was also runner-up to Saline (1:30.01 all-class record).

"Nick had the fastest split I've ever seen a high schooler go in the 50 breaststroke (24.76) – and that's 20 years of experience – and he just pretty much made the medley relay and shattered the school record by over a second-and-a-half," Shoemaker said.

The Spartans' quartet of Jackson O'Dowd, Ferrara, Parker Belmore and Arakelian also went 3:07.07 to place second behind Rice's 3:03.78.

"He went 45.27 (100 split) in the last (400 freestyle relay), which shattered our school record probably by almost four seconds," Shoemaker said. "Without Nick we couldn't have gotten two All-American relays. He certainly made the difference in our point total obviously. He was second in power points for swimmer of the meet, just right behind Josh Ehrman, who actually won it. But I think he could have swam a couple of other events and would have won them without a problem, but he wanted to swim the IM because he wanted to go against Josh, which was the number one competition in the meet. That's what he wanted to go for."

Not to be outdone was Ferrara, a senior who placed second in the 100 backstroke (50.28) to Saline's David Boland (49.75), along with a fifth in the 200 IM (1:54.54).

"He (Ferrara) did what he was going to do," Shoemaker said. "His 100 backstroke dropped a little, but his 200 IM was his most impressive going (1:53.83 in the prelims). He really upped his value scoring high in two events. The backstroke is his best and favorite event, but 200 IM helped us out quite a bit. He also had a real nice swim in the 400 freestyle relay. Both he and Nick are pivotal to our accomplishments this year."

O'Dowd, a sprint freestyler, also scored points for Stevenson with 10th-place finishes in the 50- and 100 freestyles with times of 20.96 and 47.19, respectively.

"I think only two freshmen scored in the meet and for a freshman to score in four events, and in an All-American relay, was pretty impressive. He's probably the fastest anchor we have on our medley (relay), but because we wanted to score more points, I took him out of that medley and put Jake Goeddeke in it and we still ended up second the medley. But with Jackson in our 200 freestyle relay, we ended scoring more points in that relay, which was the difference in how high we scored."

"It was a big gamble and Jackson never said one word about it, so it was a real team commitment and he made a sacrifice for the team. Very impressive for a 14-year-old."

Also scoring for Stevenson was Grant McNamara, 10th, 100 breaststroke (59.88), Belmore, 11th in the 100 backstroke (53.47); and Tommy O'Donohue, 13th, 100 breaststroke (1:00.88).

All three are juniors. "Probably the most impressive swimmer of the meet was Parker," Shoemaker said. "He dropped in all of his events and swam extremely well in the backstroke coming off the 200 freestyle relay. He really stepped up and put his name on the map and we really expect big things from him next year."

Next year should be more of the same for the Spartans, who lose only state qualifiers Brandon Shatter and Ferrara to graduation.

"The nice thing about it is that it just wasn't about Nick," said Shoemaker, whose team set seven school records this season. "Don't get me wrong, he made the difference, but he wasn't the only one contributed. But I just think that by him leading and by him going out in front, it built all the other ones up and made the other boys go faster, too."

Riding a wave

Arakelian, Ferrara set swim standards

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

Livonia Stevenson may never see such a dynamic duo again in boys swimming as junior Nick Arakelian and graduating senior John Ferrara.

The two were highly instrumental in the Spartans' success this season as they placed third in Saturday's MHSAA Division 1 finals held at the Holland Aquatics Center.

If Arakelian, who was

swimming in his first high school season, was Batman, then Ferrara was his best accomplice in Robin.

Arakelian, who swam for the Kingfish Aquatic Club in last year's U.S. Olympic Trials, broke the MHSAA Division 1 mark in the 500-yard freestyle (4:27.75) and placed second to Saline's Josh Ehrman in the 200 individual medley (1:48.22).

Ferrara, bound for Oakland University, finished runner-up in the 100 backstroke (50.28) and placed fifth in the 200 IM (1:54.54).

The two also helped Stevenson set high school All-American standard clockings in the 200 medley and 400 freestyle relays with times of 1:34.42 and 3:07.07.

Arakelian also figured in six of Stevenson's seven school records set this season, while Ferrara broke his own mark in the 100 backstroke.

"I'd say I did well," Arakelian said. "The 200 IM wasn't quite where I wanted it to be, but when it came down to it, Josh (Ehrman) is a great swimmer and I have a lot of respect for him. We both trained hard and he came out on top. That's just how it is sometimes."

Arakelian certainly didn't duck the competition either as Ehrman broke an all-MHSAA class record with a time of 1:47.86.

"I knew I wanted to do the 200 IM," Arakelian said. "I knew Josh (Ehrman) and I would have a great race."

This only the beginning of a busy offseason for Arakelian, who will compete this weekend (along with Ferrara) in the state club swim championships at Eastern Michigan University followed by the sectionals in Ohio, the World Championship Trials next month in Indianapolis and the U.S. Nationals at the end of August in Irvine, Calif.

He said he plans to return for another season of high school swimming at Stevenson.

"Overall, I'm really happy with it," Arake-

ANDRE J. JACKSON | GANNETT NEWS SERVICE

lian said of his state meet. "Our relays swam top-notch. I was about four seconds off from my (500 freestyle) time at (USA Swimming) Nationals, so I wanted to get down there for that."

"I loved it. It was a great experience. It was great. It was a lot of fun. I loved the relays and the team atmosphere."

Arakelian, meanwhile, will probably follow the same script for his senior season at Stevenson under coach Jeff Shoemaker.

"Going into next year those two same events will be there if I need them," he said. "I'd like to maybe do more of the 100 breaststroke and maybe the 200 free. I'm not sure of maybe what events of what I'll be swimming next year at 'states.' I need to focus on the same events for another season and he (Shoemaker) will put me wherever he needs me for the dual meets."

Ferrara, meanwhile, also plans to resume training immediately with his Livonia Community Swim Club.

But he'll also be able to look favorably upon his senior year.

"I think we did really good, we trained hard, we were very dedicated to what we did and all-around it was a good season," Ferrara said. "I think we performed well and had a lot of lifetime bests and was glad to be part of the team."

"It was a success. I'll miss the team bonding and all the friendships." And it didn't hurt to have a national caliber swimmer in Arakelian join the team for the first time.

"I think he pushed us in practice and in meets," Ferrara said, "and provided a lot of team spirit."

Stevenson's Dominic Lutz celebrates after scoring one of his two goals in Saturday's 5-4 Division 2 state championship win over Hartland.

Skate-worthy Spartans' Lutz catalyst in state title run

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

Livonia has certainly produced its fair share of standout high school hockey teams over the years — and that's going back to the days of old Bentley.

But on Saturday, the 2012-13 Stevenson squad broke new ground earning its first-ever MHSAA state title with a 5-4 win over a very determined Hartland squad Saturday at Plymouth's Compuware Arena.

This is the first year that all three Livonia schools — Churchill, Franklin and Stevenson — have all been in Division 2 instead of Division 1.

That's because of all the unified hockey programs that have proliferated throughout the state even though Stevenson's enrollment remains steady at 2,005 students.

And even with the surprising switch to Division 2, Stevenson played a demanding Division 1-type schedule throughout the regular season, which included a win and a tie over Division 1 state finalists Novi Detroit Catholic Central and Brighton, along with losses to Division 1 semifinalist University of Detroit-Jesuit and Division 3 finalist Bloomfield Hills Cranbrook.

So when the state playoffs started, the Spartans were well prepared to make their move.

And they definitely seized the opportunity.

"Again, this team talked about at the beginning of the year that we're the 43rd year of high school hockey in Livonia and we're the 43rd team in Stevenson history," said a raspy-voiced Stevenson coach David Mitchell. "This is the first chance a Livonia school has had a chance to play in the state final and to get it done ... this is not just for Stevenson, but all high school hockey in Livonia. We've had some great teams and some great kids go through our program and to do that is very special. Hopefully the whole community can enjoy this."

Hartland, the KLAA's Lakes Conference champs, had other ideas despite being an underdog to the Spartans, who were ranked No. 1 a majority of the year in Division 2.

"They played an outstanding game and I want to congratulate them on an exceptional season for them," Mitchell said of the Eagles. "It was also their first appearance in the state finals. I think you saw two high school hockey programs really take a step forward today. We're both from the KLAA so it's great for our league."

Stevenson was the odds-on favorite, but it was a game that took many twists and turns throughout the three periods.

"I don't how the scoring was going to be, but I knew it'd be a close game, though," said Stevenson start junior forward Dominic Lutz, who paced the Spartans with 43 goals this season.

"Every time one team would score, the other would come back. It was a rally back-and-forth until it finally evened out towards the end there."

The second period as a head scratcher for sure as six goals were scored between the two teams.

"There were upsides for both teams in different parts of the game," Hartland coach Rich Gadwa said. "That second period was wild — absolutely. I think going into the third we popped an early one and created a lot of momentum. We were really pushing there at the end, caught crossbars, posts and good saves by their goaltender (Connor Humitz). We just couldn't buy that tying goal. We weathered a good storm there at the end.

"Good job Stevenson and Hartland."

The Spartans' standout defenseman Travis Harvey, who along with Lutz tallied two goals in the championship final, knew it would come down to defense.

And the Spartans were able to keep Hartland off the board during the final 16 minutes and 46 seconds after Chris McRae's goal cut the deficit to 5-4.

"He (Mitchell) just said we just got to keep playing and focus on getting it deep," Lutz said. "We didn't need any more to win, we just needed to keep the puck out of our own end. It was unfortunate they got a goal right off the bat, but no one got down and we kept playing. We were fortunate to get the 'W' at the end."

There were many heroes throughout the season for the Spartans, but Lutz, despite only being a junior, certainly belongs among the upper echelon of high school players to come out of Livonia.

And it's his laser-like shot that separates him from rest of the pack.

"He has the shot because of his work ethic," Mitchell said. "The kid shoots more pucks than anybody I've ever had. He's developed a shot because of how hard he works. His work ethic is second to none and the other guys in this program feed off that work ethic. He challenges me to continue to work and he always challenges me to be busy and to keep doing better. So, as coaches, we don't hold him back. I'm just so happy for him that all hard work paid off today."

A happy day for Lutz, his teammates, coaches, fellow Stevenson students, alumni and Livonia for sure.

State quality 3 area gymnasts earn All-State honors

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

For Livonia Red senior Katie Kretzschmar and Livonia Blue senior Jamie Jasinski, the MHSAA Individual Girls Gymnastics finals Saturday at Plymouth was icing on the cake.

And for Livonia Blue freshman Bri Rhoad, it's only just the beginning. Kretzschmar came up with two All-State (top 10) performances in Division 1 placing eight on the balance beam (9.275) and 10th on the uneven parallel bars (9.075).

She also added Academic All-State honors to her resume.

"Katie is a dedicated and very hard worker and I knew she could place," Livonia Red coach Kelly Grodzicki said. "Competition was very tough. There are many great gymnasts and the talent is amazing, so Katie knew she had to focus and hit her routines and she did just that."

Rhoad, meanwhile, showed her versatility in Division 2 finishing seventh in the all-around (35.425), including an All-State performance in vault (9.25) where she took sixth. She also just missed on floor exercise with an 11th (9.125).

"I'm proud of Bri for going out there and leaving nothing behind," Livonia Blue coach Lisa Broomfield said. "She is a growing gymnast and making it to 'states' her freshmen year and placing on vault, and in the all-around, I could not be happier for her."

Meanwhile, Jasinski also took Division 2 All-State honors on the balance beam placing seventh with a 9.075.

"I'm very proud of my senior Jamie on her first appearance at 'states' and having the best routine I have ever seen her do," Broomfield said. "Her placing at 'states' made that routine even more special. She worked hard to get there and she shined that day."

"Myself and the team were elated to make it to the state finals and finish seventh," Livonia Red coach Kelly Grodzicki said.

Katie Kretzschmar was Red's top individual performer with scores of 9.35 (uneven bars) and 9.2 (balance beam).

"Katie's bars and beam for the were very strong," Grodzicki said.

Competing in the in the all-around was Marissa McVey and Shannon Diaz.

McVey's scores included 9.0 (vault), 8.3 (bars), 8.35 (beam) and 8.85 (floor exercise), while Diaz went 8.475 on vault; 8.55 on bars; 8.775 on beam; and 8.875 on floor.

Sydney Grenier contributed an 8.65 on vault, 8.1 on beam and 8.625 on floor.

Jackie Dzuirgot also competed in three events including vault (8.75); Bars (7.8) and 8.35 (floor).

An injury kept McGowan out of three events.

"Despite this, the girls stepped up and really performed," Grodzicki said. "We got top performance on vault from McVey, Dzuirgot and Twigg. Grenier and Diaz also performed well on the floor."

Goodrich zips around Ladywood 66-40

By Brad Emons
Observer Staff Writer

It appears defending state Class B girls champion Goodrich still has plenty of tread left on the tires.

The Martians ran over Livonia Ladywood Tuesday night, ending the Blazers' best state tournament run since 1992 with a 66-40 quarterfinal victory before a large turnout at Lake Fenton High School.

Getting a game-high 26 points from 5-foot-5 sophomore guard Tania Davis, Goodrich improved to 23-3 overall and will face 24-1 Grand Rapids South Christian in the state semifinals beginning at 7:50 p.m. Friday at Michigan State University's Breslin Center.

Three other Martian players scored in double figures including Taylor Gleason (14), Isabella O'Brien (11) and Jessica Ashby (10).

GIRLS HOOPS

"We just didn't have it," said Ladywood coach Anthony Coratti, whose team finished 17-8 overall. "We moved the ball pretty well, got open shots, but had a hard time putting it in the basket."

Goodrich led 18-9 after one quarter and 38-19 at halftime as Davis scored 18. The Martians then put it out of reach with a 13-4 third-period run to go up 51-23.

Three players accounted for all of Ladywood's points with senior guards Shelby Walsh and Andie Anastos scoring 18 and 17, respectively.

Senior Andria Gietl

added five points, while Anastos grabbed a team-high 12 rebounds.

"Andie did a pretty good job on Gleason, but the Davis kid killed us," Coratti said. "She was able to get where she wanted. She played very well, she made shots. She's only a sophomore, but she's a big-timer."

Goodrich made 18-of-26 free throws, while the Blazers hit 4-of-6.

"The group of seven seniors had an amazing four years," Coratti said. "I'm extremely lucky as a coach to have been able to work with them those four years. I couldn't be prouder of a group of kids as far as where they've come from and to where they've gotten themselves."

CHAMPS

it a one-goal game again with an unassisted effort at 9:56 of the second.

But Chartier's drive from the left point was redirected off an Eagle player to put Stevenson back on top by two again, 5-3, at 12:48.

"We would rather not play that way," Stevenson coach David Mitchell said. "We'd rather play a little more defensive and shut things down, but these guys next to me — when they see opportunities — they tend to go. We saw some opportunities and took some, but give Hartland credit in the world because once we started looking for goals, they caught us. They turned around and buried some of their own."

Although Stevenson held a 40-29 shots on goal advantage, it was no piece of cake as Hartland (19-9-2) made things interesting just 14 seconds into the third period when Chris McRae notched his second goal of the game to cut the deficit to 5-4.

The Spartans' intention was to clamp down defensively entering the third.

"That was the game plan coming out, but they (Hartland) kind of changed our game plan a little bit because they got that early goal," Mitchell said. "Everybody says that two-goal lead is not the best to have in hockey."

"They (Hartland) do a very good job of moving the puck and creating opportunities. We knew this coming in. We knew it was going to be a hockey game and it was. I think was a little more entertaining than we would have liked, but good entertaining hockey game."

Ironically, McRae's second goal was the last of the game as the Spartans were able to fend off the Eagles, who were also making their first-ever state finals appearance.

After fighting off a Stevenson power play, Hartland made one last-ditch effort in an attempt to tie the game. The Eagles called timeout with 2:21 left and pulled Wineka for the extra attacker in the final minute, but couldn't tally the equalizer.

"They forechecked hard and we just got puck deep, get it out," Harvey said. "Mitchell just tells us get puck out, glass it because no one is going to be us on offense. We committed to block shots, take it, play over the pain and it was going to be worth it all in the end."

Stevenson held a 12-9 shot advantage in the final period.

"It definitely wasn't in the game plan to get in a shootout with them," Hartland coach Rick Gadwa said. "But it's a 5-4 championship game, the crowd is screaming, you can't ask for a better game, I don't think."

"That was typical Hartland right there. A lot of games we'd fall behind and have to battle back. Sometimes we finished on top and sometimes we didn't. You talk about matching lines — our top line matched their top line. They went goal-for-goal. At the end it comes down to a bounce here and there and they (Stevenson) finished with the last good bounce. It was a solid effort both ways."

In the Spartans' six-game run to the title, the 3-2 double-overtime quarterfinal victory over Ann Arbor Pioneer may have been the defining moment.

"We got pressured by a good Ann Arbor Pioneer team so we were comfortable in this situation," Mitchell said.

"Whereas last time we weren't as comfortable. The team learns and they learned today. We stayed relaxed, we stayed calm and we had a lot of chances to get that sixth goal. We didn't get it, but we hung on."

For Stevenson, it was a jubilant post-game celebration as players and coaches mobbed each other.

And afterward, Mitchell was still beaming during the postgame press conference.

"It's been a process for us all year," the Stevenson coach said. "We're a family and better than that, we're more than a family, and I couldn't be happier for the Stevenson administration and the alumni, and the whole Livonia community."

Crusaders' Gooding NAAIA hurler of week

Livonia's Jeremy Gooding and Canton's Dan Stoney combined to keep Avila University (Mo.) out of the hit column as the Madonna University baseball team closed its 2013 spring trip with a sweep at the RussMatt Central Florida Invitational at Lake Myrtle Park.

The Crusaders took the opener, 2-1, followed by the no-hitter in an 8-0 victory to improve to 12-5 overall.

Gooding (3-0), a right-hander from Dearborn Divine Child, went the first six innings for MU, walking five while striking out nine before giving way to Stoney.

The Canton right-hander allowed the lead-off runner to reach, but struck out the final two batters to complete the first MU no-hitter since the 2008 season.

Victor Barron and Steve Pelletier (Farmington Harrison) led MU's 15-hit attack each going 3-for-4.

Alex Charles and Justin Cook contributed two hits apiece, while Shane Dokey and Barron each knocked in three runs.

Gooding was also named NAAIA National Pitcher of the Week after finishing 2-0, including a 3-2 victory over No. 6-ranked Point Park (Pa.)

University on March 4.

In that game, Gooding allowed two runs on four hits and only one walk while striking out a season-high 10.

Meanwhile, in Game One, MU scored a run in the bottom of the sixth to break a 1-1 tie and pull off a 2-1 win.

Matthew Cook (2-1) threw a complete game for the Crusaders, striking out eight while allowing just a pair of base hits and one walk.

Dokey and Justin Cook combined for four of MU's six hits, while Barron collected the lone RBI.

Avila falls to 7-3 overall.

MU softball back home sub-.500

The Madonna University women's softball team split a pair of games Saturday to wind up 8-10 on its spring trip at the Tucson (Ariz.) Invitational Games at Lincoln Park.

Erin Mayes (2-for-4) and Emma Cook each knocked in two runs, while Bree Crampton pitched a four-hit, complete-game shutout in an 8-0 victory Saturday over Purdue North Central (Ind.).

Crampton struck out seven and did not allow a walk in seven innings to even her record at 4-4.

Karleigh Creighton (North Farmington) also added two hits.

The loss dropped North Central to 1-3.

In the nightcap, Carly Land held the Crusaders to five hits over seven innings as No. 22-ranked William Penn (Ia.) rolled to an 8-2 win.

Molly Miller went 2-for-4 with three RBI for William Penn (11-6), while Arielle Cox had two hits in a losing cause.

Crampton, the losing pitcher, allowed five earned runs on five hits and five walks in 2.2 innings before giving way to Carlee Meek, who worked the final 3.1 innings.

HOOPS

Graves, ironically, spent her ninth-grade fall semester at King before transferring to Glenn.

"Maybe I still had the little butterflies in my stomach, but after that it was over," she said of the slow start. "I played with some of the King players in AAU basically my whole life, so it was good playing against them. Actually, when I heard we were playing King, the idea was to beat them since I did come from there, so it was good."

Both Graves and Raven Bankston managed to stay in the game despite each picking up their fourth fouls late in the third quarter.

Meanwhile, the third-quarter surge may have been a defining moment for Graves, according to Kovatch.

"I've been waiting for ShaKeya to do that ever since she came to Glenn," he said. "She's an incredible ballplayer. There's nobody I'd rather have the ball in her hand. She's a key player and she did it when it counted. I told her during one of those timeouts, 'This is your time, now's the time, now or never,' and she went after it."

King's Marté Grays shared game-high scoring honors with Graves scoring 22 points, while Antania Hayes and LaQuita Hart added nine each.

The No. 1-ranked Crusaders, however, went 1-for-7 from the field and committed four turnovers in the final quarter while being outscored 11-4.

And to make matters worse, King went only 8-of-22 from the foul line.

"Our free throws were amiss and we had been shooting better free throws better than that," said King coach William Winfield, whose team finished 24-1 overall. "But tonight just wasn't our night. We missed a ton of chip shots. Especially in the second half, we just couldn't finish around the basket. And that was the difference in the ballgame, really."

"We have no regrets. We had an outstanding year. Hopefully John Glenn can move forward and win the state championship."

It's unclear whether Barnes, one of the Rockets' four key guards, will be able to play full minutes against Grand Haven. She played briefly at the end of the first half against King, but sat out the entire second half.

"Against (Dearborn

Heights) Crestwood she tweaked her knee a little bit and we're just not comfortable with her lateral movement," Kovatch said. "We're looking to get her a scholarship and we don't want to put her out there where she can injure it more. So we're taking it day-by-day, game-by-game."

Filling in admirably in Barnes' absence was 5-5 junior guard India Gliespie-Perdue, perhaps the team's best on-the-ball defender.

"She (Gliespie-Perdue) did a good job for her not to be a scorer," Raven Bankston said. "With our point-guard out she did a real good job and I'm proud of her."

"We were determined, that's all I'll say."

Speaker shares story of rediscovering her Catholic faith

St. Michael the Archangel Parish continues the fourth season of its series, "Why Be Catholic," at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 21 with guest speaker Kathleen Crombie, director of minority outreach for Right to Life Michigan.

She'll share the story of rediscovering the fullness and truth of her faith.

Of her "awakening," Crombie says, "Sometimes God allows us to see his hand in life-changing ways. We prayed for my son to be healed physically and God granted a miracle. The unexpected bonus round was my own spiritual conversion and healing at the same time — conversion and healing that I didn't even know I needed."

Since rediscovering her faith, Crombie, who has bachelor of science degree in speech from Northern Michigan University and a master's degree in organizational communication and public relations from Wayne State University, has become wholeheartedly committed to the pro-life movement, completed a two-year study of Theology of the Body through the Cardinal Maida Institute, co-founded the first Fatima Family Apostolate Married Marian Couples prayer group in Michigan. She also serves on the board of directors for the Divine Mercy Center in Eastpointe, and is an accomplished iconographer.

St. Michael's is located at 11441 Hubbard, just south of Plymouth Road, between Farmington Road and Merriman, in Livonia. No charge or reservations are required to attend. For more information including the availability of child care, call (734) 261-1455, Ext. 200, or see www.livoniast-michael.org.

St. Patrick's Day celebration draws all ages for music, food, dance

By Sharon Dargay
Staff Writer

Mick Gavin hopes you'll attend the annual St. Patrick's Day party Sunday, March 17, at the Hellenic Cultural Center in Westland.

But if you want to stop by the Detroit Symphony Orchestra concert in Detroit first, that's okay with him, too.

"My son, Sean, is playing with the symphony at Orchestra Hall," said Gavin, a Redford resident and member of the Crossroads Ceili Band, which is set to play at the Hellenic Center in Westland.

His son will play flute and Devin Shepherd will be on fiddle. Both men are members of the band, Bua, which performs traditional Irish songs.

"They are playing Wheels of the World with the symphony. It's an Irish classic. And they're playing Mist Covered Mountains, which is another Irish symphony," Gavin said. "The symphony is over at 5 p.m. You can be back (in Westland) to catch the Arden School of Dance at 6 p.m. and supper and a lot more music."

The symphony concert starts at 3 p.m. on St. Patrick's Day, Sunday, March 17, at Orchestra Hall, 3711 Woodward Ave., Detroit. Tickets start at $14 and are available at www.dso.org or call (313) 576-5111.

The 29th annual Saint Patrick's Day Irish Fest runs 2 p.m.-9 p.m. Sunday, at the Hellenic Cultural Center, 36375 Joy Road. Admission is $10 and children under 12 are admitted at no charge. In addition to Gavin and the Crossroads Ceili Band, entertainment will include The Conor O'Neill's session group, Eddie McGlinchey, Colin Paige, Ray Maguire, members of the Ardan and O'Hare schools of Irish dance, piper Calum MacNeill and the Dolowy family of Plymouth.

"It's an hour earlier this year," Gavin said, noting the start time. "I thought it would be nice for seniors and families who want to come in and have lunch."

Sean Gavin (left) and Devin Shepherd, both from the Irish band, Bua, will play with the Detroit Symphony on Sunday, March 17. Gavin's father, Mick, will play with his own band that same day at the Hellenic Center in Westland.

Dancers from the Arden School of Dance will perform Sunday, March 17, at the Hellenic Cultural Center in Westland.

performing, the crowd, which will include revelers from as far away as Flint, Lansing and Ohio, can expect to hear more ballads this year. Dance performances are set for 3:30 p.m. and 6 p.m. and pipers will play at 4 p.m. There's also a dance floor for attendees who want to take a step or waltz to the music.

"We usually have a lot of kids out there. They love to dance. The kids get to socialize with each other and run around and be a part of the party. We get babies to grandmas and grandpas. The whole family comes. They enjoy the food and the music. It's a cultural celebration. And it's an opportunity to celebrate the arrival of Christianity in Ireland," Gavin said, referring to St. Patrick, who preached in Ireland.

The Saint Patrick's Day Irish Fest runs through 9 p.m. Corned beef and cabbage dinners, Irish Stew, hot dogs and a cash bar will be available. For more information call (313) 537-3489.

'Hamlet' revised

Schoolcraft College Theater Department stages understandable Shakespeare

By Sharon Dargay
Staff Writer

To be or not to be afraid of Shakespeare? You won't have to ask yourself that question if you watch James Hartman's edited version of Hamlet, which begins a three-weekend run March 22 at Schoolcraft College in Livonia.

"I expect that when we do Shakespeare, people are afraid of it. If they come to see my edited version they'd love it," said Hartman, professor of theater and drama at the college. "If any Shakespeare scholars were to see my play, they'd know editing was done, but they'd know the entire story is there and it makes sense."

That's because Hartman, who has edited seven other of Shakespeare's plays, carefully considered every word as he worked to make the language in the play more accessible to the audience. He began revising Hamlet five years ago, took a break half way through to edit Romeo and Juliet — which he staged in 2012 — and then returned to Hamlet last year. He finished the revision in June last year, but figures he re-edited it six or seven more times over the summer. With all of his revised Shakespeare plays he also has tweaked the script after each rehearsal.

"I was able to see what worked on stage and what didn't every night while in rehearsal. I thoroughly enjoy doing that."

Hartman stresses that he maintains the Shakespearean-style language in the plays.

"It's not modern language. I replace pronouns with nouns because sometimes when you hear 'he,' 'she,' 'it,' or 'they,' you may not remember what it's referring back to," he explained.

Editing techniques

In Hamlet, he replaced some words, particularly those Shakespeare "made up" and that are difficult to understand, with language that conveys information more clearly. He also

When: 6:30 p.m. dinner, followed by 8 p.m. show, Friday-Saturday, March 22-23 and April 5-6; 8 p.m. show only, April 12-13

Where: Dinner is served in the VisTaTech Center, with the show in the Liberal Arts Theatre, both on the Schoolcraft College campus, located on Haggerty between Seven Mile and Six Mile, Livonia

Details: The Theatre Department stages an edited version of Shakespeare's "Hamlet." James Hartman considered every word in the script as he made the language more understandable. broke long sentences into two or three to make the script easier to follow. He reduced multiple metaphors into the few "most powerful or most beautiful."

"If you've ever read a contemporary edition, usually at the side (of the script) there are tons of notes. I've taken what would have been notes and I have inserted the note into the line, making it sound like the actual line. Or I've taken the information and made an appositive in the line. It makes it so clear. In some cases where Shakespeare did not supply a subject or verb, I did."

Hartman's editing also shortened the play. He has watched a performance of the full script at Stratford, Ont., Canada that ran three hours and 45 minutes. His version of Hamlet will run about two and a half hours, including a 10-minute intermission.

With opening night little more than a week away, Hartman, who had been sidelined with health issues during two weeks of rehearsal, is working quickly to ready lighting, sound and programs. Jason Kallas, an English teacher at the college, ran a few of the rehearsals in Hartman's absence.

"I will take over the rest of the play now. He'll stay on as fight choreographer."

The first two weekends of Hamlet include dinner at the college. The final weekend is show only. Get tickets from the bookstore on the main campus or call (734) 462-4596.

Hatch a delicious brunch with egg recipes

Spring is an exciting time filled with new life and bright colors blooming both in the garden and in the kitchen. Inspired by these hues and flavors, the experts in the McCormick Kitchens have developed a collection of recipes and tips for spring gatherings with a special focus on a star ingredient of the season — the egg.

Celebrate eggs by creating a delicious menu with warm cinnamon and bold mustard to wake up the flavors in savory dishes such as brunch casseroles and deviled eggs. Play up eggs in colorful fresh baked treats paired with lemon, almond and vanilla extracts.

Once the menu is finalized, use these tips and ideas from the McCormick Kitchens to simplify your at-home gatherings:

- Make prep a snap: Enjoy more time with your guests by making no-fuss dishes that are easy to prepare ahead, like casseroles and fruit salads.

- Delicious deviled eggs: Offer guests exciting variations on classic deviled eggs by adding tarragon paired with capers, or season with the unexpected flavor of curry.

- Add a "punch" of color: Make the punch bowl part of the party décor. Start by mixing five to seven drops of food color into a punch bowl filled with your favorite springtime drink. Continue to add more drops to achieve the desired hue.

- Artsy egg dyeing: Kids will love fun techniques like sponge painting, crackle color and tie-dyeing for a unique take on egg decorating. Mix 1/2 cup boiling water, 1 teaspoon vinegar and 10 to 20 drops food color in a cup to achieve desired colors. Repeat for each color.

- Batch Bake: Double-batch a festive dessert recipe like Easter Egg Cake Bites, and vary the extracts and food color to make two unique treats in one effort. Try lemon extract paired with yellow food color, or raspberry extract paired with blue food color.

Keep fire safety in mind at nightclubs, stadiums

The National Fire Protection Association recently marked the 10th anniversary of The Station nightclub fire that occurred in Rhode Island with a plea to the public to be cautious and keep safety in mind when visiting nightclubs or similar venues. The Station fire occurred on Feb. 20, 2003, and killed 100 people.

NFPA recently updated and expanded its resource page on assembly and nightclub fires in light of a January fire at the Kiss nightclub in Santa Maria, Brazil, that killed 238 people. The Kiss nightclub fire is ranked third on NFPA's list of the deadliest nightclub fires in the world; The Station is ranked 10th.

"When selecting or settling into an entertainment venue like a nightclub, sports arena or restaurant for an evening of enjoyment, how to get out if there in an emergency is probably not one of the first things on your mind, but it should be," said Lorraine Carli, NFPA's vice president of Communications. "Fire drills are or should be common practice for businesses and schools, along with family home escape plans, so it's only natural for this level of awareness to be carried over to other places, even if you only plan on being there for a short time."

For those visiting events in nightclubs or other places of assembly, there are basic tips to keep in mind when entering a potentially unsafe gathering place.

Before you enter:

- Take a good look.
- Have a communication plan
- Plan a meeting place

When you enter:

- Locate exits immediately
- Check for clear exit paths
- Look for smoke alarms and fire sprinklers

Do you feel safe?

During an emergency:

- React immediately
- Get out, stay out!

Full descriptions of these steps, along with videos, reports and further analysis, can be found at NFPA's website.

NFPA is a worldwide leader in fire, electrical, building, and life safety. The mission of the international nonprofit organization founded in 1896 is to reduce the worldwide burden of fire and other hazards on the quality of life by providing and advocating consensus codes and standards, research, training, and education. NFPA develops more than 300 codes and standards to minimize the possibility and effects of fire and other hazards. All NFPA codes and standards can be viewed at no cost at www.nfpa.org/freeaccess.

Pet dropping plan needs legal check

By Robert Meisner
Guest Columnist

Q: I have suggested to the board a more practical way of dealing with pet droppings at our condominium. It entails having a professional come in to pick up the droppings. What do you think?

Robert Meisner

A: While that process may be controversial, particularly, because certain people do not have dogs and believe that it is the responsibility of the pet owner to clean up, I am aware of commentators who have suggested that approach, and, it may not be totally unreasonable given the fact that it could be part of the maintenance responsibilities of the association, particularly if there are a number of dog owners who do not mind paying, perhaps by way of an additional assessment for that service. Where it gets more "hairy" is if the cost of cleaning up is distributed among all co-owners although, presumably, the garbage pickup is paid by all co-owners through the association even though some co-owners have more garbage than others and/or some co-owners may not have any garage when they are out of town, perhaps during the winter. It is not an idea, therefore that should be totally rejected, but I would check with legal counsel for the association before implementing that plan.

Q: I have leaking in my basement. I called the management company and the representative came out and looked at it and I paid a plumber to give me an estimate to correct the problem which included standing water in the sewage pipes for approximately five years. I have problems with my pipes and I think it is the association's responsibility. Do I have recourse with the management company, association, builder, township inspector who signed off on the work or the State of Michigan?

A: You need a good lawyer to give you your answer, but generally speaking, if it is the association's responsibility, you will need to put pressure on the association, as well as the managing agent, to take care of your problem. The State of Michigan and the township building inspector are not in a position to help you any more than your legislators or congress persons. All too often, people look for help from "free sources" when their best recourse is hiring a competent attorney.

SUDOKU

Like puzzles? Then you'll love sudoku. This mind-bending puzzle will have you hooked from the moment you square off, so sharpen your pencil and put your sudoku savvy to the test!

Here's How It Works:
Sudoku puzzles are formatted as a 9x9 grid, broken down into nine 3x3 boxes. To solve a sudoku, the numbers 1 through 9 must fill each row, column and box. Each number can appear only once in each row, column and box. You can figure out the order in which the numbers will appear by using the numeric clues already provided in the boxes. The more numbers you name, the easier it gets to solve the puzzle!
